This, the superintendent expected, would be this morning, but I have just been informed it could not be opened today, but would be opened not later than tomorrow morning. DEPARTMENT OF SUPPLIES.

Pittsburgh, July 16, 1919.

To the President and
Members of Council,
Pittsburgh, Pa.

Gentlemen—With reference to Bill No. 3085, relative to purchases from the Government, and the resale to citizens of food supplies, read and approved July 7, 1919, I submit herewith the following report of the Department of Supplies' activities concerning same up to the present time.

Prior to receiving official notice of the above numbered resolution the Director of the Department of Supplies wrote a letter on July 8 to the Quartermaster General of the War Department, seeking information regarding the surplus food-stuffs which the Government has to dispose of.

On July 10, after learning the name of one of the proper authorities, we wrote a letter to Major E. E. Squier, Jr., of the Sales Division of the War Department. We received no answer to either letter until this morning, July 16, when Major Squier sent a telegram instructing us to get in touch with Major C. E. Jones, property officer at Philadelphia, Pa. We sent a special delivery letter to Major Jones, copy of which is enclosed herewith.

As soon as anything further develops along this line, this Department will communicate at once with your Honorable Body.

Respectfully submitted,

JAS. F. MALONE,

Director.

July 16, 1919.

Major C. E. Jones,
Zone Surplus Property Officer,
Twenty-first St. and Oregon Ave.,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Major Jones—With reference to the sale of surplus food, which your Division is authorizing municipalities to dispose of to its citizens, to be sold and paid for within ten (10) days from receipt of goods by the municipalities, beg to say that I am in receipt of a telegram from Major E. E. Squier, Washington, D. C., instructing me to get into communication with you.

I wish you would send, as quickly as possible, full details concerning this proposition. Let us know the size of the cans; the exact cost which will have to be turned over to the Government for each unit; the names of the manufacturers, and whether or not the City of Pittsburgh will be permitted to make an inspection of the different commodities, either at Philadelphia or in Pittsburgh.

Respectfully yours,

JAS. F. MALONE,

Director.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

Pittsburgh, July 25, 1919.

President and Members of Council of the City of Pittsburgh.

Gentlemen—I submit herewith to you a communication from City Controller Morrow, with a letter from Hawkins, Delafield & Longfellow attached, both of which speak for themselves.

Council has passed so many street improvement ordinances that the City has reached the point, in my judgment, where it must call a halt. I think it is wrong for Council to pass any further street improvement ordinances, which will increase the debt of the City, unless there is a great and very unusual need for same.

The Department of Public Works now has all the work it can do with its present force and, with our new people's bond issue proposals coming into effect, all the work that it can possibly handle will develop. Council should not increase the debt of the City further by the passage of street improvement ordinances until such time as our borrowing capacity is greatly increased.

This letter is written, not to object to what Council has done (for I feel conscious of Council's desire to make what public improvements they could from time to time), but, now that we have the new improvement propositions before us, to urge that the right thing to do is to call a halt on the old and to take up the new.

Very respectfully yours,

E. V. BABCOCK,

Mayor.

DEPARTMENT OF CITY CONTROLLER.

Pittsburgh, July 22, 1919.

Hon. E. V. Babcock,

Mayor.

Dear Sir—I enclose herewith for your information an extract from a letter from Hawkins, Delafield & Longfellow in relation to the floating debt statement in the Quarter Sessions Court.

The result of the action (and it is the law) has been to increase largely the floating debt and render the borrowing power of the City almost negligible. I would suggest that you call attention of Council to the present financial condition of the City, and ask it to refrain, for the time at least, from passing any ordinances for street improvement of any character.

I will send you a copy of the statement of the debt which I shall file in the office of the Clerk of the Quarter Sessions Court after the sale of the bonds, which are to be sold on Friday, July 25.

Respectfully,

E. S. MORROW,

City Controller.

July 16, 1919.

E. S. Morrow.

City Controller.

City-County Building.

Pittsburgh, Pa.

Dear Sir: * * * We have given careful consideration to the computation of the floating debt of the City, and must advise you to include items in the computation of it which you have not heretofore included. Under the Schuldice case, 234 Pa. 30, it was decided that the estimated property damages, on account of the taking of property, are to be included as part of the debt of the City, and also that the estimated amounts, which would be due contractors under contracts which are executed, must be included as part of the floating debt. You have heretofore included these items in your statements, as has been most proper. Under the McGuire case, No. 1. 245 Pa., 87, the Court stated a novel doctrine, namely, that the constitutional and statutory limitations on debt-incurring capacity was not the amount of debt existing, but the amount of debt authorized. Under this case we, therefore, must advise you that hereafter you should include as part of the debt of the City the estimated cost of improvements at the time the contracts are authorized by Council, and also the estimated damages that will arise from improvements that are authorized by Council. The result will be that, instead of waiting until you countersign the contracts you must enter the debt in your books as debts at the time the ordinance is adopted. No doubt this will be difficult, but there must be co-operation between the City Clerk, the City Engineer and yourself, in order that your debt statement may always be correct. * * *

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

DEPARTMENT OF SUPPLIES.

Pittsburgh, July 29, 1919.

To the President and

With further reference to Bill No. 3085, Resolution relative to the purchase from the Government and resale to the citizens of Pittsburgh, food supplies.

Gentlemen—I respectfully submit the following report to date on the above resolution:

Wednesday, July 23, 1919, the writer, in company with Inspectors Hoff and Greenawalt, of the Bureau of Pure Food Inspection, City of Pittsburgh, visited Washington and Baltimore.

I took up with the proper authorities at Washington the question of food supplies and then visited the warehouse at Colgate, near Baltimore, Md., and inspected the various commodities they had stored and placed an order for one (1) mixed carload of tomatoes, peas, corn, pork and beans, and corn starch, with the understanding that we could secure an unlimited amount right along.

The above articles were all thoroughly inspected by our inspectors and myself and we feel satisfied that they are in excellent condition and would be the cause of saving to the citizens of the City of Pittsburgh at least thirty-five (35) per cent., as against the present retail prices on the said commodities.

We did not order any bacon or meats, due to the fact that they were, in our opinion, not the kind of goods that the average housekeeper could use in their homes; the bacon being large, thick, fatty sides and backs and, while it was a good quality, would not, as stated above, be the kind of bacon that could be used in a private home.

The Department of Supplies is still in communication with other zone surplus depots in an effort to secure further commodities, for sale to our people, and the progress of same will be reported to you from time to time.

Respectfully submitted,

JAS. F. MALONE,

Director.

HAWKINS, DELAFIELD & LONG-FELLOW.

Attorneys and Counsellors at Law.

New York, August 2, 1919.

Hon. E. S. Morrow,
Controller,
City-County Building,
Pittsburgh, Pa.

Dear Sir—We have heretofore, under date of May 7, 1913, by an opinion addressed to the City Solicitor, Hon. Charles A. O'Brien, advised you as to the computation of the 2 per cent. limitation of indebtedness of the City of Pittsburgh. By the special election held on July 8, 1919, the electors assented to an increase of indebtedness in the total amount of $21,996,000.00. Under the decision in the case of McGuire vs. Philadelphia, 245 Pa., 287, this authorized increase exhausts, pro tanto, the debt-incurring capacity of the City, with the result, as you inform us, that the margin of debt-incurring capacity under the 7 per cent. limit is now less than the margin under the 2 per cent. limit. You have asked us to advise you further on the computation of the City's debt.

On July 16, 1919, we supplemented our opinion of May 7, 1913, and advised you to include items in the floating debt of the City which you have not heretofore included. Under the Schuldice case, 234 Pa., 30, it was decided that the estimated property damages on account of the taking of property and injury to it from changes of street grades, etc., are to be included as part of the debt of the City, and also that the estimated amounts which are to be due contractors under contracts which are executed must be included as part of the debts of the City. You have heretofore included these items in statements of indebtedness. Under the McGuire case No. 1, 245 Pa., 287, the court stated a novel doctrine, namely, that the constitutional and statutory limitation on the debt-incurring capacity was not the amount of debt existing, but the amount of debt authorized. We, therefore, advised you that you should include, as part of the debt of the City, the estimated cost of improvements and the estimated property damages therefrom as soon as the ordinances authorizing such improvements are finally adopted and approved. This advice related only to improvements not involved in an election, as other principles govern in the case of improvements involved in an election, and we shall now consider them.

The question to be considered is the effect on the debt of the City of proceedings taken after the election relating to improvements involved in the election. The effect is different in the case of assessment improvements from the others, where no assessments are involved. You will recollect that as to all the street improvements (except the general street improvements) the propositions submitted to the electors were for an increase of indebtedness for the "City's share of the cost." The balance of the cost is to be paid by assessments.

We will first take up the case of the improvements involved in the election where none of the cost is to be assessed on property and, as an example, we will consider the increase of indebtedness for the water supply system. On July 8, 1919, the electors assented to an increase of indebtedness for the water supply system of $1,401,000.00. This sum must be included in the debt of the City at once. McGuire vs. Philadelphia, 245 Pa., 287. The next step is the authorization of bonds by Council. As this is merely a further step toward actually incurring the debt it does not affect the debt of the City at all. Nor does the actual issuance of the bonds affect it. If the improvement is then authorized, that is to say, after the bonds are issued, the indebtedness is also not affected, because as the proceeds of the bonds are in hand and are irrevocably pledged to pay the contractor (and damages, if any, are involved), such cash in hand may be offset against the obligation under the contract and for damages. McGuire vs. Philadelphia (No. 1), 245 Pa., 287 (1914); Schuldice vs. Pittsburgh, 251 Pa., 28 (1915). If, however, the contract is let before the bonds are actually issued, a situation would arise where the City would have an authorized indebtedness to the contractor of $1,401,000.00 and an authorized indebtedness on the bonds in the same amount. We are satisfied that one of these can be offset against the other and, in consequence, that no increase of indebtedness is involved.

The only argument to the contrary is as follows: Under the case of McGuire vs. Philadelphia (No. 1), 245 Pa., 287 (1914), a debt which is authorized but not yet incurred is a debt of the City. Therefore, when the improvement is authorized, one debt is created, and when the bonds are authorized, another debt is created, and until the bonds are issued there are no moneys on hand to offset against one of these debts. We do not think this argument is sound. It is certainly unreasonable to give greater effect to an authorized but unissued series of bonds than to one that is actually outstanding. But, in addition, we believe that this reasoning involves a misinterpretation of the case cited. That case does not really hold that an authorized debt is in fact a debt. What the court meant was that where a municipality has authorized indebtedness to the legal limit, no further authorizations are valid. It does not decide that the authorization of a debt is a debt, although it does decide that a City cannot authorize a debt which, together with debts previously authorized, is in excess of the legal limit. The question of the computation of the legal limit when an improvement is authorized and when bonds are authorized to pay for the improvement, is not involved in the decision.

In order to show the unreasonableness of any other conclusion, assume the case of a City with a debt-incurring capacity of $1,000,000.00. The voters assent to an increase of indebtedness of $1,000,000.00, thus exhausting the debt-incurring capacity of the City. Council then authorizes the letting of contracts in the amount of $1,000,000.00. The indebtedness so created is the indebtedness assented to by the electors. To pay the contractors and carry out the plan voted, Council must authorize bonds. It surely cannot be said that the authorization of the bonds exceeds the debt limit, because, if so, Council cannot proceed with the improvements, and the vote is useless.

The next question is the effect of proceedings subsequent to a debt election for improvements involved in the election where the electors have only authorized an increase of indebtedness to pay the City's share of the cost. The total cost of the improvement will be greater than this because it will include both the City's share of the cost and the share to be assessed. Under the principles above stated, the authorization of the bonds will offset part of this increase of indebtedness, but as the bonds are only for the City's share of the cost, the whole indebtedness caused by the authorization of the improvement is not offset. In consequence, the authorization of each one of these street improvements will cause an increase of the City's debt above the amount authorized by the electors.

Let us assume that the present debt limit of the City, including the amounts voted at the recent election, is $1,000,000.00. (We have not got the actual figures.) The City's share of the cost of the assessment improvements involved in Question No. 1 is $8,178,000.00. The total cost of these improvements is probably considerably more. If, therefore, all these improvements are authorized at one time, the City might immediately be over its debt limit. This can and must be avoided by limiting the authorization of improvements so that the difference between the estimated City's share of the cost (i. e., the amount of indebtedness voted) and the total cost of the improvements never exceeds the margin of debt-incurring capacity. The embarrassing period is, of course, a relatively short one, because as soon as the viewers report and the time to appeal has expired, there will be an offset which will again leave a margin of debt-incurring capacity. There would be no difficulty if it were possible to offset the estimated amount that is to be assessed, but this cannot be done. Schuldice vs. Pittsburgh, 251 Pa., 28 (1915).

It is obvious from the foregoing that not only will the City be limited in proceedings with the assessment improvements involved in the election, but also in incurring further councilmanic debt, and it is only fair to warn you that the City is obviously on the very verge of exceeding its debt limit. The passage of further ordinances for miscellaneous improvements may at any time pass the limit imposed by law, involving serious delay in carrying out the improvements approved by the electors and jeopardizing the credit of the City.

Your letter of July 30, 1913, is not quite clear in its statements of fact, but we will endeavor to apply the principles above stated to the facts as we understand them.

In that letter you give us a statement of the estimated damages from certain street improvements involved in the election, and you ask us how this affects the City's debt. We cannot tell from this information alone. The computation should be made by taking the whole cost of an improvement authorized by an ordinance, that is to say, the estimated damages plus the estimated contract cost; deduct the amount voted for the improvement at the election, and the result is the increase of debt caused by the ordinance.

You refer to Webster avenue. We understand that in 1910 the electors voted $55,000.00 for the City's share of the cost of the improvement. If Council has not authorized the improvement, this is the total amount that should be included in the debt. If Council has authorized the improvement and the estimated cost of it, including physical work and damages, is $103,469.00, then $55,000.00 must be included in the electoral debt and the balance, or $48,469.00, in the councilmanic debt. The $55,000.00 is not included twice, whether bonds have been authorized or not.

You refer to West Carson street. We understand that the total cost of the improvement is estimated at $568,037.00. Bonds have been authorized but not issued for $390,000.00. The latter sum should be included in the councilmanic debt, as bonds authorized but not issued, and the balance, namely, $178,037.00, should be included in the councilmanic floating debt. The total cost of the improvement and the bonds authorized should not both be included in the debt of the City.

At this point it is proper to call your attention to another peculiarity in the issuance of bonds for the assessment improvements. The propositions voted by the electors in the case of such improvements limit the purpose for which indebtedness may be increased to the payment of "the City's share of the cost, damage and expense." If the bonds are issued before the viewers report the amount of them may be equal to the increase of debt that the electors have authorized, but if the bonds are not issued before the viewers report and that report shows that the City's share is less than the increase of debt authorized by the electors, the amount of bonds which may be issued is limited to the City's share as shown by the report. The reason is obvious. The proceeds of bonds can only be used for the purpose for which the indebtedness is authorized. As the indebtedness is only authorized for the City's share of the cost, no more bonds can be issued than is necessary to pay that share. Until the viewers report, the amount stated in the proposition voted is conclusive. But after the viewers report, the City's share is actually determined, as a matter of fact. From the viewpoint of a bond issue, it would have been preferable to have omitted any reference to the City's share, but if it had been omitted, there is some doubt whether the assessments would have been valid.

We are sending a copy of this letter to the Mayor, to the President of Council and to the City Solicitor, inasmuch as they are all equally interested in the subject, and co-operation between them all is necessary in order to carry to a successful conclusion the progressive plan of public improvements upon which the City has embarked.

Yours very truly,

HAWKINS, DELAFIELD & LONG-FELLOW.

No. 3375.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

Pittsburgh, September 2, 1919.

To the Honorable,

the President and Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh.

I hereby certify that on the 22nd day of August, 1919, pursuant to powers vested in me by Section 1, Article 3, of the Charter Act of March 7, 1901, upon the emergency or apprehension of riot or mob arising out of the then existing strike of the motormen and conductors of the Pittsburgh Railways Company and the attempt of said railways to operate its cars on the streets of the City, I deemed it advisable and did appoint two hundred fifty (250) special patrolmen for service on said occasion.

I, therefore, request your honorable body, in the event of there not being a sufficient fund available in the Police Bureau appropriation to pay said special patrolmen, to make the necessary additional appropriation therefor, on certification of the amount required by the proper officers.

Respectfully yours,

E. V. BABCOCK,
Mayor.

M. H. GOTTSCHALL,
Secretary.

DEPARTMENT OF LAW.

Pittsburgh, August 19, 1919.

To the Honorable,

the Council of the City of Pittsburgh.

Gentlemen—On Bill No. 3325, a resolution asking for an opinion relative to the appropriation of City money for the purchase of food supplies from the government, I beg to report:

By Act of July 19, 1917, cities of the second class are authorized, whenever an emergency exists, to purchase and store the necessities of life, including food and coal, and to sell the same to any of the residents of the City. To put the Act into operation it is necessary that the Mayor shall certify in writing to the Council that, in his opinion, an emergency exists in the food supply of the City, whether arising from high prices or other causes, and thereupon the Council must pass a resolution declaring said emergency to exist, when it may proceed to make such appropriation of money as may from time to time be considered necessary.

The Act provides that the Department of Supplies shall be in charge of the purchase and sale of all stores bought by the City, and this shall continue until the Council, by formal resolution, declares the emergency to have terminated.

Under the broad powers of this Act the City can appropriate, for the purchase of food supplies or other necessities of life, to any amount. Doubtless the Legislature had in view the fact that money appropriated by Council for this purpose would bring quick returns and might be provided by transfers temporarily from large departmental appropriations.

Respectfully yours,

CHARLES A. O'BRIEN,
City Solicitor.

Also

No. 3377.

DEPARTMENT OF LAW.

Pittsburgh, August 28, 1919.

To the Honorable,

the Council of the City of Pittsburgh.

Gentlemen—At the request of Mr. Arthur, of the Engineering Bureau, I beg to furnish the following report on the proposition of a certain milling company to purchase portion of a tract of land on the easterly side of Brilliant Cut-off for establishment of a plant, etc.:

It appears from Ordinance No. 373, approved June 25, 1900, Ordinance Book 12, page 24, authorizing the purchase of the Bigelow tract, and from other Municipal Records, that the land in question was purchased by the City from the proceeds of a bond issue for the acquisition of land for park purposes, etc. Although there is no mention in the Bigelow deed to the City of any restriction in the use of land for park purposes, nevertheless it was acquired and dedicated to park purposes only and cannot now be sold or used for other or different purposes. This would be a diversion of the funds which were voted for the express and only purposes of acquiring park land, and such action would not be legal.

As the land is now being used for park purposes, we do not have presently to deal with the question, whether or not, if conditions arose, which made it impossible to use land which had been acquired by a bond issue for that purpose, the City might not dispose of it under such circumstances.

Respectfully yours,
CHARLES A. O'BRIEN,
City Solicitor.

Dear Sir—In considering the matter of the application of the Pennsylvania Milling Company for certain privileges along the line of the Brilliant Cut-off, will you permit me to call the attention of Council to the fact that this plant will be within one thousand feet of the Tuberculosis Hospital on the Leech Farm? In order that the hospital may be protected, I would ask that Council stipulate, in granting the privileges this company wants, that it uses the most modern appliances in its power plant, and agrees to avoid creating any nuisance by reason of the emission of smoke.

Director.

Resolved, That the right is hereby granted to the War Camp Community Service to turn over the unused portion of the old Public Safety Building, which

Mr. English arose and said:

"Mr. President, I arise to a question of personal privilege. I hold in my hand a copy of the statement which Mayor Babcock gave to the newspapers of Pittsburgh on last Saturday, September 6, to be published in the papers of Pittsburgh on Sunday, September 7.

"I am not interested in the political phases of this statement, but I am vitally interested in one statement which affects the integrity of this Council. Among other things the Mayor said, 'If I wanted to go into detail I could tell about the attitude of Messrs. Herron and English on contracts before the City Council.'

"Mr. President, this is an inference that we have been corrupt in our actions before Council on contracts which have been authorized by City Council. I, as one member, have always tried to be fair and honest in my actions on all measures presented to and considered by Council. I believe if the Mayor has any charges or information of malfeasance in office by myself or Mr. Herron, our President, he should present them to this body for investigation.

"For that reason, Mr. President, I ask that the Clerk of Council be directed to inform the Mayor that the Council is ready now and at all times to hear any charges he may have against Mr. Herron and myself regarding City contracts which have been before Council for their vote.

"In explanation, it seems to me that this statement by the Mayor not only challenges the integrity of Mr. Herron and myself, but the whole membership of Council. As you all know, we have nothing to do with the awarding of contracts; our duty and power is to pass the contract ordinances giving the various directors or heads of the City departments the authority to advertise for proposals and award the contracts.

"For the reasons stated above, I believe it is only fair that the Clerk should be directed to inform the Mayor that we are ready at any time to receive charges against Mr. Herron or myself of any corrupt act of ours in connection with our votes on any contract ordinance."

The Chair:

"I concur in the statements made by Mr. English. If there are no objections the Clerk will so notify the Mayor."

And there being no objections, the Clerk sent the following communication to Hon E. V. Babcock, Mayor:

Pittsburgh, September 8, 1919.

Hon E. V. Babcock,
Mayor.

Dear Sir—By direction of the City Council at this afternoon's meeting, I was instructed to inform you that the Council is ready now and at all times to hear any charges you may have against Mr. W. Y. English or Mr. John S. Herron regarding City contracts which have been before the Council for their vote.

In explanation, Mr. English arose to a question of personal privilege, and, seconded by Mr. Herron, they objected to the statement that you gave to the newspapers on Saturday, September 6, for publication in Sunday papers, which is as follows:

"If I wanted to go into detail I could tell about the attitude of Messrs. Herron and English on contracts before the City Council."

Mr. English stated, and Mr. Herron endorsed the statement, that, in their estimation, this statement by you leaves the inference that they have been corrupt in their actions as Councilmen and that you seem to have knowledge of such corrupt acts. They claim that this was challenging their integrity and, by the same token, was challenging the integrity of the whole Council; and, without objection, I was directed to inform you as to the above position of Council.

Yours very truly,

E. J. MARTIN,
City Clerk.

Mr. Garland moved

That Council do now adjourn.

Pittsburgh, September 8, 1919.

Hon E. V. Babcock,
- Mayor.

Dear Sir—By direction of the City Council at this afternoon's meeting, I was instructed to inform you that the Council is ready now and at all times to hear any charges you may have against Mr. W. Y. English or Mr. John S. Herron regarding City contracts which have been before the Council for their vote.

In explanation, Mr. English arose to a question of personal privilege, and, seconded by Mr. Herron, they objected to the statement that you gave to the newspapers on Saturday, September 6, for publication in Sunday papers, which is as follows:

"If I wanted to go into detail I could tell about the attitude of Messrs. Herron and English on contracts before the City Council."

Mr. English stated, and Mr. Herron endorsed the statement, that, in their estimation, this statement by you leaves the inference that they have been corrupt in their actions as Councilmen and that you seem to have knowledge of such corrupt acts. They claim that this was challenging their integrity and, by the same token, was challenging the integrity of the whole Council; and, without objection, I was directed to inform you as to the above position of Council.

Yours very truly,

E. J. MARTIN.
City Clerk.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair at this time instructed the Clerk to communicate with the Mayor, asking him when the budget estimates for 1920 will be ready for Council.

And, on motion of Mr. Garland,
Council adjourned.

Resolution authorizing and directing the Controller to transfer the following amounts: $6,500.00 from Code Account No. 52, Standardization Fund, to Code Account No. 1031, Supplies, Division of Motor Vehicles; $10,000.00 from Code Account No. 52, Standardization Fund, to Code Account No. 1032, Materials, Division of Motor Vehicles, and $2,000 from Code Account No. 52, Standardization Fund, to Code Account No. 1033, Repairs, Division of Motor Vehicles.

Which was read.

Mr. Garland moved

A suspension of the rule to allow the second and third readings and final passage of the resolution.

Which motion prevailed.

And the rule having been suspended, the resolution was read a second time.

Mr. Winters arose and said:

"Mr. President, I introduced this resolution in the regular, routine way and, since giving some thought to the matter and being chairman of the Standardization Committee, I desire to protest against the turning of the money set up for standardization of salaries of City employees for this purpose—not that I want to disagree with the fact that the Division of Motor Vehicles does need the money and perhaps ought to have it; but I think that if we want to keep faith with the employees of the City when we agreed to adopt the standardization of wages and set up a fund to take care of it, that we should not take the money out of that fund. While the report of the committee on standardization has perhaps been slow in coming in (and as there were no requests on the part of the committee, or the Mayor or the Council in the matter), I believe between this and not later than the budget-making time the question of standardization of salaries of all City employees will be before you for thorough discussion and action.

"The money was set apart for standardization of salaries, and if it is not used this year for that purpose, I think it should remain in the fund until such time as we put standardization into effect."

Mr. English arose and said:

"Mr. President, I have two objections to this bill; one has been stated by the previous speaker. I think every member acted in good faith when he voted to set up the appropriation to equalize and standardize the salaries and wages of City employees. I think the work has been completed, but not yet brought in. However that may be, it seems to me that we have all been trying to get somewhere in the matter of standardization of wages for all City employees. I am opposed to transferring any money from the standardization account. What kind of respect will the City employees hold for the Council if we allow this fund to be used for some purpose other than that for which it was appropriated?"

"My second objection is the use proposed by this transfer. We have nothing definite to show what the Motor Vehicle Division intends to do with this $18,000.00. What do they want? Is it gasoline, tires, repairs or some waste or extravagance? There is no single piece of evidence to justify any member of Council voting for this additional $18,000.00 for the Division of Motor Vehicles. There is nothing before us to show what this amount will be used for. My main objection to this transfer is that we haven't one word from the Mayor or the head of this division showing the necessity of the $18,000.00 at this time.

"I am not going to charge anybody being crooked or corrupt, but I do charge extravagance on the part of this division, and this extravagance should be stopped before we give them $18,000.00 or 18 cents.

"We don't know whether $1,000.00 of this will be spent for tires and another $1,000.00 for gasoline; we are ignorant of what this money is going to be spent for, because those in charge have failed to give us the information. I think we should also give the Mayor an opportunity to look into this matter. The Mayor, personally, told me that he does not understand the high cost of operating this division, and said: 'What can I do?' Why can't the Mayor stop it? It is in his power to do so. I personally cannot make officials give me reports, but I believe this Council can. If $18,000.00 is really needed for this division, let them show us and, if we approve, the funds could be transferred from some fund other than the one from which it is proposed to take the money. I will not vote for it out of this fund. I am going to offer a motion that this resolution be recommitted to the committee for further investigation."

Mr. Garland arose and said:

"Mr. President, I would like to say that this matter was before the committee the other day and gone into at considerable length. The Mayor is conversant with the subject. The matter of taking the money away from the standardization fund—that can be taken care of next year. If the fund is depleted and the money needed this year it can be replenished from some other funds.

"The report of the Committee on Standardization should possibly be in by this time. However, I am not going to criticize anybody for its not being here. We have not sufficient information as to what amount will be necessary this year, and should more money be needed than is remaining in the standardization fund we will be able to get it somewhere else. Because of this fact, I don't want to hold up the passage of this resolution."

Mr. English arose and said:

"Mr. President, I would like to know what they intend to use this amount of money for; how much gasoline they need, how many new tires they propose to purchase, etc.? I desire this information so that I can vote intelligently on the resolution."

Mr. Garland arose and said:

"Mr. President, the gentleman knows no man here can give him that information. This activity, like every other activity, when it uses its fund applies to Council for a transfer from some other fund where it is not needed. We appropriated $77,000.00 for this division, and they are going to spend, in addition to that, $18,000.00. It may have been caused by the fact that an automobile went down to New York State or Massachusetts. During the recent street car strike more machines were used, and during the present crisis of the steel industry more machines are used. We had this out in committee and the resolution was affirmed by a majority of votes."

Mr. English arose and said:

"Mr. President, the gentleman does not tell the truth. I will admit that, in a perfunctory, half-hearted manner, the matter was considered in committee. Now, let me remind you of the matter as it occurred in committee. The only paper before us was the formal request of the Mayor for a transfer, but the Mayor's letter did not give us a single fact, reason or argument showing the need of money for motor vehicles. He merely makes the flat statement that they will need money. There was no report of any kind before the committee and, as far as I can learn, we have nothing new now. I am tired of this miserable way of handling City business. Every member of Council knows that the Motor Vehicle Division is very extravagant, and I have not gotten very much help in my efforts to curb this extravagance."

"Mayor Armstrong admitted that he could not handle it. Then Council tried to straighten it out by having the Director of the Department of Supplies handle it, but Mayor Armstrong blocked it. When Mayor Babcock took charge it was necessary to go over the entire matter again. He admitted it also and suggested putting all City motors under one roof at the old River Avenue Pumping Station. He did not go through with that scheme, but the extravagance is going along as usual.

"Now the Exposition is held out as a new lifesaver, but no effort is to be made towards economy until we get into the Exposition.

"I say that is all wrong. The thing to do is to cut off waste and extravagance immediately. If this division will not keep its expenses within its appropriations, it is high time to stop it. Surely we should have some real, definite information before we allow any more City money to go to this division.

"Take the matter of tires for example. In the fall of 1918 we had this same division before us. Director Malone came in and told us he had a low price on tires and wanted $5,000.00 to stock up for 1919. We gave them $5,000.00 and they bought tires galore. I know positively that 35x4½ tires that cost $70.00 early in the spring of 1919 were reduced to $58.00 in May, 1919, because I purchased two tires myself. Surely the City, buying hundreds of tires, should obtain reductions which any small purchaser obtained. We cannot dodge our responsibility by refusing to get facts to guide us."

Mr. Garland arose and said:

"I did not say anything about tires or gasoline. The gentleman does not tell the truth. He is like a schoolboy who always throws something into the matter that does not pertain to it. This matter was up in committee and acted upon by the majority votes of the members present. This is a deliberate attempt to check its passage."

Mr. English arose and said:

"If they can show me what they intend to use the money for, I will vote for that amount. I leave that up to the members of Council whether I am attempting to check the passage of the resolution. I ask that the letter be read."

The Chair:

The Clerk will please read the letter.

The Clerk read the following communication:

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

Pittsburgh, September 22, 1919.

Mr. E. J. Martin,
City Clerk,
Pittsburgh, Pa.

Dear Sir—I transmit herewith for introduction the following:

Resolution authorizing the transfer of $18,500.00 from Code Account No. 52, Standardization Fund, to various code accounts in the Division of Motor Vehicles.

Very respectfully yours,

E. V. BABCOCK,
Mayor.

Mr. English arose and said:

"I want to say one word more, Mr. President. When the bill of Mr. Robinson, our trusted attorney in the traction matter, for expert services was up in committee last week it was thrown aside. Mr. Robinson's O. K. was on that bill. Mr. Robinson is one in whom we have confidence and who is in charge of all litigation against public utility corporations and who is battling for the City of Pittsburgh to save twenty-two million dollars, yet that man's bill for real estate experts was held up. Mr. Robinson later came in personally and explained it to the satisfaction of the committee. Why can't I get the same information regarding the Division of Motor Vehicles?"

Mr. McArdle arose and said:

"Mr. President, in connection with the statement of Mr. Winters, I would like to ask if Mr. Winters can advise us as to whether there is a likelihood of an early presentation to Council of the standardized salary bill, and whether in his opinion, there is a likelihood that that it will carry with it a recommendation which would involve the expenditure of a large part of the balance that remains in this fund now? If he can give that on such information that he has."

Mr. Winters arose and said:

"Mr. President, the Committee on Standardization has salary schedules to cover almost the entire City service, and the principal contention that the Standardization Committee had to contend with is the protest filed by the City employees against the salary standards that they have set up. And I want to assure you that there are plenty of protests—a great volume of them—and the Standardization Committee can complete their work in a reasonable time if the Council so desires. It has been the committee's impression that the Council itself was not favoring any undue haste; hence the delay of any report from them being submitted, and at any time the Council sees fit we can turn over the salary standard, accompanied by the protests of the City employees.

"As to the amount of money necessary to put it into operation, I cannot say. I can say this, I have come to my viewpoint because of many talks with City employees, that they are disappointed, because the Council is dissipating this fund. I want it understood that I am not in favor of this money being used for other purposes. If the Council wants to go on record that it will replenish this fund it can do so. I am opposed to the money being taken from the fund, even if the assurance goes with it that the fund will be replenished."

Mr. Rauh arose and said:

"Mr. President, I would like to ask a question. Mr. Winters stated that there are a great many protests being filed with this committee by City employees who are not satisfied with the standard fixed for his or her position. I would like to know how these protests came in. I, as a member of Council, have no idea what these standards are going to be. If a member of Council (I don't know that any other member has received the information or not) hasn't received any word as to the standards fixed by the committee, how does the City employees get the advanced information?"

Mr. Winters arose and said:

"Mr. President, answering Mr. Rauh. I want to say that the employee gets the information through the channel adopted by the Committee. The committee fixes the standard of a position and posts notice of same. It invites the employee, if he is not satisfied with the standard fixed for his or her position, to file protest with the committee."

"For the information of the gentleman I want to state that the rates have been posted in front of the building on the bulletin board used by the Civil Service Commission and from information given some of the directors of the various departments and in that way the City employees were invited to file their protest in writing with the committee. Many of them have done so. Perhaps Mr. Rauh has overlooked them and perhaps he has not talked much about this subject with any member of the committee. I hope this is the information he desires."

Mr. Garland arose and said:

"Mr. President, answering that part of the gentleman's statement as to replenishing the fund, I don't think there is any question that we will not replenish this fund if the money is needed."

Mr. McArdle arose and said:

"Where would you get the money?"

Mr. Garland:

"From the budget committee."

Mr. English moved

That the resolution be recommended to the Committee on Finance.

Upon which motion Mr. English demanded a call of the ayes and noes, and the demand having been sustained, the ayes and noes were taken, and being taken were:

Ayes—Messrs.

English	Winters
Herron (President)

Noes—Messrs.

Dailey	McArdle
Garland	Rauh
Henderson	Robertson

Ayes—3.

Noes—6.

And a majority of the votes being in the negative, the motion was rejected.

And the resolution was read a third time, and upon final passage the ayes and noes were taken, and being taken were:

Ayes—Messrs.

Which was read.

Mr. Garland moved

A suspension of the rule to allow the second and third readings and final passage of the resolution.

Which motion prevailed.

And the rule having been suspended, the resolution was read a second time.

Mr. English arose and said:

"Mr. President, I am going to oppose the passage of this resolution, because I don't think we should take this $10,000.00 from the fund to be used in the standardization of salaries of City employees. Further than that, I would like to ask if any member of Council knows of the items that make up the $44,000.00 appropriated for the Mayor's Welcoming Committee. I don't know of any bills being submitted to the Finance Committee, as provided by ordinance setting up this fund, for approval. I have not seen any bills that will go to make up this additional $10,000.00. My principal objection, however, to the resolution is that I cannot conscientiously vote to take this money from the Standardization Fund. I therefore vote No."

And the resolution was read a third time and, upon final passage, the ayes and noes were taken, and being taken were:

Ayes—Messrs.

Dalley	McArdle
Garland	Rauh
Henderson	Robertson
Herron (President)

Noes—Messrs.

And the bill was read a second time.

Mr. Garland moved

"Mr. President, I am going to vote against this resolution because the garbage and rubbish is not collected properly from the residences in this City, and the City pays an enormous amount to have it done. It is a perfect joke the way it is collected today. Many parts of the City are not provided with service for five weeks and other parts for two months. Perhaps the members of Council have noticed in the papers lately in the City of Philadelphia that one of the reasons why the collection system will be changed from private contractor system to the City of Philadelphia doing the work was that the garbage and rubbish was not collected regularly by the private contractors. The people, aroused over the poor service rendered in Philadelphia and the high cost paid there to private contractors, repudiated the administration, and that city will now collect its own garbage and rubbish. I predict the same result will happen in Pittsburgh unless better service is given, as the people will not stand for this much longer. The City can collect its rubbish and garbage better than any private contractors—at least better than the private contractors are doing today, and for less money."

Mr. McArdle arose and said:

"Mr. President, is there a communication from the Director of the Department of Public Health before the Council in which he gives his approval to the specifications which we are asked to approve by this resolution? If so, I would ask that the communication be read."

The Chair:

"There is a communication attached to the resolution; and if there are no objections the communication will be read."

The Clerk read the following communication:

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH.

Pittsburgh, September 4, 1919.

John S. Herron,

President of Council,

Pittsburgh, Pa.

Dear Sir—Enclosed herewith please find resolution of the approval of the present specifications for the removal and disposal of garbage and rubbish. It is the intention to advertise shortly for proposals for this work. The specifications now in force seem to be as satisfactory as can be agreed upon, and this resolution merely carries them on through the term of the next contract to be made.

Will you kindly present this at the next meeting of Council.

Very truly yours,

WM. H. DAVIS,

Director.

Mr. Garland moved

That the communication be received and filed and spread on the Minutes of this meeting.

Mr. McArdle arose and said:

"Mr. President, I think there ought to be an unqualified approval by the Director of the Department of Public Health of the specifications before Council when it passes a resolution of this kind. I take this position because of the fact that when there was complaint about this subject within the present year, and the Department of Public Health was assumed to be in perfect harmony with the specifications we were told that they were specifications prepared and recommended by Council. I was led to believe that the Department of Public Health might not think they were all right. My contention now is that the Department of Public Health should prepare specifications that are satisfactory to it.

"Of course, the passage of this does not dispose of the question, whether the City shall or shall not collect the garbage and rubbish. It is not a part of the subject now under discussion. It is not an ordinance to advertise for bids and award a contract, but it is a subject putting Council on record as being satisfied with the specifications in a very definite way, while the Department of Public Health is only on record in a rather indefinite way."

The Chair:

"This communication comes to us from the Director of the Department of Public Health. We ought at least have the department O. K. these specifications. The motion of Mr. Garland is that the communication of the Director of the Department of Public Health be received and filed and spread on the Minutes."

Mr. English arose and said:

"Mr. President, the right procedure would be to send this resolution to the Director for a report in writing, submitting specifications which he approves. I believe we should follow Mr. McArdle's line of reasoning and have the Director furnish specifications with a letter stating that he desires Council to approve such specifications. Then there will not be any chance of a misunderstanding."

Mr. English moved

That the resolution be recommended to the Committee on Health and Sanitation.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Garland asked leave and at this time presented

No. 3560. Resolution authorizing and directing the Mayor to deliver a deed for lot No. 36 in the plan of the Hammer Estate to Mrs. Minnie M. Wehner for the sum of $75.00.

Also

No. 3561. Communication from officers and employees of the Crucible Steel Company, endorsing the daylight saving ordinance.

Also

No. 3562. Communication from the Brookline Board of Trade, endorsing the daylight saving ordinance.

Also

No. 3563. Communication from the officers and employees of the Logan-Gregg Hardware Company, endorsing the daylight saving ordinance.

Also

No. 3564. Communication from P. R. Williams, endorsing the daylight saving ordinance.

Also

No. 3565. Communication from the Traffic Club of Pittsburgh, endorsing the daylight saving ordinance.

Also

No. 3566. Communication from the Cotter Club, endorsing the daylight saving ordinance.

Also

No. 3567. Communication from the Pittsburgh Athletic Association, endorsing the daylight saving ordinance.

Which were severally read and referred to the Committee on Finance.

Mr. English at this time arose to a question of personal privilege and read the following:

"Mr. President, before closing the Minutes of today, I wish to add a statement under personal privilege. You will recall that on September 8, in Council, I made a statement in which I referred to certain statements Mayor Babcock had sent to the newspapers which I thought were a reflection on the character and integrity of Mr. Herron and myself as members of Council.

"When Council reconvened after the primary election, namely, on September 22, I again repeated my remarks and stated that I intended to continue my inquiry until the Mayor proved the charge or retracted the statement he furnished to the newspapers.

"I think it proper that this statement should be printed in the Minutes of this meeting. On Tuesday afternoon, September 23, at about 6 P. M., I met the Mayor as he was waiting for the elevator on the fifth floor of this building. After an exchange of greetings I reminded the Mayor of his charge and my determination to insist on a showdown. He replied that he had hit me below the belt, but did not intend to do so, as he had no knowledge of any charges against me on my vote in Council."

"Having admitted that his charges were for political effect and that he had not intended any assault on my character, he further asked if I would not now drop the fuss I was making about it. I replied that I had no intention or desire to make any fuss, but I did intend to defend my character against all attacks, political or otherwise.

"Therefore, Mr. President, having made my request for an inquiry before the public and in open Council, it is fair and right that I should make this statement.

"The Mayor having withdrawn his statement and having acknowledged that he had 'hit me below the belt,' without any foundation for the serious charge he made, I wish to do him justice by asking that the matter be closed and this statement printed in full in the Minutes.

"I also wish to say that I regret that the incident happened at all, but that I do not bear any malice or ill-will on account of it. Neither will it have any influence on my course as a member of Council. I shall continue to support good measures, whether proposed by the Mayor or others, and will continue to oppose bad measures, regardless of their authors or backers."

And, on motion of Mr. Garland,
Council adjourned.

No. 3596.

CITY TREASURER'S OFFICE.

Pittsburgh, September 30, 1919.

Hon. John S. Herron,

President of Council.

Dear Sir:

I am attaching hereto copy of a letter sent to the Mayor, which explains itself, and which I trust you will submit to your fellow councilmen for their consideration.

Yours very truly,
CHAS. S. HUBBARD,
City Treasurer.

Pittsburgh, September 30, 1919.

Hon. E. V. Babcock,

Mayor.

Dear Sir:

Having gone carefully over the books in this office showing the amount of taxes collected for the current year from the date we were able to start the collection until the delinquent period, I find that, had we started this collection on the date set by law, January 2, instead of February 17, the earliest date we could start owing to the delay in completing the budget and fixing the millage, the City would have saved fifty thousand dollars ($50,000.00) in interest on bank balances alone, or an amount approximately sufficient to cover the payroll for this entire department for the year.

Aside from this saving to the city by starting the collection of taxes at the proper date, it would save endless confusion and annoyance to the taxpayers, and I therefore, urge upon you the necessity for an early adjustment of the millage for the coming year, so the tax books may be furnished this department in time to start the collection January 2, 1920.

Yours very truly,
CHAS. S. HUBBARD,
City Treasurer.

Which was read.

DEPARTMENT OF CITY
CONTROLLER.

Pittsburgh, October 4, 1919.

To the Council—

Gentlemen:

I notice on your files for Monday an Ordinance for the appointment of a Deputy Superintendent in the Bureau of City Property. This Ordinance is virtually a duplicate of the one presented and negated by the Finance Committee. This being the case, under the laws governing Council, this Ordinance would be illegal, and therefore should not be considered at this time. When the new Council is organized, it could be introduced and if necessary, passed, but not before that time.

Respectfully,

E. S. MORROW,

City Controller.

Which was read, received and filed.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Bill No. 3252. An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance creating position of Deputy Superintendent of the City-County Building, Department of Public Works, at a salary of $2,400.00 per annum."

In Council, September 29, 1919, Bill read, rule suspended, read a second time and amended in section 1, as shown in red, and bill laid over for reprinting.

Which was read.

Mr. English arose and said:

Mr. President, some time ago I was in favor of creating the position of Assistant Superintendent in the Bureau of City Property; but it seems to me that since they have been able to carry on the activities of the bureau without this additional employee for ten months of the year, we should withhold action on this matter until budget time. I don't think it will inconvenience the activities of this bureau to withhold the creation of this new position for the few months remaining until the budget is before us.

Mr. Garland moved

That the bill (together with a copy of the communication from the City Controller) be referred to the Law Department for an opinion as to the legality of the bill.

Which motion prevailed.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Garland presented

No. 3609. Report of the Committee on Finance for September 30, 1919, transmitting sundry papers to council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation.

Bill No. 3341. Resolution authorizing and directing the City Controller to transfer the sum of $2,000.00 from Appropriation No. 42, Contingent Fund, to Appropriation No. 1383, Public Wash House and Bath Association.

In Finance Committee, September 30, 1919, read and amended by striking out the words "42, Contingent Fund," and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "52-M, Standardization Fund," and as amended ordered returned to council with an affirmative recommendation.

Which was read.

Mr. Garland moved

That the amendment of the Finance Committee be agreed to.

Which motion prevailed.

And the resolution, as amended in committee and agreed to by Council, was read.

Mr. Garland moved

A suspension of the rule to allow the second and third readings and final passage of the resolution.

Which motion prevailed.

And the rule having been suspended, the resolution was read a second time.

Mr. English arose and said:

Mr. President, I am in favor of helping the Bath House Association and believe this would be a worthy bill if the amount desired to be transferred to help this organization was taken from some fund other than that set up for the standardization of salaries of city employees. The fund for the Standardization of salaries was set up for a specific purpose and should not be used to defray the expenses of any bureau or division of the city or for the purpose of purchasing supplies and materials.

I think the money needed for the Bath House Association could be secured from the War Farms Garden fund or some other fund. I am opposed to the money being taken from the standardization fund, but I am not opposed to helping the Bath House Association. I therefore vote No on Bill No. 3341.

And the resolution was read a third time, and upon final passage the yeas and noes were taken, and being taken were:

Ayes—Messrs.

Dalley McArdle
Garland Rauh
Henderson Robertson
Herron (President)

Noes—Messrs.

English Winters

Ayes—7.
Noes—2.

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the resolution passed finally.

Also

Bill No. 3514. Resolution authorizing and directing the City Controller to transfer the sum of $6,500.00 to Code Account No. 1232, Supplies, Municipal Hospital, from the following codes: $2,500.00 from Code Account No. 1228, Salaries, Regular Employees; $1,000.00 from Code Account No. 1229, Salaries, Temporary Employees; $200.00 from Code Account No. 1230, Wages, Regular Employees, Municipal Hospital, Bureau of Infectious Diseases, and $2,800.00 from Code Account No. 1246, Salaries, Regular Employees, Bureau of Smoke Regulation, Department of Public Health.

Which was read.

Mr. Garland moved

A suspension of the rule to allow the second and third readings and final passage of the resolution.

Which motion prevailed.

And the rule having been suspended, the resolution was read a second time.

Mr. English arose and said:

Mr. President, Bill No. 3514 provides for the transfer of $6,500.00 to the Department of Public Health. I am satisfied to help the Department of Public Health, but I don't think the explanation given Council is sufficient to justify our transferring $6,500.00. I think some reasonable explanation should be furnished Council to show what they intend to do with the money, and until this explanation is furnished I shall be compelled to vote against transferring the money. I therefore vote No.

And the rule having been suspended the resolution was read a second time.

Mr. English arose and said:

Mr. President, this bill provides for a number of transfers and shifts in the Bureau of City Property amounting to $7,600.00. I wish to say that the explanation furnished to the Committee on Finance reported on about $2,500.00 of the $7,600.00. Why can't we get a report on the balance? For instance, there is one item of $4,107.20 for the Diamond Market; the Superintendent said there were no new positions created in the Diamond Market. Therefore, I cannot see the justification for this transfer. If there has been an increase in the cost of the market there should be a sufficient increase in rents to pay it.

In view of the fact that Council has not received information as to the purposes for which this money is to be used, and until such information is furnished us, I deem it my duty to vote against these transfers.

And the resolution was read a third time, and upon final passage the ayes and noes were taken, and being taken were:

No. 3654.
Pittsburgh, Pa., October 13, 1919.
And to the Honorable City Council,
President of the City Council,
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.
And to the Honorable City Council,
Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Gentlemen—We, the undersigned residents and citizens of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and Allegheny County, on behalf of organized labor and its one hundred thousand and more members and citizens, and by their authority do hereby complain to your honorable body touching and concerning the conduct of police officials, magistrates, deputies and others given authority to arrest and apprehend strikers in your city and confine them to jails and take them to various courts, and set forth the following:

That since September 22, 1919, there has existed in Pittsburgh and vicinity what is known as the steel mill workers' strike;

That since said strike, the various police officials and magistrates have shown a willful disposition of partiality and unfairness against the strikers and all union men, and have exhibited such partiality and unfairness by means of unlawful and illegal arrests and violations of duty and a disregard of every legal right and guarantee; that men and women are arrested at all hours of the night, taken from their beds without opportunity for dressing, or being informed as to the nature of the charge, thrown into jail, abused and mistreated while confined, taken before magistrates, given excessive fines without hearings; held to court without evidence or hearing on excessive bail, all as it seems, with the one purpose of assisting and aiding in the defeat and the breaking of the strike.

That your Mayor, Director of Public Safety, and Chief of Police, have arbitrarily denied organized labor the holding of meetings in the usual and ordinary places; that same is, in the opinion of your petitioners and complainants, done with the intention of discrimination against organized labor, and not in the interest of law and order;

That regularly constituted business meetings of labor unions duly chartered, are intruded and trespassed upon by police officers directed to and do sit in said meetings, and the compelling of such meetings in their presence;

That the undersigned are ready to submit abundant evidence by witnesses to substantiate each and every charge aforesaid;

That we complain to your honorable body and petition you to give this matter due and speedy hearing, and that you thoroughly consider the charges to be presented in order that you may deal with same in such manner as you may consider proper;

That your petitioners ask for no consideration other than that which should be accorded to every resident of Pittsburgh, regardless of race, color or citizenship, that is, that the authorities uphold the law in the interests of justice to all, and not in the violation for the benefit of some.

Respectfully submitted,

H. K. HOOK,

President, Pittsburgh Central Labor Union.

F. P. HANAWAY,

Secretary, Pittsburgh Central Labor Union.

S. R. TARNER,

Chairmen, Brotherhood Railroad Trainmen, Central Committee.

JOS. H. DUTY,

President, Building Trades Council.

WM. H. LYONS,

Secretary, Building Trades Council.

E. F. WELSH,

President—Chairman of Board of Business Agents for Pittsburgh Building Trades Council.

PHILLIP MURRAY,

President, District 5, United Mine Workers of America.

Which was read.

Mr. Garland moved

That the communication be referred to the Mayor and the Department of Law.

Mr. McArdle arose and said:

Mr. President, I would like to raise the question under what rule is it to be referred to the Mayor and the Department of Law. Under our rules it should be referred to the Committee on Public Safety, where it would be determined what action, if any, we would take.

Mr. Garland arose and said:

Mr. President, the members of Council are present and we can take action now. My motion is not without precedent. I made the motion in good faith that it be referred to the Mayor and the Department of Law. This matter properly comes under the jurisdiction of the Mayor and it should be submitted to him for his action.

Mr. Winters arose and said:

Mr. President, I am opposed to the motion for the reason that it is a petition for a hearing. The petition sets forth certain things, the truth of which we know nothing. It has always been the policy of this Council ever since its inception to grant a hearing to any group of citizens or individuals who felt they had a grievance or just cause for complaint. Without regard to the merit or demerit of the complaint, or without any regard for the question involved in the situation, I think when a petition for a hearing is presented to us, it is no more than fair and equitable that the request should be granted.

Mr. Garland arose and said:

Mr. President, it is not a request for a hearing, and I submit that it is absolutely without our jurisdiction to take action on it.

The Chair:

Are there any further remarks? If not, the question is on the motion to refer the communication to the Mayor and the Department of Law.

Upon which motion Mr. Garland demanded a call of the ayes and noes, and the demand having been sustained, the ayes and noes were taken and were:

Ayes—Messrs.

Dalley	Henderson
Garland	Rauh

Noes—Messrs.

English	McArdle
Herron (President)	Winters

Ayes—4.

Noes—4.

The motion did not prevail.

Mr. McArdle moved

That the communication be referred to the Committee on Public Safety.

Upon which motion Mr. Garland demanded a call of the ayes and noes, and the demand having been sustained, the ayes and noes were taken, and were:

Ayes—Messrs.
English McArdle
Herron (President) Winters

Noes—Messrs.
Dailey Henderson
Garland Rauh

Ayes—4.

Noes—4.

The motion did not prevail.

Mr. Winters arose and said:

Mr. President, I desire to inquire if any further action can be taken on the matter at this meeting.

Mr. Garland arose and said:

Mr. President, is there anything before us? The gentleman is out of order.

The Chair:

The gentleman is in order until such time as we know what his question will be. Proceed, Mr. Winters.

Mr. Winters arose and said:

Mr. President, I desire to ask you if another motion on this subject would be in order.

The Chair:

The thing to do is to receive the communication and refer it to the committee in the usual way.

Mr. Garland arose and said:

Mr. President, you have already disposed of that question; you cannot refer it to any committee.

Mr. Winters moved

That the request for a hearing be granted and that the time be set for 3.00 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, October 16, 1919, and that the Mayor, the Director of the Department of Public Safety and the Superintendent of Police be invited to attend this hearing.

Mr. Garland arose and said:

Mr. President, on that motion I would like to put something on the record. I will not be here Thursday as I had made arrangements to go away with my wife tomorrow (Wednesday) evening. If I were to be in the city I perhaps would not come to the meeting. I saw an article in this morning's paper that this subject would come up, and I desire to put myself on record as being opposed to this hearing. I am speaking on the motion.

I protest against the suggested hearing for the reason that this Council has no jurisdiction whatsoever.

Should there be any charges against the Department of Public Safety or against Police Magistrates, same should be preferred in writing with specific charges, showing wherein law and order have not been maintained.

This is no time for the legislative body of the City to lend itself to the propaganda which is being carried on in certain manufacturing districts throughout the country, said propaganda being generally along radical lines tending to Communism and Revolution.

The question of unionism is not involved—The question is rather—Are the industries of our country to be subjected to the rule of radicals and revolutionaries who are doing their utmost to incite trouble among unnaturalized foreigners? As I understand it, the great majority of patriotic Americans are now at work, and have no sympathy with such movements.

The United States Senate has the matter in hand, and the law-making body of the City of Pittsburgh should keep hands off.

I therefore vote No on the motion.

Mr. Winters arose and said:

Mr. President, I have no prepared remarks, but I also want to go on record in a way that this just comes to me at this time without any preparation.

I have full confidence in the Mayor of this city in his ability to handle the situation. He is vested with power by law to handle the situation and I know that there is not one member of Council, at least myself, who wants to in any shape or form usurp the power of the Chief Executive of the City, but I do want to go on record to the effect that when a body of citizens represented by the number of men who signed this petition come to Council and ask for a hearing, I for one will vote for that hearing being granted. I want to say further that as a Councilman and a public official I represent all the people of Pittsburgh and that I represent them as fully as I can according to my light and according to law.

If the United States Senate could send a committee to the City of Pittsburgh to hear these complaints, surely I as a member of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh can also afford to hear their complaints. On the question of the merit or demerit of the complaint, and on the question of the things alleged, they will be developed at the hearing, and I don't want to put myself on record as judging a case before the evidence has been presented, and I hold my mind open to hear the evidence.

I have heard some things said about one of the Police Magistrates who is one of my best friends and during the hearing on these complaints I will see that no injustice is done him, and on the other hand, if he has abused his power as a Police Magistrate, and it could be proven to me, I surely would not defend such proceeding. I am mindful of the fact, also, that the Police Magistrates are appointed by the Mayor and can be removed only by the Mayor; and if the things as alleged in this petition are true, Council would only have the power of making a recommendation to the Mayor to take such course as he saw fit. That is the stand I take in this matter.

I don't want at this time (having worked with men all my life and living in a district composed almost entirely of workingmen) to put myself on record for the first time of denying a hearing to men who represent the working people of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Garland arose and said:

I want to say, Mr. President, that where the gentleman lives more good American citizens are working today than those out on strike. Let him remember that! There will be more good Americans back at work the first of next week if this Council does not butt in and disturb the situation. This matter does not belong to Council. Why don't these men take the matter up with the Mayor? Didn't you take a delegation to the Mayor the other day?

The Chair:

Yes.

Mr. Garland:

This matter properly comes under the jurisdiction of the Mayor. This is a law-making body, and we have nothing to do with the matter.

The Chair:

The gentlemen, some of whose names appear on this communication, were so informed of that. They said that they had read in the papers where people had been given a hearing before Council regarding rent profiteering, food profiteering and other subjects, and they had a right also to come here and protest. Personally, I am in favor of granting the hearing as requested. That is no more than fair; we should grant their request.

Mr. Garland arose and said:

Mr. President, I want to say further that in my judgment it is unfair to allow a biased body of men to come here when the matter is in the hands of the United States Senate. I don't want Mr. Foster, Mr. Morrison, or the Socialist lawyer from Milwaukee to come here.

Mr. English arose and said:

Mr. President, it seems to me we are debating the steel strike. I don't think it is within the province of anyone to speak for labor exclusively, and on the other hand, I don't think any member of Council should attempt to speak exclusively for the steel manufacturers.

I believe it is my duty as a councilman to vote to give any body of citizens a hearing when same is requested. This has always been the attitude of Council, and I don't believe we should change our policy at this time.

I have not had any interviews with the leaders of organized labor and did not know anything about this petition until it was presented to Council this afternoon. The matter comes to me new and comes to me in the form of a petition in which certain people ask for a hearing.

By granting their request, we are merely following the plan adopted by the United States Senate committee which was in Pittsburgh within the last few days. If this august body could hear these petitioners, we as the representatives of all the people of Pittsburgh should at least listen to them. I don't believe it is the duty of any member of Council to deprive these men a hearing, particularly when these men who signed this petition are citizens of Pittsburgh, and have as much voting power as I do. They are citizens of this country the same as I.

I don't believe it is right for me because I at this moment happen to be a member of Council and these gentlemen members of labor organizations to deprive them of a hearing.

Some of them are sore at me because I did not vote to override the Mayor's veto on the labor ordinance which was before Council a few months ago. They adopted resolutions condemning me but did not condemn other members of Council who happened to be present at the meeting and voted to sustain the Mayor's veto. However, I don't let that worry me. It is my duty to face every matter fairly and squarely and not be influenced by outside matters.

I don't believe those who favor this hearing should be accused of condoning the actions of the Bolsheviks, the I. W. W.'s and Anarchists in this district. Neither should we condemn these men petitioning for this hearing as men belonging to this class of unpatriotic citizens. The merits or demerits of the steel strike are not before us in the request for a hearing. The question is: Shall we give a group of labor leaders a hearing and listen to what they have to say. However, I don't want them to think that I am going to prejudge their case; neither do I want the steel manufacturers to think that I am going to prejudge the case against them.

It seems to me that we must not break the record of Council by refusing to hear any responsible body of citizens who come here with a petition asking to be heard. We may not be able to do a single thing to relieve their complaint, but at the same time we may be able to do much. I am in favor of giving them a hearing.

Mr. Bauh arose and said:

Mr. President, I am going to vote against granting Mr. Foster a hearing. This is the first time since I have been a member of Council that I have refused to give any person or group of individuals a hearing. My reason is this: I don't propose to have anything to do with men who are headed by William Z. Foster. He has charge of the present campaign to organize the iron and steel workers, and has much to do with the asking of this hearing.

I have in my hand a copy of the pamphlet written by Mr. Foster on "Syndicalism" and would ask that it be put in the record if there are no objections. I will not vote to give a hearing to any man or body of men who will entertain such views as Mr. Foster does. I am too much of an American citizen to entertain such views.

The Chair:

No, no! Don't ask that that pamphlet be made a part of our record. Mr. Foster has nothing to do with this petition, directly or indirectly. It is simply a complaint of representatives of the Iron City Central Trades Council of this vicinity.

Mr. Bauh arose and said:

Mr. President, if the hearing is granted the author of this book will be brought in.

The Chair:

If that is all that is worrying you, Mr. Bauh, we will see that he is not brought in.

Mr. Bauh:

As an American citizen I am going to vote against the motion.

The Chair:

I will show you that I am a better American citizen than you by ruling to keep that pamphlet out of the record.

Mr. Bauh:

Well, I am surely ashamed to have such an un-American document placed on the records of this Council, and I shall withdraw my request to have it placed there.

Mr. Winters arose and said:

Mr. President, I want to say finally that there is no question of Americanism at stake. If there is, I want to say that I am just as good an American as any other member of Council. I don't know anything about Mr. Foster personally or his radical theories. Mr. Foster has been heard by the Senate of the United States, and no one can say that that is not a patriotic body.

Men are known to change their views. The President of the United States is known to have changed his mind on many great questions. The professor at Princeton who said that Chinese coolie labor was far superior to the American labor, I believe, has changed his mind. That is one of the inherent rights of man to change his mind.

I know also that men 10 or 15 years ago who were called extreme radicals are today accepted as the most liberal minded.

I will not allow any question of Americanism, Socialism, Boishivism or any other kind of ism to enter into this argument to detract me from my duty of granting these men a hearing.

This is a request for a hearing on petition alleging abuse of power on the part of the Police Department and of police magistrates, and is signed by men representing all that we know to be representative of organized labor in this community. My motion is that a hearing be granted.

Mr. McArdle arose and said:

Mr. President, I just want to say that Mr. Winters has knocked down the last man of straw that has been set up in connection with this matter. He said quite truly that this is a very ordinary thing now before Council—a request of men who set out their names and their business upon a petition and ask for a hearing. We find ourselves in this position because some members of Council refuse to follow the ordinary course laid down in our rules, that petitions of this kind should be sent to committee where it may be determined what disposition should be made of the question. They insist upon action being taken today.

I am very glad to be able, as one member of Council, to support this motion to grant a hearing upon a petition from reputable citizens of Pittsburgh who are asking for an opportunity to present certain things that they have complaint against affecting the question of the operation of a certain branch of the municipal government.

The Chair:

Are there any further remarks? If not, the question is on the motion of Mr. Winters, that a hearing be granted the petitioners on Thursday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, and that the Mayor, the Director of the Department of Public Safety and the Superintendent of Police be invited to be present. All in favor of the motion will give their consent by saying Aye; those opposed, No.

Mr. President, I am heartily in accord with the work being done by the Woman's Employment Bureau of the Council of National Defense and believe they should receive some help from the City to carry on their activity; but I am opposed to the Council transferring money from the Standardization Fund for this purpose when there is money available in other funds from which this money could be taken. I don't want my vote on this particular bill to be construed that I am opposed to the Women's Employment Bureau; but inasmuch as the money is to be taken from the Standardization Fund (which I have opposed since the first raid on this fund), I deem it my duty to submit my reasons why I vote no on this resolution. WAR CAMP COMMUNITY SERVICE.

Pittsburgh, Pa.

October 14, 1919.

Honoral John S. Herron, President, and Members of City Council,
Pittsburgh, Pa.

Gentlemen—I am instructed by the Pittsburgh Board of War Camp Community Service to advise Council that upon October 31 next, W. C. C. S. will withdraw from the operation of the Pittsburgh Soldiers and Sailors Club. Arrangements have been made to turn over to the Pittsburgh Committee appointed by the Mayor the property and organization of the Club upon that date.

This action is in accordance with the decision of the National authorities of War Camp Community Service to terminate at that time the functions of the service throughout the country except in some minor instances and in certain special localities.

In bringing to a close the operations here, our Board desires to express to Council its appreciation of the spirit of co-operation manifested in various ways by the members in assisting in our work of caring for, and entertaining the soldiers, sailors and marines to whose welfare War Camp Community Service was devoted. The creation and equipment of the Pittsburgh Soldiers and Sailors Club was an especially important instance of this and its establishment through Council's initiative resulted in our having in Pittsburgh one of the best of these Clubs in the entire country. It met a great need and since its opening Christmas Day, 1918, it has dispensed good cheer to over 210,000 boys of whom 21,000 also occupied the dormitory.

The activities of the W. C. C. S. in Pittsburgh have been effective in all departments and our City and its citizens have cordially and energetically supported them. Because of this patriotic assistance and loyal co-operation, the work has come to a most successful conclusion—the necessity of its continuance being happily past—and the Board is glad to record that Pittsburgh in War Camp Community Service as in all other war time activities, stands among the leaders.

Yours very truly,

J. D. HAILMAN,

Chairman, W. C. C. S. Board.

No. 3778.
City of Pittsburgh, Penna.,
October 24, 1919.

To the Pittsburgh Council—

I herewith return, without my approval, Bill No. 3586, a Resolution authorizing the transfer of $6,000.00 from Appropriation No. 52-M, Standardization Fund, to Appropriation No. 42-7, the Women's Employment Committee of the Council of National Defense, for the purpose of paying current expenses for the balance of the year.

The City Solicitor, in passing on this bill, says that the legality of this appropriation to the Women's Employment Committee is doubtful at best; that it appears the method of conducting its affairs and the direction of its work are not in the line of municipal welfare activities; further, that it does not appear the disbursements from funds previously appropriated by the City were made in the manner required by law for the expenditure of municipal funds.

It is my impression that this work was started as a war activity to increase production and to assist women seeking employment to find it. The State of Pennsylvania maintains, in the City of Pittsburgh, a well organized and efficient employment bureau, hence I cannot see the necessity for providing this additional and duplicate function at city expense.

Investigation I have made discloses that records of the Committee show a total of 3 828 placements from March 24 to September 30, approximately one-half of them being temporary. These were made at a total cost of $10,000 or an average cost of $2.61 for each placement, certainly an expensive administration. They had applications for 6,520 positions and filled slightly more than half of them. Many applicants for positions and many placed in positions did not live in the city; many positions filled by the Committee were filled for persons, firms or corporations outside the city. Further, the new payroll proposes for this activity shows an increase of more than fifty per cent above where it was when the first appropriations were made for its work in March and the salaries do not correspond with those in strictly municipal activities.

While I appreciate the fact that this work is sponsored by a large number of our best women who are intensely interested in it, and appreciate also that their efforts, in a general way, are highly commendable, yet, under all the circumstances, I do not feel that I can approve this bill.

Very respectfully yours,
E. V. BABCOCK,
Mayor.

No. 3850.

Pittsburgh, Pa.

November 10, 1919.

To the Council of the City of Pittsburgh:

Gentlemen—I enclose you original copy of letter received today from the Employers' Association of Pittsburgh, which sheds further light on your Resolution transferring money to the Women's Employment Committee, which met with my disapproval.

At the time that the veto message was written I did not know that the Employer's Association was carrying on the same line of work and that there was further duplication from that source.

I submit for the information of Council the communication that you may have it for what it is worth and ask that it be returned to the Mayor's Office when you are through with it.

I fully realize that there is a large number of good women interested in the Women's Employment Committee but believe it is your duty and my duty as public officials to always courageously safeguard the City's finances when necessary.

Very respectfully yours,

E. V. BABCOCK,

Mayor.

THE EMPLOYERS' ASSOCIATION OF PITTSBURGH.

November 10, 1919.

Hon. E. V. Babcock, Mayor.

City of Pittsburgh.

City-County Building.

Pittsburgh, Pa.

Dear Sir—It was with a great deal of satisfaction that we noted your veto of the resolution to provide $6,000 to carry on for the rest of the year the Women's Employment Committee.

The Committee, it seems to us, is wholly unnecessary. It duplicates the very splendid work which we are doing along similar lines without cost to either the applicant for work or to the community. Without troubling you with details, we can say that our Employment Department covers practically the same ground as the Committee, such as seeing that applicants are given positions which they are best fitted to fill, that their surroundings are the best, etc., and we are doing this at a cost of only 41 cents per placement as against the Women's Committee cost of $2.61; and let me say that our cost of 41 cents includes every expense, without any exception, which could possibly be charged against our Employment Department. We enclose copy of a recent bulletin which we sent to our members on the subject and, which we believe, contains facts which will be of interest to you.

At the time it was proposed to open the office of the Women's Employment Committee, and at various times since then, we have drawn the attention of Mrs. James, Miss Smith and Miss Jamison, who operate that office, to the fact that we were equipped to take care of such work and that they were simply duplicating our efforts, but they showed no inclination to consider any offer, which we might make to handle matters for them.

The whole scheme of Government Employment Offices, of which this Women's Committee, I believe, is a part, was a costly failure even in war time, in the opinion of the heads of our Pittsburgh Industries and certainly no good reason exists for its continuance now.

Yours respectfully,

THE EMPLOYERS' ASSOCIATION
OF PITTSBURGH,
WM. FREW LONG,
Vice Pres. and Gen. Mgr.

BULLETIN TO MEMBERS
THE EMPLOYERS' ASSOCIATION
OF PITTSBURGH
OLIVER BUILDING.

November 6, 1919.

To the Members of the Employers' Association of Pittsburgh.

Gentlemen—

REPORT OF OUR FREE EMPLOYMENT DEPARTMENT FOR THE MONTH OF OCTOBER, 1919.

During the past month we interviewed and sent to our members 1,286 applicants for work in the Trades and as Day Laborers. In addition to the foregoing, during this period, we filled requisitions for 118 Office Positions including Executive and Technical places.

In the above totals were apprentices and women and girls in light factory work and in the printing trades as well as 213 ex-service men.

We filled 96 per cent of the requisitions filed with us at a cost of 41c per placement.

This was done without charge to the applicant but solely at the expense of the Employers' Association of Pittsburgh.

We call especial attention to the public announcement in the newspapers that the cost per placement by the U. S. Employment Service, Women's Division, was $2.61 (against our cost of 41c.)

This latter service which has been maintained at the expense of the public treasury, is a burden upon the taxpayer for which there is no demand or good reason given for its existence. Recently the interested office holders jammed through City Council an Ordinance calling for an additional appropriation for this service but Mayor Babcock courageously vetoed it. An attempt will be made soon to pass this Ordinance over the Mayor's veto.

Should not this expense be borne by the employers interested in securing help and not by the applicant or the taxpayer?

Notify us of your labor requirements either for office help (all classes) or for workmen in the trades—skilled, semi-skilled and common labor. Call telephone Grant 4960.

Yours very truly,

THE EMPLOYERS' ASSOCIATION
OF PITTSBURGH,
Wm. FREW LONG,
Vice Pres. & Gen. Mgr.

Which was read, received and filed.

Mr. McArdle arose and said

"Mr. President—I would like to have printed alongside the communication from the general manager of this organization the statement submitted to the Council, or which may be submitted if it is not on file, transmitting endorsements from the very group of men that is presumably spoken for by Mr. Long. These men have endorsed the activities of this committee. If it is not before Council, I would move that it be printed alongside the communication just presented by the Mayor."

And there being no objections, the

EXTRACTS FROM LETTERS OF PROMINENT BUSINESS MEN IN-DORSING WOMEN'S EMPLOY-MENT SERVICE.

Aluminum Company of America—

Harold D. Sill, Manager of General Sales Office:

"At that time this company was 100 per cent a war industry and those of us who were responsible for the personnel of our respective departments found the cheerful and efficient co-operation of the U. S. Employment Service, Women's Division, a very timely aid. In practically every instance, the women thus employed have long since proved their efficiency and have remained with us as permanent employees. I am sure in expressing the hope that it will not be necessary for the Pittsburgh office to disband, I am but voicing the sentiment that a great many other Pittsburgh companies, who have profited by the efforts of your office, undoubtedly feel."

Armstrong Cork Company.

C. D. Armstrong, President.

"Quite apart from the courteous and efficient service that the Women's Division of the United States Employment Service has rendered certain of our departments, we believe that the continuance of the bureau is highly desirable from the standpoint of the general welfare of the public—particularly during the crucial period of readjustment through which we are now passing. We hope that the principle of centralized employment bureaus may be established on a permanent basis."

The Associated Charities of Pittsburgh.

Eleanor Hanson, Associate Secretary.

"I want you to know how greatly social workers appreciate the services you are rendering to the girls they are attempting to befriend, and to express the hope that Pittsburgh will never be compelled to go back to the old decentralized way of handling the employment problem. The phenomenal success of the service is due largely, I believe, to the fact that the entire staff from the superintendent down, are educated women of exceptional ability, who have definitely fitted themselves for specialized employment work. Social workers know that when they refer a woman or girl for a position each one receives sympathetic, intelligent, individual attention."

Bank of Pittsburgh.

Alex. Dunbar:

"It gives me great pleasure . . . to testify as to the highly efficient and capable handling of your plan of centralized employment by you and your associates. I feel that Pittsburgh owes a debt of gratitude to the practical day by day value of this scheme which has been so thoroughly demonstrated by your organization in this 'After-War' period, as well as during war activities . . . It would be a keen loss to our community in the event that your activities were discontinued, especially during this all-important period of re-construction."

Carnegie Institute of Technology.

S. E. Haddon:

"I understand that it is proposed to make permanent the organization of the Women's Division of the Service as a peace time continuation of the War Emergency work. I sincerely hope that this may be done, as the many instances of the need and the value both to employers and employees which have come to my personal attention during the past six months certainly indicate the desirability of its continuance."

City of Pittsburgh.

Tensard DeWolfe, Magistrate, Morals Court:

"We find it absolutely essential to provide work for boys and young men if they are to be kept out of trouble. I estimate that we will find positions annually for several thousand persons. Unless there is a centralized agency to perform this service for us, it will be necessary for the various organizations represented in the Morals Court to do the work themselves. They can never perform it with the same efficiency as a properly organized agency could."

Civic Club of Allegheny County.

H. M. Dermitt, Secretary:

"The fact that under one roof and under one management, all of the various agencies dealing with the employment of women in every line of work are grouped, has proven, in my opinion, one of the most efficient and effective means of public service that has been performed in this city for some time . . . May I ask you, Mrs. Iams, that you do everything in your power to retain the efficient service which has been organized by you and your co-workers . . . ?"

R. G. Dun Company.

J. L. Arnold, Chief Clerk:

"Our experience with your organization . . . has been so prolific of very gratifying surprises that we cannot refrain from an expression of the obligations that we feel that we owe you. The good results we have so far had from applications for help, placed in your hands, has led us to abandon all of the old sources of supply. We thank you for the great good that you have so far accomplished in our individual behalf and trust that a commensurate portion of satisfaction for a good work performed will fall to your lot."

The Equitable Life Assurance Society

Edward A. Woods, Manager:

" . . . We might add further that during the past year your department has been of very material service to our agency and of very material assistance in securing trained and competent women on whose services we have depended so largely recently and whose services will no doubt continue to be in future demand . . . It is a pleasure to add this brief word of commendation of the invariably courteous and exceedingly valuable assistance rendered by your department." Farmers Deposit National Bank.

D. W. Parry, Vice President:

"We are pleased to state that service received through your office has been entirely satisfactory, and we trust your work may be continued, as we believe it meets a real need."

Gulf Refining Company.

G. B. Ellis:

"I have had several occasions to call up your division and found it to be beneficial not only to myself but to the business interests of Pittsburgh and would be more than pleased to see this Centralized Employment Bureau continued and am sure that those seeking employment through this Bureau have been much benefited."

Harblison-Walker Refractories Co.

Kenneth Seaver, Assistant General Sales Manager:

"Prior to our use of your services there was, of course, a normal amount of lost motion in getting in touch through the usual sources with those who were seeking positions of this kind. There was also the expense of more or less advertising. A very large proportion of such employees as we have secured from you have been satisfactory, and for our own convenience we hope that this department may be continued."

Consumers League of Western Pennsylvania.

Hale Hill:

"I am treasurer of the Consumers' League of Western Pennsylvania, and as a consequence have come in contact more or less with conditions surrounding the employment of men and women. By virtue of this experience I wish to endorse the theoretical and practical value of a centralized employment system."

I hope that either the State or Federal Government will be able to work out such plans as may result in the perpetuation of this bureau."

Joseph Horne Company.

H. N. Phifer, Superintendent:

"It is our belief that the placement department of the various non-commercial employment services for women should be co-ordinated and that the splendid service rendered this district during the war by the Women's U. S. Employment Office be thereby maintained permanently."

The National Association of Corporation Schools—Pittsburgh Chapter.

I. B. Shoup, Chairman Trades Apprentice Section:

"I am thoroughly convinced that the Women's Division of the U. S. Employment Service, which was instituted and carried on in Pittsburgh as a war measure, has been an excellent thing—a real service—both to individuals needing employment and to concerns needing employees. It has been a real clearing house in regard to women's employment. I believe it would be desirable to urge the importance of this upon the proper authorities with a view to having this organization made permanent."

Western Pennsylvania League of Women Workers.

Marguerite Spillman, Executive Secretary:

"I wish to express to you my appreciation of the courtesy and efficiency which my organization has received from the employment service. . . . I sincerely trust that the post-war period will not necessitate the discontinuing of so fine a public institution."

William McConway.

"I wish to compliment you and your colleagues of the Women's Division, Department of Labor on the highly efficient service which you are able to, and do, render in the special line of duty assigned to you. I am moved to this by the prompt service which I recently secured from your department in bringing me into contact with candidates for high-grade secretarial service. I wish you all success in your future work."

Oil Well Supply Company.

S. Clarke Reed, Assistant General Manager:

"I understand that there is a movement on foot . . . to perpetuate the splendid and effective work which has been done by the co-ordinating employment services for the past year or so under your direction. This is a step in the right direction for if any proof were needed to establish the fact that a centralized employment service was absolutely the most effective and desirable method of handling this problem, all you would have to do would be to investigate the work of your department."

Rodney Pierce Optical Company.

C. J. Torongo, Manager:

" . . . We are very well pleased with the type of help which has been sent us and the care which was exercised by your department in their efforts to place each applicant in the position best suited for them. The percentage of help which has stayed with us has been very high and those who have stayed have shown themselves exceedingly capable indeed. The institution of the centralized Women's Employment Bureau, wherein this service can be obtained without charge, has certainly been an innovation to Pittsburgh and one which we would not like to see discontinued."

South Side Hospital.

Jeanette L. Jones, Superintendent.

"I am sure it will be of interest to you to know how much we have been assisted by the Federal Employment agency during the great shortage of help. . . . In my opinion this has placed the Employment Bureau on a higher plan than it has ever been and we would urge the continuation of it."

Spang Chalfant & Company, Incorporated.

Grace F. Preston, Secretary of Welfare Work:

"We feel that such a high type of centralized non-commercial agency as yours is a progressive measure from the employer's point of view. . . . We believe, too, that the working out of your plan will result in the saving of time, a better understanding between employer and employee and will also be a factor in the standardization of wages."

United States Steel and Carnegie Pension Fund.

J. B. Erskine, Manager:

"I am informed that there is a possibility of the discontinuance of the Women's Division of the U. S. Employment Service. This is rather disquieting, as it would mean a distinct loss to this community. . . . I sincerely trust that your earnest efforts in the past will be rewarded by a decision to continue the Women's Division permanently."

United Mine Workers of America.

Phillip Murray, President:

"Being interested in the work of the Women's Division of the U. S. Employment Service, because of the splendid service Pittsburgh Division has rendered our country and its people during the war, I am at this time writing you a letter of commendation for the splendid service you and your associates have rendered. . . ."

Universal Portland Cement Company.

L. H. Whittaker, Office Manager:

"We are hearty believers in centralized employment and can testify to the efficiency of your office and trust that Pittsburgh may be permitted to retain the service indefinitely. . . . This service has been a great help to industry during war-time condition and we hope that the benefits derived will not be lost in times of peace. . . ."

University of Pittsburgh.

Francis Tyson, Professor of Social Economics:

"In giving my opinion of a Woman's Division of Employment Service for Pittsburgh may I (1) express my belief that a very definite need exists for this service; and (2) give my approval of the methods and activities of the Women's Division which was organized here about last September. . . . It is my opinion, therefore, that the Woman's Division of the employment service has found a place for itself in Pittsburgh and that the commonwealth of Pennsylvania would make no mistake in securing for this service adequate backing and support looking to the continuance and expansion of its work."

Urban League of Pittsburgh.

John T. Clark, Executive Secretary:

" . . . We believe thoroughly in a central control of employment work for by this method one can eliminate the possible waste in time and wages in the kind of co-operation established between agencies before the war. From all sources I have heard nothing but complimentary remarks of which the Women's Division was highly appraised."

Vanadium Alloys Steel Company.

H. N. Surrey, General Sales Manager:

" . . . We have used your service several times to good advantage, finding it very satisfactory indeed. We hope that this central employment bureau will continue, becoming a permanent fixture."

Central Y. W. C. A.

Miss Edith Grier Long, General Secretary:

" . . . Last summer when the Government arranged to combine the various placement departments of the seven non-commercial employments here we were able to offer to this district an efficient means of securing women for every kind of position. War time conditions made this centralization possible and showed its value. It is to be hoped that the benefits derived by the war will not be lost in times of peace and we would therefore have you know that Pittsburghers appreciate the service and . . . are seeking to continue the plan which has justified itself by the results accomplished in the months since the centralized employment office for women was established. . . ."

Bill No. 3778. Communication from the Mayor, returning, without his approval. Bill No. 3586, resolution transferring $6,000.00 from Appropriation No. 52-M, Standardization Fund, to No. 42-7, Women's Employment Committee of the Council of National Defense.

In Council, October 27, 1919. Read and laid over for one week, and a copy to be furnished each member.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also

Bill No. 3586. Resolution authorizing and directing the City Controller to transfer from Appropriation No. 52-M, Standardization Fund, to Appropriation No. 42-7, the Women's Employment Committee of the Council of National Defense, the sum of $6,000.00 for the purpose of paying current expenses for the balance of the year, payments against said sum not to exceed $2,000.00 per month.

In Council, October 27, 1919. Returned by the Mayor without his approval, read and laid over for one week.

Which was read.

And on the question, "Shall the resolution become a law notwithstanding the objections of the Mayor?"

Mr. English arose and said:

Mr. President, I regret that I cannot agree with His Honor, the Mayor, in the matter of vetoing the appropriation for the Women's Employment Bureau. I didn't vote for this bill when it was passed originally, although I was heartily in favor of it, but was opposed to the fund from which it was taken, namely, the Standardization Fund for Salaries. I still think it was a mistake to transfer the money from the fund which was set up to standardize the salary of all city employees. However, since practically all of that fund has been used up in other items and my attitude at this time will not bring back the money to the Standardization Fund, I feel that it is my duty to support this bill for the Women's Employment Bureau notwithstanding the veto of the Mayor.

This organization has done a great work and even now, when we may technically say that the war is not yet over and our Government has not yet declared that we are at peace with Germany, this activity can still be considered a war measure. However, there is a higher and more important thought which causes me to favor this ordinance today, and that is, that a great number of the best people of our city are interested in continuing this activity; at least for the balance of this year.

Different organizations of various kinds and creeds have been consolidated into this Woman's Employment Bureau, and they have done a wonderful work in taking care of the unemployed women of this vicinity. It is a very worthy cause, particularly at this time in view of the fact that the Council unanimously agreed to continue this activity for the balance of the year.

Whether the Mayor was agreeable to that continuance should not affect our attitude today. It is a matter of fact, however, that we gave a hearing to these people and it was unanimously agreed at that time on the part of Council, at least, to go ahead with this work and provide $6,000.00 which would finance the project until January 1, 1920. It seems to me that regardless of the position the Mayor has taken the Council is in duty bound to respect its own agreement made in public and go through with this proposition.

We had the opinion of former City Solicitor Stone that it was alright before we gave them any money in the early part of the year, and even today the present City Solicitor, Mr. O'Brien does not condemn it as being illegal. On the contrary Mr. O'Brien distinctly says that it is a matter up to the judgment of the Council and that there is no legal obstacle against this appropriation being made.

I therefore deem it my duty to vote to make this a law notwithstanding the veto of the Mayor.

Mr. Rauh arose and said:

Mr. President, I have asked the City Solicitor to come here and give us his opinion regarding this appropriation, and if there are no objections I would ask that action on the Mayor's veto be held in abeyance until Mr. O'Brien appears and gives us his opinion.

Mr. Robertson arose and said:

Mr. President, I talked with the City Controller last Saturday morning and he advised me that he would not pay this money and that he had the backing of the Law Department. Therefore, it would seem useless to pass this resolution in view of the attitude taken by the City Controller. He further said the war was at an end and this being a war measure he would not pay it.

The Chair:

The City Controller refers to appropriations for 1920, and includes the associations managing bathhouses, war farm gardens association and organizations managing social settlements.

Mr. Rauh arose and said:

Mr. President, I have a clipping here taken from the Sunday newspaper regarding the stand taken by the City Controller in this matter.

The Chair:

Mr. Rauh, every member of Council is familiar with the statement given out by the Controller.

Mr. Rauh:

Mr. President, for the benefit of those members who may not have read it I will read it. I don't want it to become part of the minutes of today's meeting. (He then read the Controller's statement).

Mr. English arose and said:

Mr. President, I would like to clear one point objected to by the Controller. The position stated by Mr. Rauh applies to new appropriations and matters which may come up in the budget. The Controller has agreed to pass this appropriation, so I am advised by Miss Smith who is at the head of this Women's Employment Bureau. I am given permission to quote her for this statement. We owe them something for the month of October and the month of November; as it is no fault of the people working in the office that this matter has been held up; and it seems to me that some portion of the $6,000 asked for should be granted them. If the full amount cannot be granted, I hope Council will pass legislation to pay their expenses up to and including November 11.

The Chair:

The City Solicitor, Mr. O'Brien, is here and will be glad to give you any information you desire as to the legality of the resolution.

Mr. Rauh arose and said:

Mr. O'Brien furnished us his written opinion, but it is not as concise as he would make it if given verbally to Council. For that reason I have asked him to come here.

The Chair said:

We understand the position taken by the City Controller and if he sticks to that position it will be up to the Law Department to take the matter into court for a strict interpretation of the law. According to the statement given out by the City Controller it not only affects the appropriation now under discussion, but those for the Soho Bath, the North Side Playgrounds and similar appropriations.

Mr. Rauh said:

Mr. O'Brien, may I ask you to give us your opinion on the bill now before us?

Mr. Charles A. O'Brien, City Solicitor, arose and said:

Mr. President, this bill as it stands was not vetoed upon the question of its legality, but upon the merits or demerits of the appropriation which the Mayor points out in the various reason given in his veto message. It appears in his judgment that there was too much overhead expense and other matters of that kind. It appears Mr. Stone under his solicitorship advised that the original appropriation was valid within the meaning of the Welfare Clause of the Charter Act; and I presume it was practically upon the basis of a war measure that that opinion was given. I was not consulted at the time; and this, like other measures, was passed over as an exigency, being justifiable under the conditions existing at the time. This appropriation was started in that way, and the reasons given by the Mayor are on the merits of the bill.

The Chair:

It is really a matter of judgment then?

Mr. O'Brien:

Yes, I would say this, that the City in ordinary times cannot conduct an employment agency. This matter is covered by an Act of Assembly in which the City is given power to license and regulate employment agencies. Therefore, it is illegal for the city to set up an appropriation from year to year for this purpose.

The Chair:

Mr. O'Brien, do you remember the opinion furnished by the Law Department under Mayor Armstrong's administration that it was legal for the City to attach the Employment Bureau to the Bureau of Investigation, and that during the first year of its operation it placed 2,000 people?

Mr. O'Brien:

It was a war measure.

The Chair:

We were not in the war then. If it was legal then, it is legal now.

Mr. McArdle arose and said:

Mr. President, this thing has been brought back to its real status, and Council must dispose of it, whether they think it is the meritorious thing to do or not. They have not had any new light since it was laid over a week ago. It seems that the statement read into the meeting today from the Employers' Association is purely extraneous matter. It is another one of those absurdities and is only for the purpose of beclouding the issue.

We know as practical men that the Employers' Association, while they may run an employment agency, it is hardly to be presumed to be running it as an activity on behalf of the public interest. Certain of our citizens may profit by this activity, but it is not run for the general good of all our citizens. It is not a substitute for the service rendered by the Women's Employment Service. It seems to me that whatever reasons may impel us to vote the way we finally do that the reasons advanced by the Employers' Association ought not to have any weight. It ought not to be opposed because the Employers' Association is running an employment activity.

The Women's Employment Service Bureau is one to which any one coming under the scope of the organization can appeal for any kind of employment, and it is ridiculous to believe that the Employers' Association is going to take upon itself the job of finding for you or for me a wash woman, or find employment for a wash woman seeking employment, except, possibly, in a laundry, the owners of which may be members of the Association.

We know full well, because of the discussions we have had from time to time, what the activities are of the Women's Employment Bureau and the service it is trying to render, and know that there are no substitutes in Pittsburgh. There may be other agencies duplicating some part of the work this organization is performing, but it is not duplicating the work of any other organization, and there is nothing else to take its place; and if we are going to allow ourselves to be influenced by statements, whether they originated in the Mayor's office or the Controller's office, it seems to me we don't want to meet the issue fairly in this matter.

We have passed claims for thousands of dollars which have no semblance of the legal status that this claim has, and we know that the Mayor will either authorize or condone the expenditure of thousands of dollars that hasn't anything like the reasonableness of this claim or get anything like the service that will come as the result of the expenditure of these few thousand dollars. Then, again, it seems to me that as a matter of common decency we could do little less than pass this in order to clear up the obligation that has been assumed by continuing this activity up until the present time; so whatever action we may take, I think the only thing involved is the difference between $6,000 and the obligations already assumed by this organization, which amounts to nearly half that sum; and getting down to the opinion of the Mayor or the Controller as well as getting down to the basis of its legality, it will be no trouble to help both of them to find opportunities for an immeasurable greater service to the City than this furnishes.

And the question recurring, "Shall the resolution become a law notwithstanding the objections of the Mayor?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes—Messrs.

Dailey	McArdle
English	Winters
Herron (President)

Noes—Messrs.

Garland	Rauh
Henderson	Robertson

Ayes—5.

Noes—4.

And there not being two-thirds of the votes of Council in the affirmative, the resolution failed to become a law notwithstanding the objections of the Mayor.

To amend the bill in the preamble and in the title by striking out the words "Second ward" and by inserting in lieu thereof the words "Fifth ward."

Which motion prevailed.

And the bill was read a second time and amended was agreed to.

And the bill was laid over for reprinting.

Mr. Garland also presented.

No. 3853. Report of the Committee on Finance for October 28, 1919, transmitting several ordinances and resolutions to council.

Which was read, received and filed.

Also, with an affirmative recommendation,

Bill No. 3719. An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance appropriating and setting aside from the proceeds of Diamond Street Improvement Bonds, Series 2, 1919, Bond Fund Appropriation 195, the sum of $1,800.00 for the payment of Engineering Expenses, including salaries, supplies, materials, equipment and miscellaneous services, in the Bureau of Engineering, Department of Public Works."

Which was read.

Mr. Garland moved

A suspension of the rule to allow the second and third readings and final passage of the bill.

Which motion prevailed.

And the bill was read a second time.

Mr. English arose and said:

Mr. President, I am not quite satisfied with the ordinances setting aside certain sums of money from the bond funds for engineering expenses, including salaries, supplies, materials, equipment and miscellaneous service. We should go slow in the matter of appropriating this money until it is ascertained that the amounts will be actually required on the work for which it is proposed to spend the money.

In the matter of improving the roadways in parks, it is proposed to take from the bond funds $20,000.00 to pay for engineering expenses, etc. As you all know these roads will be resurfaced by the asphalt gangs, and from my experience in this matter it is not necessary to spend any money for engineering services. Then, again, take the street repaving schedule, for which it is proposed to set aside $20,000.00 for engineering expenses. As in the case of the park roadways, no engineering is necessary to repave streets. Therefore, I am opposed to spending this money until I am furnished information as to how it will require $20,000.00 worth of engineering work.

It seems to me we should recommit these ordinances to the committee and get further information. We should ask the department to come in with an itemized list showing how they propose to apportion this money.

By this action, I don't want to be understood as being opposed to spending any bond money for engineering work, but I am opposed to spending money for engineering services if we have an organization in the Department of Public Works to do this work. I urge Council to be careful regarding any and all bond money required for engineering expenses, because the taxpayers of Pittsburgh will then be compelled to pay interest and sinking fund charges for 30 years, which means two dollars for every one.

I think it is perfectly proper to apportion some bond money on work for which expert engineering advice is needed; but we should be very careful of such items.

But if we give our approval to these ordinances without complete information, we are going against every principle of spending bond money. We have been warned by many people that thirty year bonds should not be issued for an improvement that is going to last for only probably five or six years. Yet we propose that very thing right now, by allowing $97,000.00 of bond funds to be appropriated by these ordinances without sufficient information on the subject. The right thing is to allow the department to put men on the payroll and have the Director make affidavit thereto, setting forth the services rendered and the amount paid each. If the members of Council don't want to send these ordinances back to committee, I want to be recorded as being opposed to them.

The Chair:

The motion is, that these ordinances be recommitted to the committee.

Mr. Garland arose and said:

The gentleman in his remarks did not make a motion. There is nothing before us.

Mr. English arose and said:

I thought I made that clear, Mr. President. I offer the motion that these ordinances be recommitted to the committee.

Mr. McArdle arose and said:

Mr. President, this money must be taken out of this bond money and made available before they can purchase supplies or do anything that go into these improvements provided for in the bond issued. Now, as to the number of employees that are to be employed to do the work, we fix the number that are to be employed, and we appropriate the necessary money with which to pay the employees engaged in this work. We fix the number of engineering corps to be employed, but we don't know anything more than John Smith as to what work these particular corps do. It is a general proposition that we may get cheated on some of it, but we must safeguard the city against being cheated. The engineering work must be done, whether it is much or little; and if it is done it must be paid for out of the bond money or the current tax levy.

There is always a disposition and, perhaps, a danger that ought to be watched to make undue charges against bond issues, because of the fact that it is there and you are not constantly being on the budget it cannot be taken from the tax levy. Therefore, a constant watch must be kept on it if you want to protect the city.

And the question recurring on the motion of Mr. English, that the ordinances be recommitted to the committee.

The motion did not prevail.

And the bill, as read a second time, was agreed to.

The Chair presented

No. 3917.

City of Pittsburgh, Pa.,
November 17, 1919.

To the Council of the City of Pittsburgh.

Gentlemen—Early this year you authorized a Committee known as the Standardization Committee to investigate and report on the standardization of salaries and wages of employees of the City of Pittsburgh.

Please be advised that it is necessary for us to have the report of this Committee before we can submit the budget that we are now working on. If we get the report of this Committee at once we can submit the budget immediately. Failure to get the report is delaying submission of the budget to Council and we would be pleased if you could give us the report of the Committee at once.

Very respectfully yours,

E. V. BABCOCK,

Mayor.

Mr. McArdle arose and said:

Mr. President, are we going to accept the reasons given by the Mayor as proper ones for his failure to submit the budget in time to fix the tax levy by December 1, as required by law? Are we going to accept his statements as the real reasons why the budget has not been submitted to us? I for one am not.

When the Committee on Standardization was appointed it was not understood that the budget carrying the salary items was to be in accordance with the report of that committee, or that the Mayor or his department heads were to make a budget based upon that report. The committee is to report to Council, and not the Mayor. Therefore, I emphasize again that the Mayor should not give this as a reason for his failure to submit the budget.

The law, and not the Council or the Mayor, fixes the times at which the budget must be submitted and the tax levy fixed. He does not need the information that would be given in the report of the Committee on Standardization to submit the budget estimates. These estimates should have been submitted to us long ago.

We don't know when the report of the Committee on Standardization will be submitted to Council; and if we leave the statement of the Mayor go on the record of today's meeting without challenge we accept the responsibility for the budget not being here. I for one don't want it understood that the responsibility belongs to Council.

The Chair:

Gentlemen, it seems to me that we can accept the communication. As every one knows we have absolutely nothing to do with the preparation and submission of the budget to Council. We are not liable for this delay. We should, however, call the Mayor's attention to the fact that the City Treasurer stated that the delay last year cost the city $50,000.00 and hoped it would not occur again this year. For this reason he should be requested to make haste in presenting the budget. However, his communication comes to us in the regular way and we can dispose of it by receiving and filing it.

Mr. Winters arose and said:

Mr. President, there are various reasons why the report of the Committee on Standardization has not made its report; however, those reasons might be explained later.

The Committee on Standardization was appointed largely upon the request of the Mayor, and at the time the committee was appointed it was set forth in the law creating it that the Mayor or the President of Council could set with the committee or that either of them could call a meeting of the committee at any time. So far as I know, neither has participated in the deliberations of the committee or has either of them requested the committee to submit its report or a portion of it.

The deliberations of the Standardization Committee should not interfere with the Mayor submitting his departmental estimates. However, should it be necessary that the Mayor have the committee's report before he submit his departmental estimates for salaries, he could sub-divide the estimates and submit those for supplies, equipment and material at once, and submit those for salaries when they are ready. If this course were followed there would be no delay at all.

The Chair:

In answer to Mr. Winters, I want it understood that so far as the President of Council was concerned, he did not want to interfere with the committee's work; hence no suggestions or criticisms were submitted by him to the committee.

Mr. Winters arose and said:

Mr. President, I didn't intend to cast any reflection on either you or the Mayor. If either one were dissatisfied with the progress of deliberations of the Standardization Committee it was prescribed that either could call a meeting of that committee and state his purpose and the committee would have carefully considered their suggestions and acted on them promptly.

The Chair:

So far as I am concerned, I have no complaint to make. The only complaint I have is that the Mayor as the Executive of the City is to prepare and submit to Council a budget and then it is up to Council to pass its judgment on the same.

Mr. Garland arose and said:

Mr. President, before we dispose of it, would it be the intention of the Council that the Mayor submit a partial budget, that is, the items for equipment, machinery and supplies, and leave out all wage recommendations? If that could be done it would facilitate the consideration of the budget.

The Chair:

Personally, I don't think we could very well do that.

Mr. Garland:

Mr. President, I made that suggestion in order to facilitate matters.

The Chair:

We as members of Council have a duty to perform. In fixing the salary of all city employees, and the matter of standardization has been referred to this committee for its study and report. The Council has one member on this committee and the remainder of the committee is composed of City employees. Therefore the Mayor could without much trouble get action by this committee, as three-fourths of the members are working under him.

It seems to me it would be a good suggestion to again notify the Mayor that his dilatory action may cause the City to lose $50,000.00 as stated by the Treasurer in his communication to Council, a copy of which was sent to the Mayor.

Mr. Garland arose and said:

It is well known by the Mayor that the law prescribes that the tax levy should be fixed by December 1, and I made my suggestion for the purpose of facilitating the presentation of the budget to Council, a portion of it if not the complete budget. We should find out whether the Council wants the budget without the salary recommendations. Mr. Winters made the suggestion that it could be brought in that way. I don't want to be understood as recommending that it be done that way. It may be a quick way of doing it.

The Chair:

The Mayor ought to submit his budget. The recommendations of the Standardization Committee could follow later, and Council then fix the salaries accordingly.

Mr. Rauh arose and said:

Mr. President, I don't think it would be out of order to notify the Mayor that we are ready to receive the budget and that Council do as it has heretofore, leave the consideration of the salaries until the last. I therefore move that the Mayor be notified that Council is ready to receive the budget; that the question of salaries will not be entertained until we finish the other parts of the budget first. I think it is the only solution to the problem now facing Council. It should be understood among ourselves that the question of salaries will not be considered until the report of the Committee on Standardization is received. While we are awaiting this report we could probably finish the other items, such as supplies, equipment and material.

Mr. English arose and said:

Mr. President, I don't think it is within our province to tell the Mayor that we are ready to receive the budget now. As a matter of fact we have been ready since September. If we pass this resolution we would be admitting and acknowledging that we have not been ready. I am not willing to make any such statement.

I think we ought to go on record that the matter of the Standardization Committee's report, in our opinion, has no connection whatever with the budget at this time. The Mayor may send in a budget estimate with or without salary provisions. It is his problem at this time, not ours, and we should not accept the responsibility for the unusual delay this year. If the Mayor desires to use the report on standardization as an excuse for further delay he has the right and privilege to do so. We should not accept such an excuse or be a party to it.

The time for submitting the budget to the Council is passed, and the failure for its submission to Council is upon the Mayor.

For us to get the report of the Committee on Standardization and send it to the Mayor, as ours, would be a very serious error on our part. Council does not make or submit the budget. We act on it after the Mayor sends it to Council.

I don't think we ought to take the position of telling the Mayor what his job is. We may criticize his acts, but it is not up to us to assume his responsibility in this matter.

The Chair:

The question is on the motion of Mr. Rauh.

Mr. Rauh arose and said:

Mr. President, I don't wish it understood that we are telling the Mayor what his duty is. I merely wish to have the Mayor notified that we are ready to receive the budget.

Mr. McArdle arose and said:

Mr. President, I will not support Mr. Rauh's motion. It is not obligatory upon Council to instruct the Mayor as to his official duties or inform him in advance what action Council intends to take in regard to the budget. Failure to receive the Standardization Committee's report is an insufficient reason for the Mayor's failure to submit his budget to Council.

Mr. Rauh arose and said.

Mr. President, I am perfectly willing to withdraw my motion.

Mr. McArdle arose and said:

Mr. President, I am opposed to the motion in that it delays consideration of salaries until the Mayor's estimates are in.

Mr. Rauh arose and said.

Mr. President, if there are no objections, I withdraw my motion and substitute this: That the Mayor be notified that Council is ready to receive the portion of the budget estimates now printed, without the salaries.

Upon which motion Mr. English demanded a call of the ayes and noes, and the demand having been sustained, the ayes and noes were taken and were:

Ayes—Messrs.

Dalley	McArdle
Garland	Rauh
Henderson	Winters
Herron (President)

Noes—Mr.

English

When the name of Mr. English was called, he arose and said:

Mr. President, I vote No, because I don't think we have any business to tell the Mayor what he should know.

Ayes—7.

Noes—1.

And the motion prevailed.

Also

No. 3918.

City of Pittsburgh, Penna.

November 17, 1919.

To the Council of the City of Pittsburgh:

Gentlemen—I regret to advise you officially of the death on November 2, 1919, of Mr. John G. Hastings, member of the Board of Assessors. I take this occasion to say that Mr. Hastings was one of the most popular and efficient men in the city service. His demise is a great loss to the City.

I hereby submit for your consideration the name of Mr. George H. Douglass, 421 Tripoli street, North Side, to fill the vacancy as member of the Board of Assessors caused by the death of Mr. Hastings. Mr. Douglass is a comparatively young man, now holding an important position in the Department of Public Health. He is a clean, high type of man, an inveterate worker, has been loyal to the City's interests while in its service, and, in my judgment, in every way merits this promotion. I am of the opinion that he will fill this position with credit to himself and the City.

Very respectfully yours,

E. V. BABCOCK,

Mayor.

Which was read.

Mr. Henderson moved

That the communication be received and filed and the appointment of the Mayor confirmed.

Upon which motion, the ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Dalley	Herron (President)
English	McArdle
Garland	Rauh
Henderson	Winters

Ayes—8.

Noes—None.

And a majority of the votes of council being in the affirmative, the appointment of the Mayor, was confirmed.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS.

Mr. Garland presented

No. 3919. Resolved, That the City Solicitor be requested to furnish Council with an opinion as to whether the affiliation of the employees of the Fire Department of the City of Pittsburgh with the American Federation of Labor is legal.

Which was read.

Mr. Garland moved

The adoption of the resolution.

Mr. English arose and said:

Mr. President, it seems to me that before we act on this matter we should have something definite that all the firemen in the employ of the City of Pittsburgh are affiliated with the American Federation of Labor.

Mr. Garland arose and said:

Do you dispute it?

Mr. English:

Yes.

Mr. Winters arose and said:

Mr. President, I do, because I have no information officially that they are.

Mr. English:

If the firemen are not all members of the American Federation of Labor it should be so stated in the resolution.

The Chair:

I concur in what Mr. English says; that if all the members of the Bureau of Fire are not affiliated with the American Federation of Labor it should not be so stated in the resolution.

Mr. Garland:

It does not say so in the resolution.

Mr. English:

Well, I understood from the reading of the resolution that you say all the firemen are members of this organization.

Mr. Garland:

Do you dispute they are?

Mr. English:

I am not disputing anything. Are all of them, I ask? I want to know if all of them are affiliated with a labor organization.

Mr. Garland:

I am willing to change my motion to read, whether it is legal for any of them to belong to the American Federation of Labor. I think it is only begging the question.

Mr. English:

Well, I would just like to ask then if any other employees of the City of Pittsburgh are affiliated with the American Federation of Labor?

Mr. Garland:

My motion has nothing to do with any other employees, and the gentleman's interrogation is entirely out of order. I will not answer any questions not germane to the subject under discussion.

Mr. Winters:

I just wanted to ask the gentleman if he can inform us whether all of the firemen are members of the American Federation of Labor.

Mr. Garland:

I am merely asking for information. I am asking for information from the Law Department on a specific point, and to bring in other stuff not germane to it is out of order.

The Chair:

The gentleman has asked a question and if you have no objection you might answer it.

Mr. McArdle:

I want to ask what Council wants this information for? Why does Council want this opinion from the Law Department?

The Chair:

I don't know. You might direct your question to Mr. Garland, the author of the resolution.

Mr. Garland:

I will ask the gentleman if he objects to a legal opinion being handed down to this Council on any question? The question is, are we to know the law or go unguided,

Mr. McArdle:

That is just why I asked him the question, to find out whether there was anything before this body which required the asking of this opinion. I don't see anything before the body that involves the necessity of this body asking the information from the Law Department. There may be splendid reasons, and that is what prompted me to ask the question as to the reasons, and to hear those reasons if they exist. I have no hesitancy to say that I will vote against the resolution.

Mr. Garland:

I can see the design in this opposition. The discussion of this comes later and you will find me back of this after we get the information asked for in the resolution. Does any gentleman of this Council desire to disobey his oath of office by refusing me light on any question? This is a four-line resolution. I am not going to get into an argument over it. I say every member should vote for a resolution in which a member asks for information on a specific question. When the opinion comes in next week or the week after, you will find me giving my reasons. The gentleman no doubt knows my reason. I am not going to get into any argument, and the gentleman's duty is to vote for it.

Mr. McArdle:

If the gentleman means me, I will decide myself what my duties are and I will decide, too, in what manner I can best fulfill the obligations and duties of my office, and have them compared with his before the public as to who has fulfilled them to the best interests of the public. I will not apologize for any course I take.

The gentleman has said we know the reasons. Perhaps we do; but if we do, we did not get them in this body where this action is to be taken, and if there are reasons why it should be taken here they ought to be advanced here, and if we disagree with these reasons we will have an opportunity of placing them here as a matter of public record.

Mr. Garland:

I again submit that when we get the opinion the matter is up for argument.

Mr. Winters:

I don't want Mr. Garland to think that I desire to have a long-drawn out discussion of this matter, as he states; nor do I want him to think that I am opposed to the resolution because I asked him the question. I was prompted to ask the question because of a story appearing in the newspaper with Mr. Garland's name attached to it; and I think, like Mr. McArdle, if the reasons for the adoption of the resolution could be given out in a newspaper interview, surely the same reasons and the same story could be given to the members of Council so that they would have some reason for Council requesting this legal opinion. That was my reason for asking the question. I am not going to oppose Mr. Garland or any other member on any subject that pertains to city business.

Mr. English:

I would like to offer this suggestion. That Council pass a resolution to the effect that the City Solicitor be requested to give any member of Council any information on any subject relating to city business.

Mr. Garland:

My motion is before the body.

The Chair:

Do you offer your motion as a substitute, Mr. English?

And the question recurring on the adoption of the resolution offered by Mr. Garland.

Mr. English arose and said:

Mr. President, I want to say right now that I am opposed to this pettifoggery, piffle and bunk.

Mr. Garland arose and said:

Mr. President, I am vigorously opposed to terming this resolution pettifoggery, piffle or bunk, and I hope the Chairman will not allow this kind of language:

The Chair:

The gentleman must confine himself to the motion and refrain from casting aspersions on any person or his motives.

Mr. English:

Mr. President, I am going to prove my assertion. Did these men belong to the American Federation of Labor before the election?

The Chair:

The question before you is on a resolution asking for information as to whether it is legal for firemen to belong to a labor organization.

Mr. English:

I say it is piffle and bunk to ask for information that he already knows.

Mr. Garland:

I want this information in the hands of Council and I want it written on the records of Council.

Mr. English:

There is nothing before us that requires this opinion. It is pettifoggery and bunk, worse than piffle, and a newspaper attempt to capitalize Governor Coolidge and the recent Boston strike. That is all it is, pure and simple. It is an attempt to use Council as a vehicle for getting someone newspaper notoriety. Nobody is clamoring for this kind of information. The Law Department never denied information to any member of Council, and in this case it would not deny the information to the gentleman who so anxiously desires it.

I can well remember when a member of Council went outside to get an attorney's opinion in addition to the City Solicitor's opinion on a subject that was before Council. This was done in face of the fact that our own City Solicitor had already rendered an opinion on the matter. This was on the resolution appropriating $10,000.00 to the Pittsburgh and Lake Erie Ship Canal Fund a few years ago. On another question certain members of Council had information in advance from the City Solicitor before the Mayor's veto was submitted to Council. I might also call attention to the manner in which the budget was handled and man-handled when certain members had information on it before coming into Council.

I believe the firemen ought to get out of this labor organization, and I believe word to that effect was issued from headquarters in Washington advising them to get out, as the American Federation of Labor did not want to lose the many good things obtained for labor by reason of a few radicals getting the whole organization into trouble.

The passage of this resolution by Council is purely an attempt to secure for some member a lot of publicity, and I am not going to be used as a vehicle for this purpose. I would rather see a blanket resolution passed in which any member of Council could go to the City Solicitor and secure his opinion on any subject relating to city business.

I concur in the opinion of the previous speaker. What is the object of asking for this kind of information at this particular time? What is the object? Has the author a reason to think that the firemen by belonging to this organization are not performing their duty and living up to their oath of office? Until some good reasons can be given for asking this opinion I shall be compelled to vote against it.

Mr. McArdle arose and said:

Mr. President, I don't propose to support this motion in the face of the fact that no reasons are being advanced here as to why it should be supported. The absence of those reasons forces one to reach his own conclusion as to why they are not here. In the first place, whether the status of this affiliation is legal or illegal, is not a matter of Council's concern at this particular time. And if I were looking for a precedent, it seems to me, that I would not have to go farther back than two or three weeks when the author of this resolution said that the administration of the affairs of the Department of Public Safety was not a matter of Council's concern, but was a matter of administrative judgment and discretion and responsibility and if there is any circumstance, under which that is true, it seems to me that this is one of them.

I have no doubt in my mind that this resolution comes before us for two reasons. One is to picture the American Federation of Labor as an organization that is subversive to public interest to have anybody belong to it, much less city firemen, and at the same time to raise the question in some roundabout way of the responsibilities that existed for the strike here in the Bureau of Fire last year.

Now, I want to go squarely on record that the affiliation or non-affiliation with the American Federation of Labor or any National Labor Organization, in my judgment, had nothing to do with the strike of the firemen in the Bureau of Fire in the City of Pittsburgh last year, and the American Federation of Labor, of all other people, had no responsibility for that condition. Anybody who knows a single thing about the constitution and laws of the American Federation of Labor, if there was a direct affiliation between the members of the Bureau of Fire and that organization, that that action would have been absolutely opposed to those laws just as fully as they could have been opposed to the laws of Pittsburgh or the State of Pennsylvania.

I emphasize it is a question of administration of the Department of Public Safety; and if there is one man more than all other men put together who was responsible for that condition, it was the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh.

It is my judgment that if the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh during that trouble had as much bone in his back as he had in his head there would not have been a strike of the firemen in the City of Pittsburgh.

Anybody who knew the attitude of the American Federation of Labor upon the question of strikes generally knew they were opposed to strikes, and knew they received the plaudits of the Nation because of that policy. The American Federation of Labor at that time was absolutely opposed to strikes of any kind, its hostility to strike movements being emblazoned in its official organ as a warning to all laboring men that they must not do anything that they could not justify in the eyes of the boys who were fighting for them on the other side; and the American Federation of Labor from its highest officer to its humblest member adhered to that action.

That was the action and policy of the American Federation of Labor during the war.

If the condition upon which information is sought in this resolution existed and if an affirmative answer, or an answer to the effect that this affiliation is illegal comes, what does it mean? Does it mean that Council will then pass a resolution or an ordinance requiring the Department of Public Safety officials and the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh to enforce the law? We are admonished here to do those things which will keep us within the provisions of our oath of office and our obligation as public officials, and if that is good advice here, it is certainly good advice to the Director of the Department of Public Safety, and it certainly is good advice to the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh, and the gentleman who wants this information and believes that he is going to contribute something to the welfare of the City of Pittsburgh ought to hasten to the Mayor's office and to the Director of the Department of Public Safety's office and get those two gentlemen to go to the legal department and let them get the information and let them take action in accordance with the advice they will get there.

That is not the purpose at all. Perhaps an opinion will be rendered that this affiliation is illegal, and then Council will be asked to take some steps which will have placed upon its shoulders the responsibility of upsetting a condition when that responsibility does not belong here, when the obligation rests as fully upon the Mayor and his department heads as any laws that could be passed could put it there.

We know that condition was not the outgrowth of the existence of a labor organization. It is the outgrowth of a policy by which the Department of Public Safety, in either of its main branches, is not looked upon as a great arm of the government instituted for the protection of the public, but as an effective agency to express the political will of the Mayor.

We read of men talking of the American Federation of Labor being in the hands of radicals and we face this condition even after the condition that was brought before the people of Pittsburgh when the members of the Fire Bureau abandoned their posts. We find the man who led the firemen in that strike with a record of dismissals or appearances before the Trial Board of the Bureau of Fire on eight or ten different occasions because of misconduct or some other charge and the dismissal of this man by those who were charged with the direct responsibility of that office and who, I believe, are honestly trying to maintain discipline, we find them confronted with two separate efforts to have that man put back upon the Bureau of Fire against their wishes after they had voted to convict him, and they thought, evidently, so seriously about it that the first attempt to reinstate him failed; but it was a matter apparently of so much importance to the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh that he could present himself personally before that Board, of which he is not a constituent part, and by his presence evidently overawe the members of it sufficiently to subjugate them to override their own desires to serve the interest of the public and reinstate that man to a place in the Bureau of Fire.

And under those conditions, which may be multiplied almost without number, we are to use this case and such conditions as a means to join in what seems to have become a popular pastime of scourging the American Federation of Labor and every other labor organization in the land.

To set up an indictment against four or five million men because from among that number one or two, or a dozen, or a thousand, who are not measuring up to the proper ideals of Americanism, or who may perchance deserve hanging ought I know is not justified, and as far as I am concerned this condition does not warrant this action and will not receive my support in having this Council used for the purpose of furthering such methods as that.

As Mr. English has quite well said and the author knows as well as or better than any one in the Council that he could get this information from the City Solicitor himself, and I hazard the guess that he has already received it, and therefore, in the face of all these facts, there is no reason in the world why a resolution like this should be passed by Council after having been exploited in the daily papers and no reason advanced for the Council which is asked to pass it.

Mr. Garland arose and said:

Mr. President, I want to say a great many things have been impugned here. No man knows what is in my mind and I am not going to give what is in my mind. It is not germane to the question at this time. This is simply to ascertain the truth. If any member of the Council does not want light as to the law, that is his responsibility. I want this in the hands of Council and I want it written on the records of Council.

I don't have the opinion as the gentleman says. I want it and want it put on record.

I am putting this motion in good faith to find out whether, in appropriating money to the Fire Bureau we are appropriating to an illegally constituted body. No man will go further in paying a living wage to firemen than me, but, by George, they got to be independent firemen and not subject to labor strikes, either sympathetic or direct. I want them to exercise their rights as free American citizens. For that reason I want this put into legal shape. I want to meet the fire fighters and give them what they are entitled to. I am only asking for the law and want it to come into the hands of Council, because we are the appropriating body.

There has been a lot said about piffle and bunk. It is nonsensical to talk that way. It is kindergarten talk. I want the information to come into Council because it belongs here.

Mr. English arose and said:

Mr. President, I am not an attorney, but I know that the City Solicitor will reply and say that a man who takes an oath of office to the public owes his allegiance to that office first. If a city employee belongs to a labor organization such membership should not affect his oath of allegiance to the people.

I don't think after he gets the information it will be effective in this case. I repeat again that I don't propose to allow this Council to be used as a vehicle by some member to gain newspaper notoriety. If there is nothing political about this why wasn't it brought up before the election?

Mr. Garland:

Mr. President, no fireman can say that I went into the fire engine houses before the primary or general election and solicited their votes. I am not using this resolution as a vehicle to gain notoriety either for myself or anybody else. The gentleman is entirely mistaken about that.

At the time the firemen's committee came before our committee. I informed them that the firemen's strike was unpatriotic and un-American, and I say it again. There was no justification for them to abandon their post. It was desertion and mutiny, and I say it again. I would not have brought this into the discussion, but am only doing so as an answer to the previous speaker.

This is a four-line resolution simply asking for information for Council. If the gentleman wants to have it done, it will be alright.

Mr. Winters arose and said:

Mr. President, I think we should confine ourselves to the subject. The subject before us is a resolution presented by Mr. Garland in which he asks for information from the City Solicitor on a specific question. I would no more deny a member of Council the right to an opinion from the Law Department than I would a body of citizens a hearing before the Council.

I think if the facts on which the resolution are predicated were given to Council, as they were to the newspaper, it would then have given us an opportunity to discuss it thoroughly. I know something about the American Federation of Labor, but it is not necessary to go into that question. The only thing before us is, do we want this opinion from the Law Department and take up the facts behind it some other time?

Mr. Garland:

I will give them at the proper time.

Mr. McArdle:

Mr. Garland said something about appropriating to an illegally constituted body. I want to say in answer to him that we don't appropriate to the firemen's union. We appropriate to the Bureau of Fire a sufficient amount to pay the salaries of all employees, and every individual in that bureau is employed according to certain rules and regulations that are controlled by law; and whether the law in any respect is being violated is entirely in the hands of the Department of Public Safety and, above all, the Mayor of the City of Pittsburgh to determine and correct any evil if it exists. Every member of this Council knows that you cannot withhold an appropriation to a bureau because some individuals in it happen to belong to an organization to which he should not belong. If there is anything that affects his standing as an employee, that condition could be quickly handled by the responsible officers of the department.

The Chair.

I am quite satisfied that the Mayor is the Chief Executive of the City and as such is at the head of our police and fire departments and is responsible for any conditions that exists in those departments. However, I don't believe we should deny a member of Council information when he asks for it.

And the question recurring on the adoption of the resolution, Mr. English demanded a call of the ayes and noes, and the demand having been sustained, the ayes and noes were taken, and being taken were:

Ayes—Messrs.

Dalley	Herron (President)
Garland	Rauh
Henderson	Winters

Noes—Messrs.

English	McArdle
---------	---------

Ayes—6.

Noes—2.

And a majority of the votes being in the affirmative, the motion prevailed.

And on motion of Mr. Garland,
Council adjourned.

To the Chairman of the Budget Committee, City Council, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Dear Sir—I have this day mailed to Hon. John Herron, Chairman of Council, a copy of letter written and mailed to Mayor E. V. Babcock concerning conditions, management, food, supplies, etc., existing at Mayview City Home and Hospital.

It has been charged by an official of the institution that the responsibility for a number of these conditions lies with your Committee for the reason that you cut down appropriations asked for to properly equip the institution with enough help and to furnish proper, nutritious and sufficient food for both help and inmates of the institution.

I trust that this Committee will see to it that sufficient funds are secured and appropriated in making up the next Budget to properly equip and feed the inmates and employees and to properly operate the institution.

I also earnestly request that a thorough investigation be made by you, as officials, in order that the newly elected superintendent will be able to show his ability to fill the position to which he was recently appointed or elected.

Hoping to see early results in my future visits, I remain,

Yours respectfully,
CHARLES W. WILBERT.

Hon. John Herron and Members of Council, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Gentlemen—On October 28, 1919, I wrote and mailed to Mayor E. V. Babcock a copy of the enclosed communication. Same was mailed to him by registered letter. He, having failed to acknowledge receipt of same, evidently intends to ignore the information and charges I make. Three weeks or more have now elapsed and I can find no efforts being made towards making improvement in conditions, etc., and from further observations and investigations. I now ask that Council proceed to take the proper official action to bring about improvement without further delay and that the enclosed communication be read in open Council.

Yours respectfully,
CHARLES W. WILBERT.

Pittsburgh, Pa.,
October 23, 1919.

Hon. E. V. Babcock,
Mayor City of Pittsburgh,
Pittsburgh, Pa.

Sir—As per your request to put in writing and submit to you for your official consideration and information concerning our conversation in your office Monday, October 27, 1919, in connection with conditions, management, etc., at Mayview City Home and Hospital, gathered by my personal observations and interviews with both male and female employees during my weekly visits covering a period of four months past, within the last three weeks past, on one particular day there was not enough bread to feed the inmates in what is known as the Women's Cottage. There is and has been for the past two years a shortage of nurses and female attendants, nurses are compelled to attend training school against their own wishes, consequently do not remain in service any considerable length of time. In this particular department (the Women's Cottage) there are I am informed 400 inmates housed and cared for, in which there are but five nurses on duty during the day and but three during the night. There is a state law requiring one nurse to every eleven inmates or persons, a number of nurses and attendants in service in other parts of the institution is charged up to this particular department in order to make it appear there is a fairly good supply. The total number of female nurses and attendants are about 35 or 40 in the entire institution, so one can readily see there is an unreasonable shortage in this particular line of employees.

There is particularly a very great shortage of nutritious food that is very essential to the upbuild of the body physically, which helps to strengthen the mind. Employees inform me they are only about half fed they having had but one meal or two where fresh vegetables in seasons such as lettuce, radishes, peas, string beans were served, they not being grown in quantities large enough to feed even the employees more frequently than above stated. Inmates are fed for breakfast, dry bread, molasses, black coffee, no cereal, eggs, milk or sugars are ever served, at least not very often for more than a year or two past; for dinner, soup, small piece of meat, dry bread; supper, about same as for breakfast, sometimes tea is substituted for coffee.

The production and purchase of milk has been reduced 50 to 60 gallons daily, and the population of the institution has very materially increased. Little or no attention is paid, to the general welfare of the inmates, either in the home or hospital department, however, the closest attention, best of service, etc., is furnished and given the henery, piggery and cow husbandry are better provided for than the inmates of the institution. I have heard it boasted of how much better these three industries have improved in quality, and breeding in the past three years, some of these boosters among the higher attaches connected with the institution and who never get further than the office and the dinner table provided for on special occasions, such as was served Friday, October 17, milk fed ducks raised at Mayview Farm and fed with milk two or three weeks before their slaughter, that belonged to the inmates of the institution.

About all the outgoing superintendent did was to play golf, ride saddle horse and look after those great industries of the farm, Piggery, Henery and Cow Husbandry, and to see that his children rode to and from school at Bridgeville, in a two horse conveyance and driver furnished by the city at $65.00 or $70.00 per month, whose business it was to meet trains at the Mayview Station with the ambulance to haul patients to the institution. Shortage of nurses is what caused one woman the loss of both eyes, having been gouged out by another inmate.

These unfortunate souls are the wards of the City of Pittsburgh, of the Mayor and the Councilmen as a body, plenty of money is provided by payment of taxes to properly care for and provide their every need and wants, supply proper food, shelter, clothing, nursing, etc., and provide capable and efficient nurses not afraid to pull off their coats, roll up their sleeves and work to see that these matters are executed. Numbers of persons, inmates sleep on the floors in hallways, upon mattress and straw ticks and other improved substitutes, while there are empty beds and room for more to be set up, but on account of lack of nurses and help to look after them, they must lie like animals as best they can.

I have observed some very unsanitary conditions among quite a few of the inmates, some have head lice and nits, others act like they might have cooties, wearing apparel and garments filthy and in tatters, some have no shoes, stockings worn by them with soles entirely worn out from long wear and service. I am also informed that the cost of feeding, and, I presume this includes the feeding of the employees is 18 cents per day per person; the party who gave me this information was in a position to do so from his own personal knowledge and must be absolutely correct.

Conditions in the entire institution generally are in a very deplorable condition and needs cleaning up in all departments before any further suffering during the coming cold season sets in.

In conclusion I will state that the stake is always set for the public visitors' benefit to create a favorable impression by the well kept lawn and flower beds and small vegetable patches which are in the very plain view to the casual observer in passing to and from the walk and approaches to the buildings. The farmer is paid less than the man in charge of the hennery, this may account for the small cultivation of vegetables in larger acreage.

It is my intention, should these matters herein referred to do not get your proper attention officially to give same information to the daily press for publicity.

Yours very respectfully,
CHARLES W. WILBERT.
(Signed)

Which was read and referred to the Committee on Charities and Correction.

Mr. English moved

That the Council visit the City Home and Hospitals at Mayview on Tuesday morning, November 25, 1919, at 9:30 o'clock, to investigate the charges.

Mr. English arose and said:

Mr. President, in support of this motion. It seems to me that serious charges have been made by Mr. Wilbert. This being the case, I deem it of the highest importance that the members of Council themselves should immediately go to Mayview and ascertain whether or not these charges are true. If they are true, it is our duty to correct them. If they are not true, it is equally our duty to vindicate the Director.

I don't know whether they are true or not. They may be exaggerated in spots, but it seems to me that it is a most serious accusation against our city.

Under the circumstances, I feel that the members of Council should themselves make a personal investigation of this matter and not leave it to any intermediary officials. This, it seems to me, is absolutely necessary in view of the fact that we gave Director McKelvey everything he asked for in the budget this year and it is certainly not our fault if there was not sufficient money to buy food for the patients at Mayview. As we are about to commence work on the budget for next year a personal visit will satisfy each one of us regarding the new appropriation.

Mr. Charles W. Wilbert, who was present at the meeting, arose and asked permission from the Chair to address the Council.

And there being no objections, Mr. Wilbert was given the privilege of the floor and asked that the complaints outlined in his communication be investigated.

And the question recurring on the motion, Mr. English demanded a call of the ayes and noes, and the demand having been sustained, the ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes—Messrs.

Dalley	McArdle
English	Rauh
Herron (President)	Robertson

Noes—Messrs.

Garland	Winters
Henderson

When the name of Mr. Garland was called, he arose and said:

Mr. President, I vote No, because I prefer referring it to the Director of the Department of Charities in the regular way to get a report.

DEPARTMENT OF LAW.

Pittsburgh, Pa.
November 24, 1919.

To the Honorable, the Council of the City of Pittsburgh.

Gentlemen—On Bill No. 3919, "Resolution that the City Solicitor be requested to furnish Council with an opinion as to whether the affiliation of the employees of the Fire Department of the City of Pittsburgh with the American Federation of Labor is legal," I beg to report:

That membership in any labor union is not consistent with the duties and obligations assumed by one who enters the service of the City Fire Bureau. Firemen are sworn in the service in the same manner as policemen, and in cases of emergency the Mayor has the same power and control over firemen as he has over the police force of the City for the purpose of maintaining peace and good order and enforcing the laws and ordinances of the City. The organization and discipline of the Fire and Police force is quasi-military, and for the purpose of maintaining efficiency and the best service, it is of the highest importance that discipline and obedience to superior officers be strictly enforced. Policemen and firemen are now appointed under the Civil Service Act of 1907, and can only be discharged from the City's service on charges of delinquency actually proven before a Trial Court, as provided by Article III, Section 1, of the Charter Act of 1901. The Charter and City Ordinance passed in pursuance thereof have provided a fund, under the direction of the Disability Board, "for the care, maintenance and relief of aged, retired or disabled firemen." The system thus established, of admission into the service only after examinations relating to mental, moral and physical fitness of the applicants, careful provision for maintenance of members upon disability or age retirement, and full protection against arbitrary and unjust discharge—all those indicate a full intent and purpose of the Legislature to make the City Police and Fire Service as free as possible from any outside influence or interference with the position or conduct of the member while in the service. The assurances of employment and protection are intended as an inducement to a member of the Fire Bureau to give his best service to the City and enforcement of its laws and ordinances. The essential theory of this system is that firemen and policemen shall be entirely independent of any kind of outside influence—political, religious or social—and be thus able to give their best service to the City alone, unaffected by outside considerations.

In the matter of salary or wages, as required by the Charter, these are fixed by annual appropriation, which, of course, is well-known to everyone before he enters the service, and changes therein cannot be arbitrarily made at the dictation of labor unions.

As firemen are police officers, and may at any time be called to co-operate with the police in maintaining public peace and order in the City during the time of strike or riot, it is quite plain that these duties might bring them in direct conflict with obligations assumed as members of a labor union.

I find no decided law cases on this question, as the unionizing of fire and police forces in cities is of recent origin. For the reasons above stated, I have no doubt, whatever, that any police or fire force, organized into a branch of the Federation of Labor or any other labor union, is an illegal body and that membership of any municipal employee in any labor union is illegal. The recent disastrous police strikes in the cities of Liverpool, England, and Boston, Massachusetts, would seem to furnish the most cogent of all arguments against unionizing these forces or permitting them to have any outside affiliation or control, whatever, which interferes with their strict adherence to their duty to the public and obedience to superiors charged with the supreme obligation of maintaining public peace and order.

Respectfully yours,
CHARLES A. O'BRIEN,
City Solicitor.

Now, in consideration of the premises, the Society does hereby give and grant to the City of Pittsburgh the irrevocable right and option at any time during the term of said lease, to purchase the leasehold interest and all buildings, improvements and fixtures thereon or belonging thereto of the Western Pennsylvania Exposition Society, of, in and to the premises described in said lease, by paying the total amount of indebtedness of the said Society then remaining unpaid at the time the City shall make known to the Society its election to buy.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH.

Pittsburgh, Pa.,
November 20, 1919.

The City Council,
Pittsburgh, Pa.

Gentlemen—Bill No. 3303, an Ordinance amending item "Resident Physician" in section 35, Department of Public Health, Municipal Hospital, provides for an increase in the salary of the resident physician from $1,950.00 to $3,000.00 per annum. The resident physician at the Municipal hospital is one of the best equipped practitioners in the diseases treated at this hospital that could be found in the State. There is no doubt that he should be given an increase in salary. I have had the matter under consideration and had intended recommending an increase in the budget. Mr. McArdle presented from the special committee appointed to prepare resolutions on the death of Enoch Rauh.

No. 3990.

On Thanksgiving Day, November 27, 1919, when the sun was about to appear over our city and remind us of the significance of the day and summon us to the duty which a great Nation had self-imposed, there appeared a messenger in the garb of death to announce the close of the earthly labors of our colleague and friend, Enoch Rauh.

Coming as it did, when he was active in the performance of his life's work and seemingly in the enjoyment of splendid health, his death was a shock to his legion of friends, cast a gloom over the city he had served so faithfully, and filled with genuine grief the heart of every man, woman and child who was privileged to know him, because hearts must grieve for the loss of things they love.

His life has been an inspiration because it has been a success; it has been a success because it had in it so much of service to his fellowmen.

Recognizing that by his death his family has lost a devoted husband and father, his friends and colleagues a real friend who knew the reciprocal value of friendship, and the city a conscientious, intelligent, honest public servant, and desiring to make public acknowledgment of our appreciation of his worth as a private citizen and public officer we do hereby Resolve, That the Council of the City of Pittsburgh direct that this minute be made a part of the public record and that a properly engrossed copy be sent to the family of our deceased colleague as an expression of our sympathy for the great loss they have sustained.

Which was read.

Mr. McArdle moved

The adoption of the resolution.

Seconded by Mr. Garland.

The Chair called upon the members of Council for remarks.

Mr. Dailey arose and said:

Mr. President, when I think of Enoch Rauh I think of a man who attained the top of success in public and private life with a smile and a kindliness that made friend and foe appear almost alike to him; I think of a man whose makeup knew no taint of malice and rancor and who accomplished his many successes with those virtues expressed by a broad sympathy for others and a tolerance and generosity toward all.

When I think of Enoch Rauh, it is of a man who in his love for his fellow man knew little about holding a grudge and much about quick forgiveness; of a man whose faculty for criticizing the faults of others was not developed beyond that of a pure-minded juvenile; of a man who was weak at tearing down the houses of others, but strong in helping them to build them; for a chief joy in his life was to make another man's cause his own.

I shall always continue to think of Enoch Rauh as a man of wealth who could have chosen his path in the so-called upper levels, but who chose the common level where his life could be pure and simple and where he could hear, touch and walk with all mankind. I shall continue to think of Enoch Rauh as a man big in business, big in heart, big in his respect for prince and pauper, and with a saint-like regard for all humanity.

We can fill his place here, but in Pittsburgh life there will be a void in the place he filled. Personally I felt the deepest grief at his death because he had endeared himself to me.

Mr. English arose and said:

Mr. President, once more as members of this Council we are assembled in a memorial service for one of our members. On the former occasion you will recall the tragic death of our colleague, William A. Hoeveler, in the Council Chamber itself amidst our labors. Some of us at that time knew that Mr. Hoeveler was under the care of a physician, but no one realized how close he was to the border land.

On this occasion the shock comes with greater force because Enoch Rauh was in the very best of health, and, being a man of excellent habits and of such a genial disposition one would have expected him to have rounded out a long life at an advanced age.

It is very hard, indeed, to realize that he has been called away forever.

Anything we may do or say on this occasion cannot add or detract from the monument of service Mr. Rauh had built in his life. The simple statement that Enoch Rauh lived a kind and forgiving life should be enough on this occasion. There is no doubt whatever in my mind that he exemplified in the highest degree the teachings of the Lord's prayer, "Forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors." Any man who in his daily life and conversation carries out the spirit of that prayer needs no further eulogy from me. I wish to bear testimony that in all my experience with Enoch Rauh he fully carried out that prayer.

Mr. Garland arose and said:

Mr. President—Mere words will not adequately express one's feelings when that lovable character, Enoch Rauh, is the subject of our thoughts.

His sudden taking away in the very prime of his life, was a terrible shock to this community that he loved so well.

He was above all a home man, and that home, which was his pride, has now its desolate hearthstone, and my heart goes out at this time in deepest sympathy to his stricken widow and bereaved family. May it be a consolation to them to know that his friends in all walks of life were many; that the excellent services rendered by him to his beloved city were appreciated, and that his sterling character and lovable personality have been a strong influence in the commercial, civic and social life of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Henderson arose and said:

Mr. President and Members of Council—When you look at the course of human existence Enoch Rauh had comparatively a long life. He has paid his debt to nature and in his late middle life has gone the way of all flesh.

He was a just man and it is not right to mourn unduly the death of a man who has lived justly, for we are bound to believe that he has gone out of this troubled human existence into one full of peace and tranquility.

I take it that this is not altogether a house of mourning for we look back with pride to the recollection of the long, honest and devoted service of our late colleague as a member of City Council. We look back with respect to his fidelity to duty, his politeness and urbanity to his associates, his kindness and his constant willingness to serve those in need of his services.

As you travel along life's pathway occasionally you meet a man who strikes you as being exceptionally human, with whom acquaintance rapidly ripens into friendship. In whom loyally you have confidence; whose opinion you value and whose character you respect and admire. Such a man to me was Enoch Rauh.

His public and private life was without a blemish, and at this time when we, the City Council of the City of Pittsburgh officially pay tribute to his memory, we can say truthfully,

"Well done thou good and faithful servant."

Mr. McArdle arose and said:

Mr. President—Enoch Rauh is dead and we and all his countless friends mourn his death. It is the lives and characters of men like Mr. Rauh that sustains our confidence in our fellowmen and enables us to meet the problems of life with more faith and hope for the final triumph for the causes that are righteous.

His absence from the Council Chamber and from the other scenes of his daily activities will be keenly and regretfully noted.

His disposition, constantly evidenced, to serve his fellowmen in ways none too common will cause him to be missed and mourned by thousands whose life's burdens he tried to lighten and whose pathway he tried to brighten and sweeten with the beauty and fragrance of the flowers that he thought meant so much more to the living than to the dead.

He loved his city, with an especial devotion to its libraries, its parks and its playgrounds, and the patrons of all of these municipal functions have profited by his kindly solicitation for their advancement.

Every note of music sounded in our public parks will be a note of praise and thanksgiving for his splendid help, and every peal of innocent laughter from the throats of happy children on our public playgrounds will be testimony of his love for humanity and his desire to make life brighter and better and sweeter for all whom he might help.

I am sorry he is gone, but happy to be able to say, after so intimate an association with him, that I am sure that the world was better because of his having lived in it.

Mr. Robertson arose and said:

Mr. President,

Fellow Members of Council,

Ladies and Gentlemen:

It is with feelings of deepest regret at this occasion, that I rise to pay tribute to the virtues of our late colleague, Honorable Enoch Rauh, whose life on earth has ended so suddenly as to shock the staunchest of us.

Mr. Rauh was a man of kindly disposition, capable in business and assiduous in his attention to every duty, both public and private. He was a successful man, not only in the affairs of the world, but in that greater way that leaves the community better for his having lived in it.

His home life was ideal, and his business success founded upon the solid rock of integrity. In public life, where we knew him best, his kindly smile, sound counsel and cheerful personality will be sadly missed. His philanthro-pies may be carried on, but his place in the world of action will never be filled as he filled it, in his own unique way, and any of us who are assembled here today, out of respect for Mr. Rauh, will find more than one thing in his life and work that we will do well to emulate.

Mr. Winters arose and said:

Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen—I was very much shocked on the morning of the day on which we were to offer up Thanksgiving to hear of the death of our late colleague, Mr. Enoch Rauh.

I became acquainted with Mr. Rauh at the time he was appointed by Governor Tener as one of the original Council of Nine. I knew at that time that he had a high sense of responsibility and the dignity of the position, and I believe that no man in the Council tried harder to live up to that standard than he. His taking off was somewhat similar to that of dear Daddy Hoeveler, the first member to pass away of the original appointees.

The world was better because Enoch Rauh lived in it. His life was devoted to service. He was a good citizen, a loyal friend, a devoted head of a family group, and my heart goes out in sympathy to his accomplished widow of whom he was so proud.

He was a genial, kind, human man, whom those who knew him and the public he served will keenly miss. I like to think with the Poet Riley:

"I cannot say; I will not say,
That he is dead; he is just away."

The Chair arose and said:

Gentlemen of Council and Friends—In the death of Enoch Rauh, we have lost an honorable and upright citizen, and a very valuable member of this Council. Always striving to please and to serve others, he was an inspiration to us.

Successful in business, he could have avoided a great deal of worry if he had so desired and could have given himself the most that this world has. It was always his desire to make the burdens of life rest easy on the less fortunate.

He had a pleasing disposition. No matter what the provocation, he was always a gentleman. He was a man endowed with an abundance of common sense, combined with firmness—elements of character which made him a man to be liked and respected. I am proud to have been associated with him.

The City of Pittsburgh has lost an efficient public official and all of us have lost a friend.

A great many kind words have been said in memory of Mr. Rauh today, all of which I cheerfully concur in.

Hon. E. V. Babcock, Mayor, was called upon, arose and said:

Mr. President and Gentlemen of Council:—

I am very glad and proud to be asked to join you in paying a word of respect to Mr. Enoch Rauh. Mr. Rauh was a good and great man; I think primarily because he was a human, democratic man. He loved associations with the people of the City of Pittsburgh and made it his business to mingle with them, to be a part of them, and, where he could, to help them. I think his life would be recognized by him, if he could review it, as a very satisfactory life, because he was conspicuous in doing for others. That man or that woman who lives for himself or herself, who is selfish, when the race of life is ended cannot be compared with the man who is big and generous and wholesome and tries all through life to help others as he passes along the way.

Mr. Rauh was fortunate in having a splendid family, with a brilliant wife at the head of it—a woman that could and would help any man through the journey of life. He was fortunate in having strong, substantial brothers, and, I think, particularly fortunate in having an affection and love in that family of brothers that perhaps exists in very few families in Pittsburgh. It gave him an opportunity, perhaps, to do what others could not do, but his simplicity, his desire to help others, was so manifest.

I remember back in the early days of our association in Council a statement he made which flashes across my mind now. We were talking about automobiles; it was when they first came into general use. He said he could not afford an automobile, that he had a line of charities and philanthropic work that he was carrying on and that he would much rather give the amount of money that it would cost to operate an automobile to his wife to carry on her charitable work. I thought it was commendable for him to have such thoughts at that time. He could not have both, and he sacrificed his own personal pleasure and comfort for the privilege of helping others.

So many heartfelt and kind things have been said by the members of Council that it is difficult to add to them. I commend you, Mr. President, and your associates, for adjourning Council out of respect for your fellow member and for arranging this beautiful, simple service, which comes from the heart. It is self-evident that it does come from the heart. It is self-evident that it is a great satisfaction to you to say such commendable words about this meritorious character.

Enoch Rauh for 20 years has been interested in everything for the best interest of Pittsburgh. He stands out conspicuously for his way of doing things in his own sphere, and doing all he could. It is commendable for you to get on your feet and commend his memory for it and help his family assuage their feelings, which we all know are difficult to bear.

Dr. S. S. Woodburn was called upon, arose and said:

Mr. President, Members of Council, Ladies and Gentlemen:—I came with no idea of saying anything; I came here to listen; but since you have called upon me I am willing to endorse everything that has been said and to add more.

I met Enoch Rauh for the first time upon the organization of the Council of Nine, the members of which were appointed by Governor John K. Tener in 1911. I was drawn to Enoch Rauh at that moment of meeting and was intimately associated with him, both in a public and social way, for almost five years.

When the notice of his death came to me I assure you that it was far more shocking than when I witnessed the dying moment of that other colleague, William A. Hoeveler. We hoped that Mr. Hoeveler was not dead and could not persuade ourselves for some time that he was dead. Finally we gave him up. But the announcement was, that Enoch Rauh was dead and there was no hope and no chance to think or believe otherwise.

Enoch Rauh was an honorable man. He was a genial companion. He was a true friend, always loyal. Enoch Rauh was an honor to his race—to the tribe of Judah. He was a credit to his city, his country and last, but above all, he was a credit to his Creator.

Dr. G. A. Dillinger was called upon, arose, and said:

Mr. President and Members of Council—I came here today simply to lend my presence at this memorial meeting in honor of the memory of my neighbor, friend and associate for four years in this body, Enoch Rauh.

I want to thank you, Mr. President, for the privilege of adding a few words of testimony of my sincere respect for Mr. Rauh. I believe that Mr. Rauh knew more people in the City of Pittsburgh and was known by more individuals personally than any other citizen of our city. I believe that was largely due to the fact that Enoch Rauh seemed to have born in him that instinct for doing things for others.

His life has been an example to us of real self-sacrifice, of real altruism.

When he came into the Council Chamber, Enoch Rauh had just as warm a hand shake and smile for Mose (the Sergeant-at-Arms) as he had for the Mayor and the members of Council. That was a true characteristic of Mr. Rauh.

I believe one of the predominating features of his character was his absolute sincerity and honesty. What a heritage he has left to that wonderful wife and children!

Not a word can be said against his character either as a citizen or a public official of Pittsburgh. After the number of years that he has lived among us that is a tribute that can be paid to few in a generation.

The entire city grieves with his family, and I believe today there are more hearts honestly throbbing and sobbing because of his death than has been the lot of very few men in this community.

Mr. E. S. Morrow, City Controller, when called up, arose and said:

I didn't come here, Mr. President, and Members of Council, with the intention of saying a word. When I heard of the death of Enoch Rauh it was not until Friday morning, and if I had been knocked from my feet I could not have had a greater shock.

I never knew Enoch Rauh until he came into the Council of Nine and from the very first until the end of his life I loved and respected him.

The gentlemen who have spoken already said what he was and I can endorse every word that has been uttered.

Enoch Rauh was a man who always kept in mind that he was not a master of men, but their servant, and he was just such a man as he wanted those who were his followers to be. He had the true humility, not cringing humility—and he never thought of himself. He would champion anybody who was in distress or trouble, was quick to do it, and knightly in his conduct.

He was honest beyond measure. If he thought a thing was wrong you could not persuade him to change his mind. But when he once believed it was honest, true and good, he stood for it against all opposition.

On the day of his funeral service I sat in the kitchen of his home and his employees were gathered there in force and I heard them talk about Enoch Rauh and the kind of a man he was and the expression among all of them was that they loved him. After these employees had left the kitchen the maid of the house came over to me and said, "Oh, Mister," (she did not know my name), "Oh, Mister, you don't know, nobody knows, how good and kind and affectionate and helpful Mr. Rauh was." These were her words and of the employees under him.

Dead, no

"There is no death.

What seems so is transition
From this world's cares
To fields elysian."

I want to say, gentlemen, that we have no longer lease on life than Enoch Rauh had, and it is well that we should imitate him in those things that are good and noble, and he was full of them. He was a wonderful man along that line. It is better for us to pass away and have men say how much we were loved or what we have done, not for ourselves but for others, than to have tablets of bronze erected to our memory.

Enoch Rauh was never accused of being selfish, but was always thinking of the other man in order to uplift him so that others might be taken care of. It would be well for us to emulate his life and character.

Mr. Charles A. O'Brien, City Solicitor, was called upon, arose and said:

Mr. President, I see a gentleman present who first introduced me to Mr. Rauh at a meeting of the Credit Men's Association, which he did so much to build up, and I said then, "Mr. Rauh is a regular Sunny Jim," and from that time on, I have always thought of him as of that type. Mr. Rauh was a paragon in all the relations of life; he was a successful business man, an adroit politician, and efficient councilman, and his domestic relations were idealistic; the sincere devotion between himself and his wife was a beautiful model for all. He was patriotic in the extreme, and in the war period his efforts in every direction to help his country were fervent and earnest.

The other day when I called at his home, I saw a little floral tribute near the bed where he lay and this touched me deeply, for it was labeled "From the Guskus Orphans," and it spoke volumes to me of the goodness, the kindness, the thoughtfulness, and helpfulness of Enoch Rauh. Anthony in the climax of his eulogy over the body of Caesar said, "When the poor have cried, Caesar hath wept," and our deceased friend felt always a deep tenderness and sympathy for the poor and the needy, which he expressed in many forms of charity.

After "life's fitful fever," may he sleep well.

Maj. William H. Davis, Director of the Department of Public Health, was called upon, arose and said:

Mr. President, on an occasion like this and being entirely unprepared to express myself properly, I beg to be excused.

Mr. Charles S. Hubbard, City Treasurer, was called upon, arose and said:

Mr. President, I listened with a great deal of interest to the many kind words that have been said of Enoch Rauh and I heartily endorse every word that has been spoken. His life has been an inspiration to us all.

Mr. Charles B. Prichard, Director of the Department of Public Safety, was called upon, arose and said:

Mr. President and Members of Council, Ladies and Gentlemen—After so much has been said and so well said about the departed member of Council, Enoch Rauh, I only want to say this: That as much as has been said and as well as it has been said it adequately expresses true facts about Mr. Rauh.

As I heard these good things falling from the lips of the men who were best qualified to speak of him, I congratulate myself that I had known a man about whom so much good could be said.

It would be folly for me to attempt to add to that that has already been said; but I do want to arise now to express my tribute to his memory and say I was his friend and he was my friend.

Mr. John Swan, Director of the Department of Public Works, was called upon, arose and said:

Mr. President, I wish to express my tribute to the memory of Enoch Rauh. He was my friend and the friend of every city employee. Always approachable by anyone, he was always willing to help and advise and do so in a kindly manner. His loss will be felt by all who knew him.

Mr. C. K. Robinson, Special Assistant City Solicitor, was called upon, arose and said:

Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen—Time does not permit us to give a proper tribute to the work and accomplishments of Enoch Rauh. We are fully conscious of the sincerity, the honesty of purpose and the enthusiastic efforts made by Mr. Rauh for the welfare of this great community and of the success that crowned his efforts.

As a personal friend I mourn his loss. I always found him a loyal friend. He was always at the forefront in any movement that would be of benefit to this great community. In thousands of ways he showed his sympathetic understanding and willingness to help the laboring man and those who were less fortunate in attaining natural success.

I wish to add my personal expression of sincere grief that this public spirited man has been taken from our midst.

Mr. B. J. Jarrett, Assistant City Solicitor, was called upon, arose and said:

Mr. President and Members of Council—I did not intend to speak upon this occasion. I came here to pay tribute in silence to the memory of our distinguished friend, Mr. Rauh. He was a true man—one whom we all respected, admired and loved. He had high ideals of life and it seemed his constant endeavor was to bring his living up to the standard of those ideals.

There is little I can add to what has been here so truly and beautifully said concerning the life, character and works of this good man.

It is, of course, proper that we should upon this occasion recall and set before us his noble qualities and good deeds, but it matters little what we may say here; the thing that counts for him and for us is the substance of good which we have drawn out of his life and example and put into our own lives and living. The lives of good men are made strong and enduring and a living factor only so far as they become a living and active force inspiring and impelling us to high ideals and noble works.

Mr. Rauh lived a good and useful life and the abundance of testimony offered here today makes sure that his life has not been in vain, but has made its impress for good upon the minds and hearts of all men with whom he came in contact. This fact is a beautiful and lasting tribute to him and a real and blessed consolation to those he leaves behind.

I hope that each and every one of us will leave this room higher in ideals of life and more resolute and determined to bring our living up closer to those ideals and thereby do real and true tribute to the good life that has just come to its earthly ending.

Mr. H. S. Sprague, Chief Engineer, Bureau of Engineering, was called upon, arose and said:

Mr. President and Members of Council—It is, indeed, difficult for me to add anything to that which has already been said as a tribute to the memory of Mr. Rauh.

It was my pleasure to have known Mr. Rauh from the time that he first entered the Council. He took a deep interest in all matters pertaining to the Department of Public Works, and was a loyal advocate and supporter of all improvements which would benefit the city.

Mr. Rauh's death is a distinct loss, not only to the city, but to the Department of Public Works. His kindly and charitable dealings in his official position had won my personal friendship and I therefore mourn the loss of a good friend.

Hon. Morris Einstein was called upon, arose and said:

Mr. President, Members of Council, Ladies and Gentlemen—I did not come here today to make any remarks. I came here to attend the memorial services, and I deem it a privilege to endorse everything that has been said about my friend, Enoch Rauh.

I have known Enoch Rauh for a great many years and I am proud to say that he was a friend of mine.

He was a man of a genial disposition; a man who did everything he could for others.

He will be missed by the orphans; by the old folks' home; by the hospitals and the many others who were recipients of his charity. He always did what he could to alleviate suffering and never turned anyone away who was in need of help.

While Enoch Rauh is absent his memory will cling to us. The members of Council will always remember him as being one of their most progressive members.

And the question recurring on the adoption of the resolution.

The motion prevailed by a unanimous rising vote.

Mr. Garland moved

That, out of respect to the memory of Mr. Rauh, Council do now adjourn.

Which motion prevailed.

And Council adjourned.

NINETIETH COUNCIL

COUNCIL

JOHN S. HERRON.....President
E. J. MARTIN.....City Clerk
ROBERT CLARK.....Assistant City Clerk

Pittsburgh, Pa.

Friday, December 5, 1919.

Council met pursuant to the following call:

Pittsburgh,
December 2, 1919.

E. J. Martin, Esq.,
City Clerk.

Dear Sir—You are hereby directed to call a special meeting of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh in the Council Chamber for Friday, December 5, 1919, at 10:00 o'clock A. M. for the purpose of electing in conjunction with the Mayor a member of Council to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Enoch Rauh.

Respectfully yours,

E. V. BABCOCK,
Mayor.

Which was read, received and filed.

Present—Messrs.

Dalley	Herron (President)
English	McArdle
Garland	Robertson
Henderson	Winters
Hon. E. V. Babcock,	Mayor.

Mr. McArdle arose and said:

Mr. President, inasmuch as all the members of Council and the Mayor are present, I move you that we now proceed to the election of some suitable person to fill the vacancy in Council created by the death of Mr. Enoch Rauh.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Winters arose and said:

Mr. Chairman, a few days ago we met in this room to eulogize the memory of Enoch Rauh and his service to the Council and the City of Pittsburgh, and I think when we gave expression to the sentiment and to the work and the life and character of Enoch Rauh we could not hold ourselves true to our words unless we carried out in deed, the things that we said.

Enoch Rauh was the last of the Mohicans—the last of the original Council of Nine—the Council whose appointment by the Governor of the State of Pennsylvania brought joy and pride to the good citizenship of the City of Pittsburgh. Never in the history of politics was an act committed that was so popular and so well received by the people of Pittsburgh as the appointment of the original Council of Nine, and it behooves us and those who follow us to remember as well as possible and according to their lights, to live up to the traditions and the things that were promised and the people of Pittsburgh believed they should have, that came with the change from the old system to the new.

No man in Council was more proud of his position, of his responsibility, and of his being a Councilman of the City of Pittsburgh than Enoch Rauh. I might say that he had an almost exalted sense of the responsibility and importance of that position and only recently, when it seemed that the Council was in danger of going back to the old system again, Enoch Rauh, more than any man in this Council or the City of Pittsburgh was on the job to stop such a thing, and I remember the day when Governor Sproul was at the Americus Club in Pittsburgh, Enoch Rauh said it was the happiest day of his life, because Governor Sproul had told him that there would be no change in the Council of Pittsburgh.

Therefore, it is fitting we should elect a man that he would endorse, a man who has never in word or deed agitated or been a party to any plan or scheme to change the form of Council, and I would hesitate, indeed, to present to the name of this Council a name of any man who had taken such action. I think it would be an insult to the intelligence of this Council to present the name of any man who by word or deed advocated the change of this Council. Therefore, I am going to present to you the name of a young man who measures up in every way to the standard set by Enoch Rauh and the original members of the Council of Nine. He is a young man, 38 years of age. He will bring into this Council intelligence—a wide acquaintance, and great work done for the city and its interests far beyond his years. He is connected with a family that have probably the largest property interests in the City of Pittsburgh, and, therefore, I believe the taxpayers and citizens will have a true representative in him as he will protect their interests as well as his own.

During the activities of the great world war no work was so essential, so well recognized, as the activities of the Red Cross. He was secretary of that organization and by his energy and his work and the results he produced he was made the Chairman, and all during the war he acted as Chairman of that organization, and his work was so fruitful that it stood out as probably the leading district in the United States for work accomplished.

Now, Mr. Chairman, I am privileged, indeed, to present to you the name of such a man, and I respectfully submit for the consideration of this Council the name of Mr. Augustus K. Oliver.

Mr. Dalley:

Mr. President, I desire to second the nomination.

Mr. McArdle:

Mr. President, I arise to also second the nomination of Mr. Augustus K. Oliver, and to express a sense of pleasure that I feel in doing it. I am mindful of the truths that have been expressed in the nominating remarks of Mr. Winters concerning the ideals as well as the character of our lamented colleague, Enoch Rauh, and I appreciate as he has given evidence of doing the importance of having before our mind's eye in making the selection of a successor the fact and knowledge that he who succeeds him shall also have the same high ideals and the same vision and the same determination to live up to those ideals that have been possessed by the man who will have been his predecessor.

Mr. Oliver is a man, in my judgment, who from whatever point he may be viewed will measure up to the responsibilities that will be thrust upon him if elected to this office. He knows the city; he knows government; he knows people; he understands principles and he has given evidence in all his life's work of being able to discern those principles in the ways that are best to serve the interests of the people. He has given evidence of a willingness to submerge self for the purpose of serving others; giving that evidence in a measure and with a success that has attended the efforts of few men in our great city, and he has done it without ever once in his life, so far as I know, blowing a note of praise or asking for a word of commendation for himself.

I take a still further and, perhaps, an even greater pleasure in seconding his nomination, because of the belief that is imbedded in my mind now that once Augustus K. Oliver takes a seat as a member of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, he will be a real member of Council and will measure up to the individual responsibility that the office thrusts upon him; that when he shall give expression to an idea or a thought or by his act commit himself to any policy it will be the result of a belief that is in his mind and heart that it is the right thing to do and that in the doing of it he will serve Pittsburgh and measure up to the responsibilities of his office. I believe, in other words, that he will have a mind of his own; possessed as he is of marked intelligence, and that he will express that mind and act in accordance with its dictates; because I believe he is possessed of courage, and that he will be willing at all times to do the thing that Augustus K. Oliver believe is the right thing to do, and I believe that of all other attributes that one is the most essential in properly filling the vacancy that is now at my side.

For these reasons and for others that are needless to mention, I express pleasure in voicing my intention to support Mr. Oliver for this vacancy.

Mr. English arose and said:

Mr. President, I too take great pleasure in seconding the nomination of Mr. Augustus K. Oliver to fill the vacancy in Council caused by the death of our colleague, Mr. Rauh. I could make a speech at great length, but I do not care to do so. I can express in a few words how I feel about the election of Mr. Oliver. I think if Mr. Oliver is elected a member of this Council he will thereby honor the Council.

Hon. E. V. Babcock arose and said:

Mr. President—Since the vacancy occurred many names have been submitted to me, I suppose because I was Mayor. I was besieged by applicants and their friends. Among the names submitted was that of Mr. John B. Barbour. After a careful study of the entire list I came to the conclusion that Mr. Barbour could fill this position better than any man that I knew of, who would accept the position.

I consulted with Mr. Barbour. I asked him if he would accept it if it was tendered him. He said he was not a seeker for the position, but would accept it. I then made a public announcement that I would support Mr. Barbour for the vacancy in this Council and I have asked members of this Council to support him. On account of the commendations that have come to me from business men of Pittsburgh in all environments, I now feel it my duty to present his name to you and your associates for your consideration.

I did not know that Augustus K. Oliver was a candidate for this position. Neither he nor his friends mentioned him to me.

I have gone on record in saying that Mr. Barbour would fill this position with credit to the Councilmen that elected him, the Mayor and the City of Pittsburgh. I wish to present his name without the slightest reflection on any other name that has been presented.

Mr. Garland arose and said:

Mr. President, it gives me great pleasure to second the nomination of John B. Barbour to fill the vacancy in Council caused by the death of Enoch Rauh.

Just as the Mayor has said, I would call this a surprise party. I did not know until a half hour ago that the name of Mr. Oliver was to be presented here for our consideration. I was not consulted about it.

I have known Mr. Oliver for a long time, have been associated with him in civic work and from all my experience with him I could not say a disparaging word against him.

Both Mr. Barbour and Mr. Oliver are good citizens and would make good councilmen. When there is so much unrest in this country today we need men of the type and character of Mr. Barbour and Mr. Oliver in positions of public character. Both of these men are of the type that would carry out the principles that I have always tried to carry out in this Council and elsewhere. Either of these men are satisfactory to me.

I sat with John B. Barbour on the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce and he was Vice-President when I was President of the Chamber of Commerce. I sat with Mr. Oliver as a member of the Executive Committee of the Red Cross.

I know Mr. Oliver is an indefatigable worker and it would please me mightily if Mr. Oliver were elected should Mr. Barbour be defeated; but I intend to vote for Mr. Barbour, because I had made up my mind to vote for him. His selection was not dictated to me as some newspapers of Pittsburgh would lead its readers to believe. I was never called up on the telephone by the certain party mentioned or communicated with in any way regarding his selection.

I have been for Mr. Barbour to fill this vacancy ever since last Saturday. If he is defeated I go down with the ship. I don't trim or cheat.

I met John Barbour in the Americus Club last Saturday and he said to me that he was not seeking the office, but would accept it if it was tendered him. I am for him. At the same time the City of Pittsburgh is to be complimented on the election of either Mr. Barbour or Mr. Oliver. I say again that either of these men would carry out the principles that I have tried to carry out ever since I have been a member of Council. They are both splendid examples of what Pittsburgh needs in its civic, commercial and industrial life.

I will be well satisfied if either of these men are elected because both of them stand for those things which are for the best interests of the City of Pittsburgh.

Mr. Chairman, don't smile. I am not talking any longer than the previous speakers. I will say further that either of these men will fill the bill; but I am for John Barbour, and when you consider his experience in business and his interest in the civic and industrial welfare of this city for many years he is well qualified for the position.

Mr. Robertson moved

That the nominations close on the names of Augustus K. Oliver and John B. Barbour.

Which motion prevailed.

And the clerk was instructed to call the roll on the election of Mr. Oliver and Mr. Barbour, and the roll being called the result of the voting was as follows:

For Augustus K. Oliver.

Messrs.—

Dailey	McArdle
English	Winters
Herron (President)

For John B. Barbour.

Hon. E. B. Babcock, Mayor.

Messrs.—

Garland	Robertson
Henderson

And Augustus K. Oliver received five votes.

And John B. Barbour four votes.

And Augustus K. Oliver having received five votes of Council was duly elected a member thereof in accordance with the provision of an Act of Assembly, approved May 31, 1911, vice Enoch Rauh, deceased.

Mr. Garland moved

That the election of Mr. Augustus K. Oliver be made unanimous by this Council.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Winters moved

That a committee of three be appointed to get in touch with Mr. Augustus K. Oliver so that the oath of office may be administered to him.

Which motion prevailed.

And the Chair appointed Messrs. Winters, McArdle and Garland.

The Chair declared a recess for 10 minutes.

And the hour of 10:40 o'clock, A. M., having arrived, and the time of the recess having expired, the committee returned with Augustus K. Oliver, the member-elect.

Mr. Winters said:

Mr. President and Gentlemen—I desire to present at this time the newly-elected Councilman, Augustus K. Oliver.

The Chair said:

I congratulate you, Mr. Oliver, on being the unanimous choice of the members of Council and the Mayor for this office. If you will step forward I will administer the oath of office.

And Augustus K. Oliver appeared and took and subscribed to the oath of office, which was administered to him by President Herron.

The Chair:

Mr. Oliver, we are very glad to have you with us and I would ask that you take your seat.

The Chair announced that Mr. Oliver would take the place of Mr. Rauh on all standing and special committees of Council.

The Chair said:

If there are no objections, we will proceed with the regular order of business. I have received a communication from the Mayor in which he desires the Council to recall, without action thereon by him, the Ordinance fixing the salary of the Resident Physician at the Municipal Hospital.

Mr. English moved

That the rule be suspended in order to proceed with the regular order of business.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair presented

No. 3991.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

Pittsburgh, December 2, 1919.

To the Council of the City of Pittsburgh.

Gentlemen—I beg to request that Bill No. 3303, an Ordinance increasing the salary of the Resident Physician at the Municipal Hospital, be withdrawn and that I be permitted to appear before you relative to it.

The Director of the Department of Public Health recommended that this salary be made $2,500.00 and stated that that amount would be satisfactory to the doctor in question.

My most potent objection to this Ordinance is that it is a serious discrimination. The Superintendent of the hospital (Mr. Jones) and this Resident Physician (Dr. Rimer) are both excellent men, both rendering the City splendid service. I cannot agree, however, that the Resident Physician should be paid more for his services than the Superintendent of the institution, and, with my present information, I would be compelled to disapprove the Ordinance.

Vetoing an Ordinance that has been unanimously passed by Council is an unpleasant duty. I cannot help but feel that there is either some misunderstanding on my part or on your part; hence I ask that this Ordinance be withdrawn that I may consider it with you before finally passing upon it.

Very respectfully yours,

E. V. BABCOCK,

Mayor.

Which was read.

Mr. English moved

That the communication be received and filed.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. McArdle moved

That the Mayor be requested to return to Council, without action thereon, Bill No. 3303.

Which motion prevailed.

And the Mayor returned, without action thereon,

Bill No. 3303, An Ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance amending Item 'Resident Physician,' in Section 35, Department of Health, Municipal Hospital, of an Ordinance entitled, 'An Ordinance fixing the number of officers and employees of all departments of the City of Pittsburgh, and the rate of compensation thereof,' approved by the Mayor, January 22, 1919."

In Council, November 24, 1919. Rule suspended, bill read three times and finally passed.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. McArdle moved

To reconsider the vote by which the bill was read a second, and third times and finally passed.

Which motion prevailed.

And the question recurring, "Shall the bill be read a second and third times and finally passed?"

The motion did not prevail.

Mr. McArdle moved

That the bill be recommitted to the Committee on Finance.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair stated

That the Council should immediately proceed with the consideration of the budget.

Mr. Robertson moved

That the Committee on Finance meet this afternoon at 1:30 o'clock to consider the budget.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Dalley moved

That Council adjourn.

Mr. McArdle arose and said:

Mr. President, before we adjourn it seems that the newly-elected member ought to be invited to say a word to Council.

Mr. Oliver arose and said:

Mr. President and Members of Council—Gentlemen, I can really say very little other than what probably every newly-elected member would say, which is that I intend only to do the best I can in fulfilling the duties of Council.

I am not as familiar, of course, as the other members of Council are with those duties, because they have been serving for some time.

I think, however, with the general experience I have had, particularly with newspaper work, it will not take me long to learn the duties of a Councilman; and I can only say that it is my hope that I expect to live up to the expectations that the Council had when they elected me. I will do the best I can.

I want to express my appreciation to the members of Council and the Mayor for the honor they have conferred upon me in selecting me for this position and trust that I get along very well with each and every member of Council and all the officials of the city administration.

Mr. Dalley moved

That Council adjourn.

Which motion prevailed.

And Council adjourned.

Pittsburgh, Pa.

November 29, 1919.

Hon. John S. Herron, President,

Council, City of Pittsburgh,

City-County Building,

Pittsburgh, Pa.

Dear Mr. Herron—I enclose for the information of Council, a copy of the recent decision of the Public Service Commission of this State, in the matter of rates of the Bell Telephone Company, restoring the pre-war rates in accordance with the order of the Commission of April 4, 1917.

If this order stands undisturbed by further Court proceedings, it means that former rates will be restored, at least until April or May, 1920, and that generally speaking, the present rates will be reduced about 20 per cent. and that certain other charges for service connection and for discontinuance of service, will be eliminated.

From data which we have available, this would indicate a reduction of the telephone rates in the Pittsburgh district of not less than seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars ($750,000.00), per annum.

Very truly yours,

CHARLES K. ROBINSON.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION OF THE
COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Application Docket No. 2668—1919

In re: Application of the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania for approval of the right to file a schedule of rates to be effective upon the return of the petitioner's system to it by the United States Government; it being an amendment and modification of an order of the Commission dated April 4, 1917.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION

By the Commission:

The Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania has petitioned this Commission to approve a continuance of the rates established under war time conditions by the Post Master General. These rates were approximately twenty per cent higher than those which this Commission, after extensive hearings and investigation, established upon order in 1917. The order referred to was based upon an investigation of the properties and practices, income and revenues of the entire system now owned and operated by the present applicant. The provision of the Public Service Company Law contemplates a period of three years repose following such orders for utility companies and the public affected by them. This is a wise provision of the Public Service Company Law and ought not lightly be set aside. It is true that under the same provision this Commission is authorized on application of a utility or complaint of a consumer or patron to make changes in its former orders, but under all the circumstances presented in the pending application, and in view of the fact that the three year period referred to will soon expire (April, 1920), the Commission cannot assent to the pending request. The evidence with respect to the financial condition, prospective revenues and anticipated expenditures submitted by the applicant is, in the light of the prevailing circumstances, not sufficient to convince this Commission of the necessity for the increase prayed for, nor of the justness or reasonableness of the proposal to advance the applicant's rates above those which were in effect prior to the period of federal control. So far as the Commission is advised by the testimony, the increased rates established by the Post Master General which are sought to be continued were not predicated upon a consideration of factors which public utility bodies are required to weigh in fixing rates or in determining allowable gross revenue.

Undoubtedly the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania in common with all other public utilities and business enterprises throughout the country has been and still is confronted with increased cost of operation, maintenance and for extensions. Due consideration to such patent facts should and has been given by the Commission in the matter now before it. As the Commission has repeatedly expressed, the public interest demands that the utilities by which the public are served shall be safeguarded by being permitted to secure revenues sufficient to meet reasonable costs of service, provide for proper reserves, and to secure for them fair return. Communities cannot progress, nor obtain efficient service, if these public utility mediums, so requisite in daily business and social life, are denied the right to just and reasonable support.

It does not appear, however, from the facts before the Commission in this case that there would be any substantial denial of just and reasonable revenues to the applicant company, by adhering to our former order for the period of time it has yet to run, in refusing the present application and directing the applicant to return to and again place in effect its schedule of rates which were operative under our order prior to the date upon which the federally imposed rates went into effect in Pennsylvania. The figures submitted by the company as the result of operation during war time conditions are as yet inconclusive in determining the justness or reasonableness of an increase of approximately twenty per cent. The company's testimony projects the estimate of operative increases on an ascending scale into a future period of several years. The Commission would not be warranted in basing a conclusion upon the conjecture that higher costs or operation and service than those which have already been reached will be the experience of this company. To so decide would in a sense foreclose the rights of the rate paying public. If the future shall reveal the necessity for rate re-adjustment and the hypothesis upon which this application is so largely predicated is demonstrated to have become an actuality, prompt relief can be readily secured and will be promptly granted.

Costs of service and production leading to ever increasing burdens upon the consuming public have been expanded, as aptly described "in an alarmingly vicious circle." There must come a point of stabilization at which industrial and economic conditions can be held firm against either dangerous inflation or ruinous contractions. Great public utility corporations coming in contact with the intimate life and interest of the people at countless points, deriving their right to exist from grants of public franchise and depending upon the general public for their prosperous corporate existence, can do more under existing circumstances by efficient and economic management to contribute to stabilizing conditions than can be accomplished by any other single agency it would be possible to emphasize in an enumeration. In the absence of convincing facts which would justify the Commission in granting the application for a continuance of the federally imposed rates beyond December 1, 1919, the date fixed by Congress it is refused and the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania is directed as and of that date to restore its rates which were in effect in Pennsylvania immediately prior to the period of federal control. An order will issue accordingly.

Chairman.

Now, to-wit, November 25, 1919, the petition of the Bell Telephone Company, above referred to, for permission to increase its rates and charges is refused and the said company is hereby ordered and directed, from and after December 1, 1919, to charge and collect for its service within this state the rates prescribed under the terms of the order of the Commission heretofore made in April, 1917, and in effect prior to the period of federal control.

At this time Mr. C. K. Robinson, who was present, arose and said:

Mr. President and Members of Council—In connection with the letter transmitting report of the Public Service Commission in the matter of telephone rates in the State of Pennsylvania, I desire to call your attention to some of the results which have so far been achieved.

The complaint of the City of Pittsburgh was filed early in August of this year, within a few days after the Government had restored the properties of the telephone company to their original owners, and this complaint, so far as I know, was the only complaint filed in the State of Pennsylvania within the statutory period of thirty days; subsequently a complaint was filed by the Chamber of Commerce of the City of Pittsburgh and these complaints were joined and heard together. These were the only complaints filed against the telephone rates in the State of Pennsylvania although the increase had affected the entire State. It happened therefore that the Pittsburgh district was forced to wage a contest in behalf of the entire State without support from any other quarter.

Following the oral argument before the Commission on the 24th of November, a prompt decision was reached by the Public Service Commission on the 26th of November, the effect of which was to restore the pre-war rates of the telephone company, the same being in accordance with a decision of the Commission in April, 1917. This order will remain in effect, in accordance with the Public Service Law, until the expiration of the three year period, which will expire in April or May, and which will, as I recall, affect rates until May 31, 1920.

The total reduction in rates over the entire State will amount to approximately $5,000,000 a year, of which reduction it is estimated at least $1,000,000 will accrue to the telephone users in the Pittsburgh district.

It may be expected that there will be a very vigorous fight on the part of the telephone interests in the spring, preceding the expiration of the three year period, for the restoration of the War increases. We will probably secure in this fight, help from some other parts of the State, but we may anticipate a much more determined fight on the part of the telephone interests to restore these increases.

DEPARTMENT OF ASSESSORS.

Pittsburgh, December 8, 1919.

To the Council,

Pittsburgh, Pa.

Gentlemen—The taxable valuation for land and buildings for the year 1919 is as follows:

Land	$480,131,130.00
Buildings	$325,889,600.00

Our estimate for new buildings for the year 1920 is approximately $9,000,000, but on account of razing of buildings, reductions, corrections and exemptions made during the year, it would not be advisable to count upon more than $7,000,000 increase in the building valuation for the year 1920.

No. 4107.

December 8, 1919.

To the Council of the City of Pittsburgh—

Gentlemen—I transmit herewith the Departmental Estimates for the Budget of 1920 and the Mayor's exhibit accompanying same, as compiled by the Bureau of Costs.

The total of the estimates as presented to you is $17,117,058.50, which is an increase over the 1919 appropriation of $1,018,044.44, or 6.3 per cent.

I wish to call your special attention to the following items in the estimates of the various departments:

DEPARTMENT OF CHARITIES.

The sum of $69,000 is estimated as the amount necessary to not only provide for an increase in the cost of material furnished but also for an improved diet which will raise the standard of food-stuffs and treatment given the inmates of the Mayview City Home.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH.

You will note that the increase in this Department is largely due to the increased cost of food supplies, etc., for the Municipal and Tuberculosis Hospitals and the cost of removing garbage and rubbish for the year, as determined by public bids recently received by the Director of the Department.

Reference is made in the budget to the fact that the estimates does not include a deficit in the appropriation for garbage and rubbish removal for 1919, the correct amount of which will be given you by the Director of the Department.

Your attention is called to the re-organization of the Bureau of Child Welfare. The number of school doctors is changed from 32 at 5 hours per day to 52 at 3 hours per day. It is the intention to have these doctors serve the City the full forenoon of each day, thereby giving 37,920 instead of 30,600 hours' service per year, and in Director Davis' judgment, concurred in by the Mayor, thus render more efficient service to the public. Director Davis prefers to personally spread the details of this program before you.

Your attention is also called to the re-organization of the Bureau of Smoke Regulation, in which a small reduction in cost (without a reduction in results) is recommended.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS.

The estimates for the Bureau of Engineering have been reduced to a figure consistent with the bond issue program proposed for it.

In the estimates for the asphalt plants in the Bureau of Highways and Sewers a sufficient amount has been provided to enable us to work both plants to their fullest capacity. I consider it highly important that we not only improve our streets with bond funds already provided but keep the City-owned asphalt plants going at top speed in their repairing and repaving functions.

The estimates of the Bureau of Water for extensions and additions have been cut to a figure consistent with the funds provided in the Bond Issue for this Bureau.

The estimate for fuel for pumping stations has been placed at the same amount as that appropriated for this year and the Director of the Department of Supplies instructed to secure bids for next year's supply and furnish Council with the actual figures.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SAFETY.

In the estimates of the Bureau of Fire there has been set up $135,700.00 for motorized apparatus. This is in line with the policy adopted last year and should be consistently followed up.

Motorization means a more efficient fire-fighting force and should reduce the expenses of the Department. Fire-fighting appliances become obsolete over night because of the wonderful development being made in improved apparatus, which development all cities should keep up with as fast as consistent.

The Department strongly recommends more Hosemen. I ask Council to seriously consider increasing the number. We now have approximately 100 extra or sub-hosemen, partially trained. These were put in the Department in the place of those in military service, who later returned and displaced them.

Strong recommendations come to the Director of Public Safety and the Mayor from insurance underwriters for more men and new apparatus.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

The sum of $5 000.00 is included in the estimates of the Mayor's Office for "Entertainment of Visiting Delegations and Industrial Representatives of Foreign Countries."

It seems to me that we should make some provision of this nature if Pittsburgh is to make a favorable impression upon visitors of this character.

MORALS COURT.

The estimates for this Court include an additional Police Magistrate, concerning which I have addressed a separate communication to you.

OFFICE OF SUPERVISOR OF CITY STABLES.

It is proposed to substitute this title for that of the "Bureau of Animal Industry" and transfer the position of Superintendent of Horses from the Bureau of Fire to this office.

CITY GARAGE AND REPAIR SHOP.

The estimates for this function as submitted to you are based upon the estimated needs of the Machine Shop as they were set up by the Bureau of Fire and amounts approximating the expenditures of the Division of Motor Vehicles for 1919, together with the City Architects's estimate of the cost of repairs to the buildings.

I have not had time to work out a plan of organization for this new activity and for that reason have transferred the existing positions in each Department to one salary estimate and will later submit a plan to you in conference.

This organization should be a splendid nucleus for a centralized repair shop for all City departments now having work of this nature done under contract. For example, the Bureau of Highways and Sewers spends approximately $20,000 per annum for repairs to wagons, trucks, carts, etc. These should be done in our repair shop at a considerable saving.

PITTSBURGH SUBWAY AND TRANSPORTATION COMMISSION.

I have included in the estimates for 1920 the sum of $22,200.00 for a Pittsburgh Subway and Transportation Commission. Ten thousand dollars for advisory service in connection with the subway is included in this estimate.

I strongly recommend the establishment of a perpetual organization to study, develop and better our transportation conditions. This organization would have charge of the development of the subway and be the head of the City's passenger transportation problem. It would also take over the work of the present Transit Commission. This work is essential and vital when applied to the subway which was ratified and approved by the people of Pittsburgh and which must now claim our attention.

SALARY AND WAGE SCHEDULES.

Your desires are being complied with in applying to the 1920 budget the wage scales we are now paying.

The report of the Committee on Standardization recommends a "high cost of living" advance over present wages. The present rate of wages paid City employees is not high enough, everything considered. I recommend an increase to meet present conditions and desire to confer with Council on this point.

MAYOR'S EXHIBIT ACCOMPANYING ESTIMATES FOR 1920.

Table I is an analysis of general fund receipts from 1914 to 1919 and estimated miscellaneous revenues for 1920, based upon estimates of the various departments.

Included is an estimate of $185,000 for wharf land rentals which should be available.

Also included in the receipts for 1920 are the amounts which are due from the Pittsburgh Railways Company during that year, as well as amounts for 1918 and 1919, which are delinquent and should be collected.

City Treasurer Hubbard advises that the amount which the Board of Public Education pays for the collection of its taxes is insufficient to cover the expenditure made by the City. He estimates that it will cost the City $20,000.00 to make the collections for 1920. Hence this amount is placed in the estimated receipts and the Board of Education advised to that effect.

Tables II, III, IV and V show estimated expenses for 1920 with figures for previous years for comparison.

The Directors and heads of all City functions are ready to sit with you at any time in regard to any item in the budget. The Mayor desires to offer any assistance possible and is willing to confer with you at any and all times. He recommends that evening meetings be held that the work may progress as fast as possible. He also recommends that any hearings desired by Council be held in the daytime and that the evening sessions be confined strictly to direct consideration of budget items, believing that rapid progress can be made in that way.

Very respectfully yours,

E. V. BABCOCK,

Mayor.

The Chair presented

No. 4109. Whereas, The School Board has been notified that an increase in rent will be charged them, which in the judgment of some of the members of the School Board is exorbitant; and

Whereas, There appears to be considerable space in this building that might well be used by the School Board and as it would be desirable to have all city activities, if possible, housed in the municipal building; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Mayor be requested to direct the Superintendent of the Bureau of City Property to communicate with the Secretary of the School Board and see if arrangements cannot be made to care for the School Board in the City-County Building, thereby saving to the taxpayers of Pittsburgh the rent they will have to pay to private property owners.

The Record is incomplete in that it does not contain a report that the committee had ever visited the institution, and in order to keep the records correct, I would move that Mr. English, who acted as the secretary of the committee, be requested to prepare a report of the findings of the committee for presentation to Council; this report, however, to be approved by the committee before its presentation."

Mr. Henderson arose and said:

Mr. President, I don't wish to arise to a point of order in this case, but I want to call to the attention of yourself and the other members of Council the fact that in this bill on Page 2.

"Six Police Magistrates," the amount $3,000.00 has been pasted in instead of being printed; on Page 7, line 12, "Three Assistant City Solicitors," the sum of $3,000.00 is in ink—$3,300.00 underneath scored out by pen; on page 40, line 9, "Nursery Foreman" instead of being printed, has been pasted in; and on page 43, line 3, "Forester" instead of being printed has been pasted in—all of which is in violation of the law that requires the bills to be printed and in the hands of Council at least 48 hours previous to a meeting of Council.

The Chair:

Mr. Henderson, these are typographical errors that have been corrected by the Clerk of Council. It carries out the intention of Council to have a true copy of the bill on the desk of each member. We have suspended the rules, and the bill is before you for final passage. The clerk will read the bill a third time if there are no further remarks.

Mr. Dalley arose and said:

Mr. President, it is my opinion that unanimous consent was given in Finance Committee to pass the bills in their present form.

The Chair:

He is not raising that question. He is calling attention to the fact that the ordinance as amended has not been printed and copy mailed to each member 48 hours previous to the time of the meeting.

Mr. Garland:

Mr. President; it is not a matter of 48 hours. The 48 hour rule has been suspended, but the law requiring all ordinances to be printed is incorporated in the Charter Act. I want it understood that I am going to vote for the budget in its entirety. I simply call your attention to the fact that the law in regard to the printing of the ordinance has not been observed. This is the most important legislation of the year and every precaution should be taken to avoid technical objections being raised later. This ordinance is before us with typewritten additions, ink additions and pasting over additions as the clerk will testify. Now, if there are no objections raised to it hereafter, alright; but I don't think this Council should pass the ordinance in its present form. This matter is not open to argument. I am willing to vote on the budget, but I don't want it to go out of here that we are agreeing to something that is not right or in accordance with the law.

Mr. Winters arose and said:

Mr. President, I don't think it is a question of ignorance of what we are doing, but a question of technicalities in procedures. I think we know what we are doing. It is a technical question. What is your ruling, Mr. President?

The Chair:

The rules were suspended; the bill has been printed and a true copy of it is before you.

Mr. Winters arose and said:

To avoid the question of technicality or any trouble of that kind, I move you that the budget be accepted as printed and the Chair be instructed to present to Council ordinances to carry out the suggestions of the amendments that have been made and agreed to in Finance Committee.

Mr. Henderson arose and said:

I arise to a point of order, Mr. President. The point is, that the rule requiring ordinances to be printed and in the hands of the members of Council 48 hours before they are finally acted on is not a rule that can be suspended by a majority vote of Council; it is a part of the organic law of the City of Pittsburgh set forth in the Charter Act. I believe it is set out in Section 28 or 29 of the Charter Act.

Mr. English arose and said:

Mr. President, in view of the harmony that prevailed among the members during the hearings on the budget, and in the preparation of the budget, and I have no recollection of a single roll call on this budget, and in view of the harmony that prevails among the members now, and particularly in view of the fact that our proceedings were interrupted by two side-stepping investigation parleys and diplomatic conferences with the Mayor, by reason of which we lost six or seven days' time, and particularly in view of the fact that the idea is to get the bills over to the Mayor before noon, I think we had better use our better judgment, knowing what we want, and every member of Council knows what he wants, and every one of us agreed to these amendments, and the technical objection that has been raised this morning is not material to the intent and purpose of the bill. In order to avoid a further comeback in case the Mayor finds a technical objection to the ordinance, although I understood that he was in entire accord and harmony with what we have done, because he was fully informed, and in face of those facts, I don't think we ought to take seriously any objection that has been raised in regard to the 48 hours' printing.

We have a year before us in which to correct any errors that have been made. I know of a few myself. For instance, in the general increase of 15 per cent. granted to employees receiving a salary of $2,000 and less, a number of Assistant Chiefs and an Assistant Superintendent come within a few dollars of the men they superintend. No man in Council wants that condition to exist. They are not material at this time. The big point is to get these bills passed and start the collection of taxes the first of January.

If there is a real technical objection to our procedure today, I would agree with Mr. Winters that if ink insertions are illegal and if anybody has a doubt in regard to them that the Chair bring in separate ordinances to cover these matters. We all understand the corrections that have been made and which were unanimously agreed to in Committee. These corrections have been made by the Clerk to save time. The gentleman who raises the question will appreciate that we wanted to hold the meeting last night, but out of courtesy to him and other members we waived the meeting, and if one good turn deserves another, I think the gentleman should not object to our acting on the bill today in its present form.

Mr. Garland arose and said:

Mr. President, I would like to say that I made the motion to suspend the rules, and I made it in good faith, and I am going to vote for the budget. I wish to say that there might be a question raised at some time as to the printing of the salary ordinance, because the law specifically says that it must be printed, and I want to be recorded as voting for the budget and being in favor of the motion.

The Chair:

The Chair rules that Mr. Henderson's point of order "Is not well taken."

And the bill as read a second time was agreed to.

And the bill was read a third time and agreed to.

And the title of the bill was read and agreed to.

And on the question, "Shall the bill pass finally?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes—Messrs.

Dailey	McArdle
English	Oliver
Garland	Robertson
Henderson	Winters
Herron (President)

Ayes—9.

Noes—None.

And a majority of the votes of Council being in the affirmative, the bill passed finally.

Mr. English arose and said:
Mr. President, I arise to a question of personal privilege.

The Chair:

The Chair recognizes Mr. English:

Mr. English:

Mr. President, I attended the hearing before Alderman Howard James last evening in the case of Mr. Walter J. Lloyd against Dean D. Simpson on the charge of perjury in answer to Simpson's testimony before the Finance Committee of Council, Friday, December 12, that he had permitted Mr. Lloyd to date back a receipt to August 22 which Mr. Simpson said was given him by Mr. Lloyd on Tuesday, December 9, in settlement of a bill for services rendered by the Liberty Loan Band to the Mayor's Welcome Committee for welcoming home-coming soldiers.

Unfortunately, the young man was held for court. As I understand the law the matter will be submitted to the Grand Jury and after hearing the evidence they decide whether or not this young man shall be placed on trial for the crime of perjury. He was held for court despite the fact that the young man's attorney showed to the Alderman that it took two persons to make a charge of perjury and only one person was produced at the hearing last night to show this, and that was Mr. Lloyd.

At the hearing Mr. Lloyd was represented by Attorney E. K. Trent. I don't know whether Mr. Trent was drunk or intoxicated, but I do know that he did not seem to be his normal self. I never drink and for that reason I don't undertake to say that Mr. Trent was drunk, but I do undertake to say that he was not his normal self and as I met him this morning in City Hall. But I do know this, Mr. President, and I hope the newspaper men will make note of it that this receipt which I hold in my hand, dated August 22, 1919, signed by Dean D. Simpson purporting to be a receipt for $14.50 and which was turned in by Mr. Lloyd last week at the time he was being investigated, was a nice clean looking receipt when it was put in the possession of Mr. Martin, our City Clerk.

In the course of this hearing last evening Mr. Trent came in possession of this receipt and he rumbled and crumpled it this way and that way until when it was returned it was creased and torn so badly that it looks as if it were months old.

I want this to go on record so that every man who may be called to serve on the Grand Jury will know that this receipt has been misused by Mr. Trent, the attorney for Mr. Lloyd. Instead of the nice clean receipt of ten days ago it is dirty and used up so that it appears to be quite old now.

We talk about Americanization, and we all pray for our country, at least I do frequently, and I hope every other member of Council does. We pray that God will protect our President and guide us in our public duties so that the people who placed us in these responsible positions will have confidence in us.

I have no animosity against Mr. Lloyd or Mr. Trent or anybody else in this world, but it is my solemn duty to call this to your attention—the manner in which this receipt was handled by Mr. Trent—whether it was done by accident or design the result is the same—this receipt looks like it was considerably aged. I want also to call your attention to the fact that Mr. Lloyd at the hearing stated that he did not know whether he had paid Mr. Simpson or not. He did not remember anything about paying Mr. Simpson, only that he had Mr. Simpson's receipt.

The Mayor's stenographer and our stenographer and clerk took the testimony before the Alderman, and I heard Mr. Lloyd say that he did not know when he paid Mr. Simpson.

Let me say in this connection also, Mr. President, that one of the men, Mr. Saling, has not been paid in spite of the fact that Mr. Lloyd said that he would pay all the unpaid members of the band; and if we are going to have real Americanism this Council at least ought to call these things to the attention of the people of our City, and I sincerely hope that the other members of Council who were present at that hearing will subscribe to what I have said, because they called the attention of the City Clerk to the way in which the receipt was being handled, and I say the attorney for Mr. Lloyd was not normal.

Mr. McArdle arose and said:

Mr. President, I would like to say in line with what Mr. English has said that twice during the procedure of that trial I left my seat to go to the side of City Clerk Martin to warn him that the receipt in the hands of Attorney Trent was a part of the record of a committee of City Council and was in his possession and that I thought he was responsible for it, and that he ought to take the necessary steps to protect it against what I deemed to be its entire destruction at Mr. Trent's hands, because of the handling of the receipt at his hand, to which Mr. English refers.

The Chair:

Mr. Martin, it has been stated here that on two different occasions your attention was called to the manner in which Mr. Trent was handling the receipt of Mr. Simpson given by him to Mr. Lloyd, which is a part of the record of Council. Is that true?

Mr. Martin (City Clerk said:
That is correct, Mr. President.

Mr. Oliver arose and said:

Mr. President, I understand that the Mayor is very anxious to have the members of Council go into his conference room to take up with him a proposition in regard to some city business, and I move that we go into conference with the Mayor.

Which motion prevailed.

Mr. Henderson moved

That Council do now adjourn.

Which motion prevailed.

And Council Adjourned.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

Pittsburgh, Pa.,

December 22, 1919.

To the Honorable, The President and Members of Council of the City of Pittsburgh:

Gentlemen—In reply to request from your Honorable Body under date of December 18, 1919, as follows:

"That the Mayor be asked to indicate to Council in writing not later than 12:00 o'clock, noon, Monday next, what disposition he has made or purposes making in Mr. Lloyd's case as the result of his examination of the Committee on Finance."

Respectfully submit that I have carefully examined the stenographic notes of evidence transmitted to me and after due consideration of the same, beg to state, as to the disposition of Mr.
Lloyd's case, that I find no sufficient grounds upon which to justify his removal or suspension from the office of Police Magistrate.

Further: Beg to advise that I have reviewed a stenographic report of the hearing held before Alderman Howard James, before whom information for perjury against Dean Simpson was made, arising out of his testimony taken before your Committee, at which hearing he was held on said charge for trial in Court.

Very respectfully yours,

transmitting sundry ordinances and resolutions to Council.

dation, entitled, "An Ordinance to effect and establish daylight saving in the City of Pittsburgh during the months of May,

June, July, August and September of each and every year, and requiring all clocks and timepieces within the limits of the City to be advanced one (1) hour at two o'clock ante Meridian from the last Sunday in April of each year, and to be so kept advanced until two o'clock ante Meridian of the last Sunday in September, when they are to be retarded, or turned back, one (1) hour, and fixing standard time for the City of Pittsburgh."

Which was read.

Mr. Garland moved

A suspension of the rule to allow the second and third readings and final passage of the bill.

Which motion prevailed.

And the bill was read a second time.

Mr. Garland arose and said:

Mr. President, I would like to say that one of our colleagues, Mr. Oliver, at the Finance Committee held last Friday asked if the New York Stock Exchange would follow the new law. I am in receipt of a letter from the Publicity Director of the New York Daylight Saving Association in which he says that the New York Stock Exchange would be regulated according to the new standard time fixed by law in New York City.

I also have a telegram today from
Wm. J. Carver, Publicity Director of the New York Daylight Saving Association, in which he says:

"Daylight Saving Law great advantage to Stock Exchange, allowing for natural difference in time. It brings them closer to European Exchanges.
Banks plan to be regulated by new time as do railroads. Advise vote."

I have another telegram from George
M. Woolsey, President of the Association of Stock Exchange firms of New York City, in which he says,

"Associations of Stock Exchange firms has gone on record for daylight saving.
Daylight Saving Law having been legally adopted here stock exchange firms will be regulated accordingly."

After I received these telegrams I spoke to Mr. John B. Barbour, President of the Pittsburgh Stock Exchange and I asked him if they would not like to be in touch and harmony with New York, and he said he would.

Mr. Winters arose and said:

Mr. President, on this bill, file No. 2108, bill No. 3343, which is the bill that Mr. Garland has just been speaking about, I want to say that when the bill was passed in Committee the other day I was not present. I know Mr. Garland has been largely instrumental in the passage of that Act and there is a great deal to approve in it, but on the other hand there is good reason to dissent from its approval, and for that reason I am going to vote against the bill. It is all a matter of judgment.

Mr. President, I believe the passage of this Daylight Saving Ordinance and similar action taken in various other cities will cause embarrassment and confusion in the industrial and business world.

It seems not improbable that a number of important centers of population and business will soon be moving and having their being an hour in advance of the rest of the world.

There is much to approve in the daylight saving plan, but I doubt and oppose the advisability of separate action. It will be intolerable, I should say, to have it one o'clock in Harrisburg or McKeesport and 12:00 o'clock in Pittsburgh, or 12:00 o'clock in New York and one o'clock in Albany.

It should also be remembered that there are certain very important considerations of time, which are not and cannot be purely local. For legal purposes in courts, banks, railroads, post offices, government business in general, they must begin and end at a certain hour, and that hour must be uniform throughout the State if not the Nation.

Uniformity of time is indeed similarly essential to uniformity of money, weights and measures.

The Daylight Saving Law was passed by the Congress of the United States as the result of agitation and sufficient sentiment aroused in different states to provide for an additional hour of daylight so that tired people of the business and industrial world might have use of same for entertainment, amusement and recreation. Those in favor of these things enjoyed them in this way for two years in a legal, proper way because it was the Law.

Some few months ago an agitation and sentiment sprang up against this law and became so powerful that the law was repealed after having twice been vetoed by the President of the United States. Thus the thing that was legal became illegal by the action of the same body that had made it legal. And having enjoyed its provisions as legal I believe that we should now relinquish them and bow to the law.

I am sure, now that Congress has passed a Prohibition Law affecting the liquor traffic, which repealed the existing law, in the United States, that the Council of the City of Pittsburgh would not think it proper or legal to pass a city ordinance legalizing same in the City of Pittsburgh. Or that an ordinance vetoed by the Mayor and passed by this body over his veto should be declared illegal in one of the wards of the city.

I am not discussing, Mr. President, the merits or demerits of the Daylight Saving Law, but trying to impress in these days of the Bolsheviks, I. W. W.'s and similar organizations and sentiment when we are teaching and demanding respect for law and order that we will be in a sense Bolsheviks ourselves if we vote to set aside and act independent of the law made by the highest law-making body in our land, the Congress of the United States.

And being a firm believer in law and order I am going to vote against this ordinance.

Mr. Garland arose and said:

Mr. President, I am glad that those remarks have been made. They have been made in Philadelphia and New York when those cities had under consideration similar legislation. Philadelphia and New York have adopted daylight saving ordinances and Congressman Dallinger of Massachusetts has introduced a bill in Congress to establish Daylight Saving in the First Zone of which Pittsburgh will be a part. If this legislation is passed by Congress it will establish a fixed time for all the Eastern or Atlantic Seaboard States of the country.

A great many cities in Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut have passed daylight saving ordinances, and we have until May 1 to put this ordinance into law. These ordinances are now being generally introduced in the different cities of the East. Cleveland for many years past has been changing her clocks year after year. Cincinnati a few months ago put it through for the whole year.

When my colleague speaks of McKeesport and Harrisburg, I want to say that Harrisburg and McKeesport will follow Pittsburgh in enacting into law daylight saving ordinances. Uniontown, Connellsville, Oil City, Franklin and other cities of Pennsylvania are expected to follow Pittsburgh.

It would be difficult to transact stock exchange business in Pittsburgh if we did not adopt our business to the new standard time fixed by the city of New York.

This matter is not a matter of Bolshevism or Americanism. The farmers of the great West through politics defeated the bill against the wishes of the President, and this is one place I will say where the President was right. There are no farmers in the eastern section of the country.

The plan is exceedingly popular in Pittsburgh. It has the endorsement of the Chamber of Commerce, the Carnegie Institute of Technology, the University of Pittsburgh, the Association of Baseball Club of Pittsburgh, the tennis clubs, the banks and the great mercantile institutions for the passage of this ordinance—over 30,000 in favor of it to about 1,000 opposed to it. We are doing something that is popular with the people of Pittsburgh. It will be a humanitarian service to the many shop girls who work to six by the clock and under this Bill will be leaving at five o'clock by the sun thus affording them extra time for enjoyment or recreation purposes.

It is all right for the people at large, tends to better their physical condition and will allow them more time for enjoyment and recreation.

I am glad to say a few words on this bill in the presence of the boys and girls of the Beltzhoover School, now present with us at this session of Council. When the matter was up for hearing in the Finance Committee the Principal of the Beltzhoover School appeared before the committee and expressed his approval of the ordinance. It is something that nine out of every ten people approve of and want, and by taking favorable action we will be blazing the way for Congressional action for the First Zone, as Congressman Dallinger of Massachusetts has now a Bill in Congress covering the subject.

Mr. Winters arose and said:

Mr. President, I just want to add in conclusion that I don't want it understood that I dissent from the merit of the proposition. I agree with Mr. Garland on many things that he said. If I were in Congress I probably would vote for the bill, but I take my position from the fact that the Congress having made the law and later repealed it we should abide by the law of the land until such time as enough pressure is brought upon Congress to re-enact it into a law. I will say that because it is popular is not a good reason why it should be enacted into law. A thing popular today may be unpopular tomorrow and may lead to things that we don't think of at the time we pass them. It is safest, wisest and best to follow the law even though it might not be popular at the time you are doing it.

And the bill, as read a second time, was agreed to.

MOTIONS AND RESOLUTIONS.

The Chair presented

No. 4198.

CITY OF PITTSBURGH, PA.

December 31, 1919.

To the Council of the City of Pittsburgh:

Gentlemen—I notice in the morning papers that the President of Council commented on the vetoing of certain ordinances which were sent to Council yesterday, the 30th.

May I ask that communications sent to "The President and Members of Council" be not opened by the President or any other member of Council and commented on to the public through the newspapers or any other method until the same have been submitted to Council.

Beg to state that these communications are addressed to "The President and Members of Council" and not to any one member of it. I consider it unfair for any one member of Council to open and use publicly the document until members of Council have seen it in session, unfair to the other members of Council as well as the Mayor.

Very respectfully yours,

E. V. BABCOCK,

Mayor.

Which was read.

The Chair:

Gentlemen, I want to state that the members of Council knew we had a budget measure that we were expecting from His Honor, the Mayor, and it was necessary to call several special meetings of council. When the envelope was received at the City Clerk's Office from the Mayor, I nor the City Clerk knew what it contained—whether it was the salary ordinance with his approval signed to it or whether it was accompanied by a veto message. Therefore, it was necessary to open the envelope to ascertain what it contained.

The Mayor is laboring under a misapprehension when he attempts to say that the Council can do no business except when it is in session. It is necessary to give all communications from the Mayor prompt attention, and immediately after the delivery of the Mayor's veto message on the salary ordinance to the City Clerk's office it was handed to me and opened. This was done in the presence, I believe, of five members of Council, and they were informed of the action taken by the Mayor. The representatives of the press were also present, and there being no objection raised by the members of Council present, I thought it was proper to inform the newspaper representatives of the contents of the Mayor's veto message. I believed then, and have always believed that communications addressed to the President and Members of Council should be opened as soon as delivered to the City Clerk's office.

I want to call Council's attention to the fact that only a short time ago when Council had up the subject of the election of a successor to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Enoch Rauh, the Mayor saw fit to publicly announce the fact that he had selected a man to fill this position without even consulting the members of Council.

Are there any other remarks? (After a pause). If there are no further remarks the communication from the Mayor will be received and filed, and a motion to that effect will be in order.

Mr. Robertson moved

That the communication be received and filed.

Which motion prevailed.

Also

No. 4199.

Pittsburgh, December 30, 1919.

President and Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh:

Gentlemen—I herewith return, without my approval, Bill No. 4105, an ordinance fixing the number of officers and employees of all departments of the City of Pittsburgh, and the rate of compensation thereof for the year 1920, generally known as the Salary Ordinance.

The reasons therefor are:

Objection No. 1. Page 2.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

The position of Mayor's Secretary is eliminated.

This omission is plainly not in the nature of a decision that the position is not necessary, but is intended to compel the Mayor to dispense with the services of the present Secretary.

This is merely an indirect way of Council's exercising a power which it does not possess. It is, to say the least, a very extraordinary proceeding on the part of the legislative branch of the City Government and has no precedent. I desire to enter a firm protest against this course of action.

MAYOR'S OFFICE.

In the Bill before me the salary provided for Six Police Magistrates is apparently fixed at $2,500.00 each per annum by scratching out the original entry of $3,000.00 and substituting "2500" in pencil figures.

Certain members of Council have advised me that Council authorized a salary of $3,000.00, and the printed copy of the Bill which I received contains the figure of $3,000.00.

Objection No. 3. Page 3.

MAYOR'S OFFICE—MUNICIPAL GARAGE AND REPAIR SHOP.

The item "Chauffeur Mechanic, $1,692.00 per annum" should read "Four Chauffeur Mechanics $1,692.00 each per annum."

Objection No. 4. Page 7.

DEPARTMENT OF COLLECTOR OF DELINQUENT TAXES.

Item "Six Clerks $1,968.00 per annum" has an interlineation of "each" in ink.

Objection No. 5. Page 17.

Item "Chauffeur" is written in in ink and scratched out and put in in type-writing in a way that is very confusing.

Objection No. 6. Page 17.

Item "Field Inspector $1,692.00 per annum" is added in ink.

Objection No. 20. Page 55.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC WORKS—SUMMER PLAYGROUNDS.

Item consisting of four lines made up in the shape of a fly-leaf and pasted into the Bill.

This Bill is greatly mutilated and shows serious alterations in both pencil and ink, naturally leaving great doubt as to when these changes were made and whether they were made with the approval of the legislative body.

Approving a Bill of this kind, would to say the least, establish a very questionable precedent.

Very respectfully yours,

E. V. BABCOCK,

Mayor.

Which was read.

Mr. Dailey moved

That the communication be received and filed.

Which motion prevailed.

Also

Bill No. 4105. An ordinance entitled, "An Ordinance fixing the number of officers and employees of all departments of the City of Pittsburgh, and the rate of compensation thereof."

In Council, December 2, 1919, committee amendment agreed to. Rule suspended, bill read three times and finally passed.

Was read.

And on the question, "Shall the bill become a law notwithstanding the objections of the Mayor?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes—Messrs.

Dailey	Oliver
Garland	Robertson
Herron (President)	Winters
McArdle

Mr. English not voting).

Noes—Mr. Henderson.

When the name of Mr. Garland was called, he arose and said:

Mr. President, I wish my reasons for voting not to sustain the objections of the Mayor to be put on the record. We must all agree that it was a sloppy bill. At the same time I am not going to disturb the harmony that has existed in Council on this matter, nor do I want to prevent the city employees from receiving their salary in the regular way. The Bill was gotten through in unholy haste, and let us hope that it will never occur again.

When the name of Mr. Henderson was called, he arose and said:

Mr. President, I vote no for the reason that the Bill as presented to the Mayor and as has been shown by his action, is a direct violation of the Act of 1874 which provides that all Bills must be printed and in the hands of the members of Council 48 hours before a meeting of Council. This was not done on this bill.

Ayes—7.

Noes—1.

And there being two thirds of the votes of Council in the affirmative, the bill became a law notwithstanding the objections of the Mayor.

Also

No. 4200.

Pittsburgh, December 30, 1919.

To the Honorable, the President and Members of Council of the City of Pittsburgh:

Gentlemen—I return herewith Bill No. 4168. Resolution setting aside $2,500.00 from Appropriation No. 1013-M, Council's Investigation Fund, for purpose of defraying expenses that may be incurred in protecting the interests of Dean D. Simpson in case instituted by Walter J. Lloyd, without my approval for the following reasons:

First: This is a misappropriation of public funds for a private purpose. The language of the resolution is "setting aside $2,500.00 for purpose of defraying expenses that may be incurred in protecting the interests of Dean D. Simpson in case instituted by Walter J. Lloyd." As the case referred to is a charge of perjury, the only expenses which could be incurred, presumably, would be in the employment of counsel to defend Simpson in his trial and the payment of an attorney's fee in this connection. The fact that the charge made against Simpson arises out of evidence delivered by him before a Committee of Council does not make it the less a private case, and I assume that you know that municipal funds cannot be legally appropriated to the defense of private interests or rights. If the employment were for a legal purpose, it could not be accomplished in this way, for the Charter Act provides:

"No department of the City shall employ any other Solicitor, but assistant counsel may be employed upon any particular matter or cause by the City Recorder, with the consent of Council, but he shall be selected by the City Solicitor."

Second: If the employment were legitimate and the services to be rendered for the City, the sum appropriated is grossly extravagant, for competent counsel could be employed to defend a case like this for, at most, a third of this sum.

Third: If the members of Council who voted for this Resolution are so distrustful of the administration of justice in Allegheny county as to suppose that a man can be persecuted, instead of prosecuted, on a charge of this kind, and believe that extraordinary means ures must be taken to secure justice, they should provide the money in some other way, and not take the taxpayer's money for such a purpose.

Very respectfully yours,

R. V. BARCOCK,

Mayor.

Which was read.

Mr. Garland moved

That the communication be received and filed.

Which motion prevailed.

And

Bill No. 4168. Resolution setting aside the sum of $2,500.00 from Appropriation No. 1013-M, Council's Investigation Fund, for the purpose of defraying any expenses that may be incurred in protecting the interests of Dean D. Simpson in a case instituted by Walter J. Lloyd involving the charge of perjury against said Simpson, and authorizing and directing the President of Council to take such steps as he may deem necessary and expedient for the preparation and presentation of any defense that may be necessary and to incur such expense as he may deem necessary and present vouchers for same to the Finance committee, which vouchers shall be payable from the amount herein provided on approval by the Finance Committee.

In Council December 22, 1919. Rule suspended, read three times and finally passed.

Was read.

And on the question, "Shall the resolution become a law notwithstanding the objections of the Mayor?"

Mr. English arose and said:

Mr. President, it seems to me that the Mayor is putting the cart before the horse. I think he makes a mistake in vetoing this Bill. In his veto message he says that it is illegal for the Council to appropriate the $2,500.00 for the purpose of defending this young man in the matter of the charge of perjury brought against him by Walter J. Lloyd growing out of testimony given by the young man before the Finance Committee of Council.

Personally, I would be in favor of spending $25,000.00 to see that justice was done Mr. Simpson, and that he was not persecuted.

I understand that some of the members of the Liberty Loan Band about which this trouble all started have not yet received the money due them from the amount of $1,125.00 paid by the City to Walter J. Lloyd with which to pay the members of the Liberty Loan Band who played in engagements arranged for by the Mayor's Welcome Committee.

I think a gross fraud has been practiced on the City Treasury in this matter. It is, therefore, a matter of public business and it is our duty to see that the money is paid to the rightful parties.

Speaking on the matter of Council employing outside legal assistance, we have a precedent for that, but I must confess that the Mayor has the last say. The law provides that the Departments may, with the consent of the Council employ legal assistance, but the person or persons selected must be approved by the City Solicitor. The Mayor in his veto has seen fit to deny the Council the right to employ this help to see that witnesses who appear before Council are protected in their rights. In this regard I believe he has overstepped his authority.

As a member of Council I don't believe it would be advisable to ask the City Solicitor to assign one of his Assistant City Solicitors to represent Mr. Simpson in the case brought against him by Mr. Lloyd, because it is not practical. This Assistant City Solicitor would have to follow the advice of the City Solicitor, and he being an appointee of the Mayor would naturally take orders from him. Therefore, it is necessary for us to seek outside legal advice and assistance.

In this connection I wish to call the attention of Council to the matter of the appropriation made to the Mayor's Welcome Committee. You or I, at least I, don't know where and to whom the $44,000 was spent; nor do we know where the $600.00 was expended when the King of Belgium recently visited Pittsburgh. We don't know whether it was spent on the King or on pleasure for friends of city officials.

What I think would be the proper thing to do under the circumstances in this case would be to confer with the Mayor and the City Solicitor and maybe we could come to some agreement with them, and if not, then action could be taken on the veto. The Mayor can sprag the matter very easily by telling the City Solicitor that he did not want the man we have selected.

I am very much interested in this matter, because I think justice has been obstructed when the man was held for the Grand Jury with only one witness against him. We must face this situation squarely and we might as well do it right. I propose to start it all over again in the new Council. The consideration and preparation of the budget held it back. My personal opinion is that we should pass this resolution if we cannot come to some agreement with the Mayor and the City Solicitor.

whether we spend one cent of it or not. We must show this community that we stand for justice and decency. I am willing to face the taxpayers on the matter of spending $2,500.00 in a public scandal the same as spending any other portion of the money collected from the tax levy for a worthy purpose. We must work for the good of this community and we have served notice that people who don't act fairly with public money must get out of the city service.

Mr. Garland arose and said:

Mr. President, without going from Genesis to Revelations, I am going to vote to sustain the objections of the Mayor. If any member of Council votes to make this bill a law he knowingly violates his oath of office. The previous speaker may talk from the top of the mountain about it, but he knows that we have no case. It is absolutely illegal. Should the Council pass this bill notwithstanding the objections of the Mayor, the Controller will not pay it, and the Mayor will not countersign any warrants drawn on this fund.

Mr. English arose and said:

Mr. President, where does Mr. Garland get the authority to speak for the controller? I will make the statement flatly contradicting Mr. Garland, for I know that the City Controller said that he would pay the full amount or any part of the $2,500.00 set aside for the purpose outlined in the resolution. Mr. Garland was opposed to the proposition from the beginning, and I am not surprised at his action today. We have law for it and no member is violating his oath of office by voting for the resolution. In the Charter Act other legal help may be employed if Council consents. By passing this resolution Council is giving its consent. The fact that the City Solicitor is charged with selecting the help does not change it one particle. This has been done at times past, and for example, I might recite the case of the Civil Service Commission against the Council a few years ago. At that time the Council employed Attorney George R. Wallace after his selection was approved by the City Solicitor, who is now the present City Solicitor. In the matter of the public utilities litigation Council employed its own counsel and under his supervision the litigation against the Pittsburgh Railways Company and its associated companies was begun. Under the welfare clause of the Charter Act when we are looking out for the welfare of the community we are given the power to employ attorneys to protect the interests of the taxpayers of the city. This is a case where we must protect witnesses who appear before Council on matters under investigation by the body.

If we don't protect our witnesses we are going to be in contempt some of these days, as some members of Council ought to be, and as some of them are now, in fact.

Mr. Winters arose and said:

Mr. President, I am going to vote for the bill without regard to its legality. I want to take issue with Mr. Garland when he says that we knew at the time the Bill was passed that it was illegal. We did not know any such thing. When the matter was up in Committee I called attention to the fact that I would support it so that it might be submitted to the Mayor for his approval or disapproval. The Mayor has returned it to Council with his disapproval. There is no question of the legality or illegality of the law concerned in it. The law plainly states that if the Mayor and Council can agree it can be done, and I took that position until we would find out what the Mayor's stand would be in the matter. We took the first step and we now know what the Mayor thinks of it, because he has expressed his opinion in writing. It was, therefore, legal, and we did not know what disposition would be made of it until the second step had been taken under the law.

There may be some loop hole and I am not concerned about it, but the thing for us to do is to pass the bill notwithstanding the objections of the Mayor and a test will show whether it is legal or not. It would only be doing the thing that we have done time and time again.

I take the position in voting that way for its moral effect and we would be standing up for the integrity and honor of the Council, and if the members of Council don't stand up for their own honor and integrity and dignity, we cannot expect others to stand up for it.

This matter came before Council in an orderly way after the introduction of a resolution by one of its members. Introduced in the same manner as other bills are introduced; much attention was paid to the resolution at the time, and no question was raised as to its legality, and the only question that was raised was whether the man involved should be given a hearing before action was taken, and we finally agreed that he should be given a hearing, which was fair and logical, and after that hearing I offered a motion that it was the sense of the Finance Committee that the introduction of the resolution was warranted and that the author of the resolution was vindicated from any improper motive and was justified in presenting it. The records will show that the nine members of Council voted for that motion, so we are square on that.

In connection with the matter we bring in a young man whose veracity was questioned after he had appeared and gave his testimony on a summons issued from this Council, and after he was through a member of Council offered the motion that we would support him and see that he was not unduly harmed and troubled and that he would not be put to any unnecessary expense as a result of his answering a summons from this Council and coming in and recognizing the powers of the Council. The majority of Council agreed that this should be done, I among the rest.

I trust that we will give to this young man the protection that he deserves, to the fullest extent of our ability and power, and if there is any member of Council who will not do that, and I will say one or two members did not agree with that motion, and as far as that point is concerned they can still maintain that. I maintain the position I took; that is, to protect this young man and will even go to the extent of contributing from my own pocket to help defray the expense of his defense.

Mr. McArdle arose and said:

Mr. President, I would like to say this, that I agree with the proposition that there is no legal question involved. Whatever may be attempted to work out later might be properly construed as a part of its fulfillment, but I want to say that I have no more hesitancy to vote in support of this bill, notwithstanding the Mayor's objections, than I had to vote upon two different occasions to give outside support to the Department of Public Safety to do work that was purely the function for which the department, in a large measure, had been established and maintained. And it seems to me that if the Mayor wanted to raise a question about the expenditure of public money in any extraordinary way he should have raised it with the Director of the Department of Public Safety and asked him to use his 45 or 50 detectives instead of having to go out and hire the services of a private detective agency to do the work which the city's own Safety Department should have done. If precedent is all that is being sought, it seems to me that the Department of Public Safety within a very few months has furnished two splendid examples.

And the question recurring, "Shall the resolution become a law notwithstanding the objections of the Mayor?"

The ayes and noes were taken agreeably to law, and were:

Ayes—Messrs.

Dailey McArdle
English Winters
Herron (President),

Noes—Messrs.

Garland
Henderson

Oliver
Robertson

Ayes—5.

Noes—4.

And there not being two-thirds of the votes of Council in the affirmative, the objections of the Mayor were sustained, and the resolution failed to become a law.

Mr. Winters arose and said:

Mr. President, I just want to say at this time that some other action will have to be taken by the members of Council who voted when the young man was informed that the members of Council (I believe seven members voted for it) that they would extend to him the fullest protection to necessarily protect his interests. I for one don't propose to stultify myself and I think it is up to every other member who voted for the motion to carry out that program.

Mr. Garland arose and said:

Mr. President, I think Mr. Winters is mistaken when he says that a motion was adopted in the Finance Committee that Council would assist this young man in any proceedings that would be instituted against him by reason of the testimony he gave before that committee. It was the chairman of the committee who made the statement to the young man that Council would stand back of him, and I believe he only expressed that sentiment for himself. No motion of that kind was offered and adopted. This Council sitting as Finance Committee never said that it would pay this bill by motion. The Chairman made the statement, I believe; and I am not blaming him for making such a statement.

Mr. President, I don't think you will find in the records of any of those meetings that a motion was made to pay the expense of any lawsuit brought against this young man.

The Chair:

Perhaps I erred in telling the young man that we would stand back of him, and if there had been any objections to that statement they should have been made at that time.

I sympathize with what Mr. Winters said that we will stand by the boy and see that he is not unduly harmed.

Mr. English moved

That all of the statements made before the Finance Committee in connection with the Walter J. Lloyd matter, as well as the testimony taken before Alderman Howard James, be printed in the record of this meeting.

Mr. Oliver arose and said:

Mr. President, if it is permissible to speak without adhering directly to Mr.

English's motion, I would like to say that I heartily agree with what Mr. Winters said in regard to the support to be given this young man. If there was a vote taken in committee to support this young man, I voted for it. I think he should be supported. I am, however, forced to the conclusion that the Mayor's statement is correct and that this is not the proper way to sustain the support pledged to this young man. I will very gladly vote to support a motion if some means are devised whereby city money can be used properly for his support; and if not, I will be glad to be one to give him financial support as a purely private personal proposition.

Mr. Garland arose and said:

Mr. President, I am opposed to the motion because any member who desires a copy of the testimony can get it from the City Clerk. I think we are going a little too far by printing these statements. I don't think the city should be put to the expense of printing them in the Council record.

Mr. English arose and said:

Mr. President, I made that motion so that we will have a record in Council of what took place in the Finance Committee regarding the Walter J. Lloyd controversy. I appreciate that this is only the beginning.

In this connection, I want to call your attention to the fact that the hearing granted Mr. Lloyd was at Mr. Garland's request, and I maintain that Council has not properly investigated this matter.

I am asking that this testimony be printed in the Council record so that it may be readily referred to, and am also asking that this be done particularly for posterity.

The matter of the expense of printing these statements and the testimony in the record is ridiculous. The treasury of the city is at stake. It is our duty when the city pays out warrants to see that the money goes to the rightful parties. Mr. Lloyd under oath could not account for the disbursement of $1,125.00 and how he arrived at that figure. He further testified under oath that he did not know whether he paid Simpson. Simpson testified before Council that he was paid on Tuesday evening, December 9, 1919, at Mr. Lloyd's office, and for making that statement Mr. Lloyd brought a charge of perjury against him. A hearing was held in the case before Alderman Howard James and Simpson was held to await the action of the Grand Jury when it was shown that only one witness appeared and testified against him, and that was Mr. Lloyd.

This is 1920. Let us start it clean.

Mr. Garland arose and said:

Mr. President, I would suggest that the gentleman present a resolution to Council in the regular way to cover the expense of printing this testimony. Such a resolution would necessarily have to go to the Finance Committee for consideration, because it would provide for the spending of city money.

The Chair:

Our record is our own record and it is up to Council to say what it wants to do with it. All in favor of the motion give their consent by saying Aye; those opposed No.

And the question recurring on the motion that all of the statements made before the Finance Committee in connection with the Walter J. Lloyd matter, as well as the testimony taken before Alderman Howard James, be printed in the record of this meeting, Mr. English demanded a call of the ayes and noes, and the demand having been sustained, the ayes and noes were taken, and being taken were:

Ayes—Messrs.

Dailey	Oliver
English	Robertson
Herron (President)	Winters
McArdle

Noes—Messrs.

Garland	Henderson
Ayes—7.
Noes—2.

And a majority of the votes being in the affirmative, the motion prevailed.

No. 4201.

Pittsburgh, Pa.,
December 31, 1919.

Hon. John S. Herron,

President of City Council,
Pittsburgh, Pa.

Dear Sir—I am a resident of 1309 Arch street, North Side, Pittsburgh, Pa., and during the past month or two my refrigerator as well as those of my tenants have been robbed on three different occasions by a number of small boys.

I complained to the North Side Police Station and an officer was sent to interview me at my residence. The officer came and after a short interview with him he suggested that I get in touch with Mr. Walter J. Lloyd, Police Magistrate at No. 1 Police Station. This I did, but my interview with the Magistrate was of no avail. After reciting my complaint to him he smiled in a reminiscent mood as though he was going over the preliminary training that gave him his position as police magistrate and said, "Boys will be boys, you know." "I would not consider prosecuting boys for just boyish pranks." He further said, "I will go down to Harrisburg and have a law made to suit you people," and I said "No, permit us to go over to the City-County Building and suggest to the Mayor that he appoint a man who is qualified to fill the position of a Police Magistrate."

I desire to protest against the treatment I received at the hands of this Police Magistrate. I am a taxpayer of this City and believe I should have been received by this city employee in a courteous, rather than a discourteous, manner.

After making the complaint to the Police Magistrate the boys came back on two different occasions and stole things from my refrigerator. Hoping that Council will take some action to see that taxpayers in Pittsburgh are protected, I am

Yours very truly,

MRS. CLARIBEL CARLIN FLENNER.

Which was read, and on motion of Mr. Garland, received and filed, and a copy ordered sent to the Mayor.

The Chair:

I am in receipt of a communication from the Mayor addressed to the President and members of Council in which he objects to the procedure that has taken place here for more than 20 years. It is a peculiar situation and we have had two examples of it today on bills that have been vetoed by the Mayor.

It has always been the custom for the President of Council not to sign resolutions and ordinances until after they become a law. This precedent has been carried out by my predecessors, and the President of Council does not sign a paper until final action has been taken by the Mayor. The clerk will please read the communication for the benefit of Council. As this Council is passing out today, I think the matter should be referred to the Law Department for its study and advise the Council after its re-organization on next Monday.

No. 4202.

Pittsburgh, January 2, 1920.

To the Honorable, the President and Members of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh:

Gentlemen—I desire to call to your attention the irregularity in the present method of transmitting ordinance to me without the signature of the President of Council thereon. In this connection, I refer to the Act of March 19, 1872, P. L. 437, Section 2 which provides:

"Hereafter when any ordinance shall have been duly passed by Councils, it shall be signed by the President for the time being of each Council and attested by the clerks, etc."

This Act as to signature of the President is still in force, and consequently, an ordinance certified to me by the City Clerk, which does not show the signature by the President of Council, is incomplete and not ready for my action.

The procedure heretofore has been to send the ordinances to me merely with the signature of the Clerk of Council. I recommend that the practice hereafter be in strict accordance with the law.

Yours respectfully,

E. V. BABCOCK.

Mayor.

Which was read.

The Clerk at this time read Section 10 of the Charter Act, as follows:

"Section 10. Every legislative Act of the Council shall be by resolution or ordinance, and every ordinance or resolution, except as hereafter provided, shall, before it takes effect, be presented, duly engrossed and certified, to the Mayor, for his approval. The Mayor shall sign the said resolution or ordinance within ten days, if he approves it; but if he shall not approve it, he shall, within said time return it, with his objection, to Council, which shall, at its next meeting, after said return, consider it. If, upon reconsideration, council shall pass the ordinance or resolution over the veto of the Mayor, by a two-thirds vote of all the members thereof, it shall be a binding ordinance or resolution of the city. It shall become effective should the Mayor fail to sign the said ordinance or resolution, or return the same to Council, with his reasons for disapproving the same, within ten days from the time said ordinance or resolution has been delivered to him by the City Clerk. The Mayor may disapprove any item or items (or part, or parts, of the same) of any bill making appropriations and the part or parts of the bill approved shall be the law; and the part or parts disapproved shall be void, unless re-passed according to the rules and limitations prescribed above for the passage of resolutions and ordinances over the Mayor's veto."

Mr. Winters moved

That, as there seemed to be a conflict of opinion in regard to the matter, the communication be received and filed, and the City Solicitor be requested to interpret Section 10 of the Charter Act so that his opinion will be available for the next Council which convenes on Monday, January 5, 1920.

Which motion prevailed.

The Chair:

Gentlemen, as this is unfortunately the last meeting to be graced by the presence of Mr. McArdle, I think perhaps he might want to say a word or two.

Mr. McArdle arose and said:

Mr. President, I certainly had no wish to say anything, but since you have been gracious enough to call upon me, I will satisfy myself and the members by merely expressing, what I am sure all of you know, my regret at the arrival of the time when I shall no longer be a member of this Council.

I have served four years, during which time most of the present members have been members of the body with me, and for a goodly time with every member who came in at a later date. I can say during that time my association with the members has been of an exceedingly pleasant and friendly nature. When I say pleasant, I don't mean to imply, and I hope will not be taken as implying, that that pleasure has been the result of always complete agreement on my part with the views of the other members or the other members with mine. It is because that isn't so that the thing has even a larger measure of pleasure in its performance, because I am quite sure that membership in any legislative body that carried unanimity of opinion on the various subjects brought forward and discussed would grow exceedingly monotonous. And because membership and service in City Council is not monotonous I have grown to like it very well.

I have no word of regret for anything that I have contributed to the doing of City Council, except in some small way, perhaps, where I have been convinced that I would have been nearer right had I followed some other course; but I have always tried to do the things as near the way my conscience told me was right as I possibly could, and I have always been willing to concede that the same motives have actuated the other members and I leave, therefore, with quite a great deal of satisfaction because of the relation that I have held with the other members of this body.

I trust that the body will be in its relation to each individual member as pleasing a place to work in as it has been in the past.

I have always tried to appreciate the extreme, or what I regard, the extreme responsibility that rests upon a member of this body and therefore the extreme responsibility that rests upon the body itself, and I have always been glad whenever the Council insisted upon having all others regarded the important part that Council has been allowed to play in the affairs of the City, and I am pleased to be able to say at the close of my official connection that the Council has always seen fit, and properly so, to place limitations upon itself within the proper lines upon its own responsibilities and upon its rights and to place upon the other branch of government its own responsibilities and to recognize its rights.

I hope the relation that exists between the membership of the Council within the next two years will be of the same benefit as the past four years that I have been a member of it, and whoever may serve to the end of the next four years will be able to say with as much truth that after those years of service they have been years of pleasure in his relationship to his colleagues.

I hope that in the term that is about to begin your relation to each other will be as pleasant as mine have been to all of you. I want to say one word further, and that is a word of appreciation of the many, many acts of kindness and helpful opinions that have been rendered to me by all the men who have been associated with Council in the City Clerk's office and to assure them that my relation with them has carried the same degree of pleasure that my association with you gentleman has, and the best that the world can give you all is the worst that I can wish for you.

The Chair:

Mr. McArdle, I am sure you carry with you the best wishes of Council, and hope that you will prosper in future years.

And on motion of Mr. Henderson, Council adjourned.

Addenda: In accordance with the motion as offered by Mr. English and adopted at the meeting of Council, held this day, "That the statements made before the Finance Committee in connection with the Walter J. Lloyd matter, as well as the testimony taken before Alderman Howard James, be printed in the record of this meeting," the following are the statements and the testimony taken at said proceedings:

Pittsburgh, Pa.,

COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

Committee met.

Present Messrs.

Dailey	Robertson
Garland	Winters
Henderson	Herron (Chairman)
McArdle
Absent—Messrs.
English	Oliver

The Chair:

Mr. Oliver is detained at his home on account of sickness in his family, and Mr. English has gone to Washington to represent the City at the Internal Waterways Convention.

Gentlemen, Mr. Rowan of the Pittsburgh Board of Trade has extended an invitation to all the members of Council to attend the opening of the new Club house on Tuesday evening, December 9,

Mr. Robertson:

Mr. Chairman, I move that the invitation be received, filed and accepted. Which motion prevailed.

The Chair:

I might state, gentlemen, that this meeting was arranged on motion made last week in the Finance Committee to give Mr. Lloyd an opportunity to be heard on the resolution which Mr. McArdle presented to us. The clerk will read the resolution and the procedure then will be along the lines that you gentlemen seem to think is applicable to this case, and the Chair will be open to suggestions.

The Clerk then read the following resolution.

Whereas, The Mayor's Welcome Committee presented to the Finance Committee for its approval a bill rendered by Walter J. Lloyd for services rendered by the Liberty Loan Band and the Finance Committee approved the bill and

Whereas, A warrant was issued to said Liberty Loan Band and given to said Walter J. Lloyd on August 21, 1919; and

Whereas, Said warrant was endorsed by the Liberty Loan Band, by Walter J. Lloyd, and payment received on same on August 22, 1919; and

Whereas, After a lapse of more than three months certain members of the said Liberty Loan Band have not yet received their compensation for services intended to be paid for out of said $1,125.00; Therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Controller be requested to have said Walter J. Lloyd return to the City Treasurer the sum of $1,125.00, and file with the Controller a list of the individuals having claims as members of the Liberty Loan Band, together with a statement of the amount due each, and that the Controller then prepare the necessary vouchers for payment of same and present same to Finance Committee for its approval.

Mr. Robertson:

Mr. Chairman, the idea was to send for Mr. Lloyd and hear what he had to say. Mr. Lloyd is here.

The Chair:

Mr. Lloyd, you heard the resolution read. Do you care to say anything concerning it?

Mr. Walter J. Lloyd:

Mr. Chairman, I offer the clerk this record.

The Chair:

The Clerk will read it.

The Clerk read the following communication:

To the President and Members of Council,

Pittsburgh, Pa.,

Gentlemen—I have read a resolution presented by Councilman P. J. McArdle in which he asks that the sum of $1,125.00 paid to the Liberty Loan Band for services rendered on several occasions be returned to the City Controller because, as Mr. McArdle alleges, some members of that band now say they have not been paid for their services.

This resolution is prompted by malice and political animosity and a desire for sensational publicity, due to the fact that the author of it is politically dead as a result of his rejection at the hands of the people, and is willing to stoop to anything, even to the defamation of character, in a vain desire to keep himself alive.

The Liberty Loan Band was organized during the war and the members of it rendered measureless voluntary service in behalf of every worthy project that was launched to assist in the winning of the war. Because of its work it became very popular with the citizens of this city. Following the war there was a well-defined sentiment that it should be kept going for a while at least, and that it should have a part in the welcome home given our boys, because its members had worked so patriotically to sustain them while they were away. It was engaged on several occasions for this purpose and bills were rendered, as all other musical organizations were being paid and there was no reason why the members of the Liberty Loan Band should continue to serve without pay when they had already rendered so much service free of charge.

Their last engagement was on June 9. All bills were held up and none was paid until August 21, when all but two were included in a warrant for $1,125.00 issued to the Liberty Loan Band. As the active factor in organizing this band for the purpose of rendering free-will patriotic service, and as the one who looked after its interests, I received this warrant, deposited it and immediately started to pay out to the men to whom the money was coming. Cancelled checks in my possession will substantiate this statement and will show that practically the whole amount of it has been paid to the men who earned it.

There are but three specific cases in which there have been demands for payment on the part of the members of the band which have been refused. Two of these are men who failed to turn in their uniforms. The other is the case of a man who has pay coming for May 3, the one and only engagement still due, and which has not been paid by the City of Pittsburgh.

There has never been a demand made upon me for payment by any member of the band which has been refused, providing the said member has complied with our rules. If any men have told Mr. McArdle they have not been paid he did not take the matter up with me to ascertain the truth of their statements or to find out whether any money was due them.

The Liberty Loan Band was paid for its services on bills approved by four executive officers of the Mayor's Committee of Welcome, by the Mayor, by the Finance Committee of Council and finally by the Controller. That closed the transaction insofar as the City of Pittsburgh is concerned. If some members of the band have complained to McArdle, as he alleges, their recourse is against me and the Liberty Loan Band and not against the City of Pittsburgh. I am here and I am responsible.

The Liberty Loan Band does not intend to return this money to the City, because the City, by its proper officials, has acknowledged the debt and has paid the same. It would be absurd, when nearly all of the money has been disbursed to the members of the band to whom it was coming, to expect me or any one else acting for the band to go among the members, collect money from them which they received for services rendered and which they have probably spent, and turn it back into the City Treasury, because of the complaints of two or three disgruntled members, if there are any.

Yours very truly,
WALTER J. LLOYD.

The Chair:

The communication is before us. Mr. Lloyd are you prepared to submit the cancelled checks to the extent of the amount that has been paid members of the Liberty Loan Band?

Mr. Lloyd—Yes, sir.

Mr. McArdle—Mr. Chairman, I would like to ask Mr. Lloyd a couple of questions.

The Chair: Are there any objections? (After a pause). The Chair hears no objections.

Mr. Lloyd: I am willing to answer any questions Mr. McArdle or any other member desires to ask me.

By Mr. McArdle:

Q.—I would like to ask, how many members of the band are there for whom you filed a statement for pay coming to them out of this $1,125.00 who have not been paid?

A.—I cannot tell you exactly, Mr. McArdle.

Q.—Are there more than three?

A.—I believe there are.

Q.—Are there more than 10?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—I would like to ask another question. Is it your view of this thing that it is your right to determine who should receive pay after it has been paid over to you by the City of Pittsburgh for a specific purpose—do you believe it should be left to your discretion as to who should and who should not receive pay?

A.—Certainly not.

Q.—Then, why did you raise that question in your communication, when you say you refused to pay a certain member of the band because he failed to return the uniform?

A.—I asked the man to return the uniform when he would receive his pay.

Q.—The City of Pittsburgh paid this money over to you on approval by the Committee on Finance, and I am sure that the members of that Committee did not intend that it should be paid you to be conducted and paid the members of the band as you personally saw fit?

A.—I paid every man who substantiated his claim. No one was refused. I never refused payment to any member of the band, and I desire to emphasize that fact.

Q.—It might be more emphatically said here what your course of action has been in regard to this matter?

A.—Do I have to explain to you my action?

Q.—You are not furnishing me anything. It is the Finance Committee that desires this information.

The Chair: The Council desires this information and if the information is not given us we will have to take action on the resolution without it. It was out of courtesy to you that you were asked to come here, and if you can give us the information sought the matter drops there; but if not, the resolution if adopted will go to the City Controller and he will be compelled to carry out its provisions.

By Mr. McArdle:

Q.—I want to ask Mr. Lloyd whether Mr. D. D. Simpson has a claim against the Liberty Loan Band for services under this?

A.—I don't know; I cannot recall any particular name?

Q.—Has Mr. J. J. Ewing a claim?

A.—I don't know Mr. Ewing.

Q.—Has Mr. Charles Lovett a claim?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—Mr. W. Knowles a claim?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—Has D. S. Nycum a claim?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—Has F. W. Fleer a claim?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—Has W. H. Prytherch a claim?

A.—I don't know, Mr. McArdle; I don't recall his name.

Q.—Has Mr. Robert Reoach a claim?

A.—Positively not.

Q.—Mr. Elmer Zink?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—Mr. Joseph Durm?

A.—I am not familiar enough with the names.

Q.—Has Mr. William Kiel a claim?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—Has Mr. Lothar Salinz?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—A gentleman by the name of Anderson?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—Mr. Bert Bland?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—Mr. Sam Stewart?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—Has William Denardo a claim?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—I would say that Mr. Denardo makes no claim. Here are some 12 or 15 names that I read, and you don't know whether they have a claim?

A.—I am not familiar enough with the men in this band.

By Mr. Garland:

Q.—How many men were in the band?

A.—One hundred and nine men. It is impossible for me to say right off the reel how many men were not paid. Any one of the men who came forward were not refused payment—none of them were.

By Mr. McArdle:

Q. Mr. Chairman, I would like to read at this time and following Mr. Lloyd's statement this letter: (I don't know the writer of the letter):

"N. S., Pittsburgh, Pa.,
Nov. 27, 1919.

Hon. P. J. McArdle,
Care City Council,
County Bldg., City.

Dear Sir—I noticed in the morning paper where charges were preferred against Magistrate W. J. Lloyd, in reference to the money he received to pay the Liberty Loan Band players. I played on two jobs with this band and wrote Mr. Lloyd several letters in regards to my money and he replied to one of my letters stating, "When you write a letter like this to me you can go to h— and do as you please."

I do not remember the exact dates I played on but it was the time the students from Pitt came home. We marched them from Union Station to Fort Pitt Hotel where they had breakfast and then marched them to the Court House. The next job was when the 13th Engineers came home. We marched them to the Fort Pitt Hotel where they had breakfast and while there we played several pieces and then disbanded. The first job lasted a little over two hours and the second one a little longer than an hour.

It is impossible for me to attend the hearing and for that reason am writing this letter.

Trusting that this meets with your approval and that immediate action is taken, I am,

Sincerely yours,
ELMER F. ZINK,
1019 Chestnut Street,
North Side, City."

Q.—Is the facts alleged in that letter true?

A.—That's the man's name. You understand these bills were held up for a long time. I never heard from Mr. Zink until after the Primary Election when he began to write me sarcastic letters, and if the members of Council, or any of you, had received such a letter you would have sent him the same kind of a letter. I want to say frankly that this man never came to see me regarding any money that was due him. If he had I would have explained to him the delay in his receiving payment for his services as the money was not given me until August 21st. He never came near me and I wanted to get some of the letters that he wrote.

Q.—He did make a request through a communication for the money that was due him?

A.—He wrote me that I was holding out his money, as far as I can recollect. However, I don't recall his letter.

Q.—You regarded it as a request for payment to him for service as a member of the Liberty Loan Band, didn't you?

A.—He had been writing me right along.

Q.—You did get a request for payment that you did not meet?

A.—I never received—

Q.—You say Robert Reoch has no claim. You say that he did not play on April 2 or April 5—

A.—I didn't say anything of the kind.

Q.—Will you please wait until I finish my question. You say he did not play on March 22nd as a member of the band, rendering service for which you collected the money?

A.—I never said anything of the kind.

Q.—Do you say it now?

A.—I don't.

Q.—What dates was he paid for?

A.—If I had my receipts and cancelled checks I could easily give you that information.

Q.—You say he has no money coming at all?

A.—No, sir; if he were here—

Q.—When did you liquidate your indebtedness?

A.—The Saturday before you presented your resolution; I am not positive of the date.

Q.—How long would it take you to find out the date?

A.—As soon as I could get my bank book balanced?

Q.—I would say that I never saw this man but once and it was after the introduction of the resolution. He made the statement that he had not been paid for his services?

A.—I would not say positively the date it was liquidated. No man came forward and made a demand that was not met.

Q.—You regard it as perfectly alright to hold out money on people that is due them?

A.—I was not holding it.

Q.—But you are holding it until they make their demands?

A.—I thought it was right.

Q.—I would not think anything of the sort?

A.—If it was wrong, it was wrong.

The Chair:

I would say that Mr. Reoch called me up time after time and said that he tried to collect this money and I said to him, "Why don't you write him a letter?" and he said he did not desire to write a letter. He had not received payment two days after the resolution was introduced in Council. He said he would come here if necessary.

(Mr. Reoch's name was called, but did not respond.)

Do you know W. W. Webster, 523 Cora street? Mr. Webster tells me that he had called on you and attempted to get in touch with you about the money that is due him for playing with the band on March 25, April 5, 26, May 3, 6, 9 and June 9, for which he received no compensation.

By Mr. Henderson:

Q.—I would like to ask if it was a partnership or a corporation?

A.—It was neither.

Q.—It is either one or the other?

A.—It is neither.

Q.—What were you—President of it?

A.—I was president.

Q.—Did they organize it?

A.—Yes.

Q.—Elect officers?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Did they elect a president?

A.—A president and general-manager.

Q.—A secretary?

A.—Yes.

Q.—A treasurer?

A.—The band entrusted the entire business to me as president and general-manager.

Q.—Did you keep any minutes?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—Did you keep a roster of the organization?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—Then there is no record showing who actually comprised this partnership?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—You mentioned a minute ago that there were 109 members of this organization?

A.—I believe we had that many at one time playing on the street.

Q.—Those 109 were not supposed to turn out as an organization on every occasion?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—In other words, you did not propose to have a band of 109 members?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—Are you a musician?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—You then did not play on any of these occasions?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—Did you turn out on these occasions?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—In what capacity—drum major—and did you wear a uniform?

A.—Occasionally.

Q.—The men who were actually in this band came as volunteers?

A.—Not during these engagements that Mr. McArdle speaks of.

Q.—They were practically all volunteers to play if they wanted to?

A.—Yes, of course.

Q.—At the time you received this warrant from the Controller you did it as General-Manager of this organization?

A.—I did.

Q.—Following a bill rendered to the city for the service rendered by that band?

A.—Positively.

Q.—And you paid out the money to whom you thought it was justly due?

A.—To any man who came forward and could justify or substantiate his claim.

(At this time Mr. Oliver appeared and was recorded present).

By the Chair:

Q.—How would you ascertain the amount of money that was due each member of the band?

A.—When a contingent of soldiers was to be welcomed, the Mayor's Welcome Committee authorized the employment of a certain number of members of the band. The men who gave their services on each occasion were counted in order to know how much money to ask from the city. Their names were not taken; hence my reason for not knowing the names of the individuals to whom the remainder of the money is due.

Q.—Did you not take the names of the members playing?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—I don't know how the Controller could pay a warrant in such a way.

By Mr. Henderson:

The Controller paid him as General-Manager. The matter is in the hands of this partnership to deal with their duly elected president and general manager.

By Mr. McArdle:

Q.—How would you, Mr. Lloyd, determine whether they had established their claim or not if you had no record?

A.—I just took their word for it.

Q.—If any of the other members want to accept such a statement, I am not. I want to ask you if you did not have a record of the men who constituted this band of 109 members as to when they were wanted to fill engagements?

A.—I have. Mr. McArdle, a list of telephone numbers to call on short notice. It was frequently necessary to call these men from day to day and I kept those names. Since the band has disbanded I have not kept their names or addresses, because I did not think it was necessary.

Q.—Despite the fact that they had a claim for service rendered?

A.—If I had a claim against anybody I would go after it. If I had a claim against you I would come forward and make it.

Q.—That is another example of poor business method on your part, and you know that many of these men are working men and it is absolutely unreasonable and absurd to have these men lose a day's work to collect a half day's wages.

A.—That is a question. I am available to these men, day and night.

Q.—You were not available for this committee the other day. How then could a member of this band see you to establish his claim?

By Mr. Robertson:

Q.—How much of this money has been paid out?

A.—In the neighborhood of $900.00.

Q.—You still then have approximately $200.00?

A.—I would not say that is the exact amount.

By Mr. Garland:

Q.—Are you good for that money?

A.—Yes, sir.

By Mr. Henderson:

Q.—I would like to ask you, in presenting your bill to the city was that bill itemized, giving the names of the players?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—It did not specify—in what shape was it—the bill of the Liberty Loan Band for service rendered?

A.—The number of times played.

Q.—The city has no authority to ask him to return the money. It is a matter for the band through their properly constituted officers. The city paid the bill and it was rendered properly. The city has met its obligation and it has no business to go into the application of that fund.

By Mr. McArdle:

Ordinarily you would probably be right, Mr. Henderson. You understand that this bill was presented to the City of Pittsburgh or to this Mayor's Welcome Committee, and presented to the Committee on Finance and approved by the Finance Committee, and given by the City Controller's Office to a man who holds a public office in the City of Pittsburgh. Now, you may be able to satisfy your mind that this is just an ordinary business transaction that the good name of the City of Pittsburgh is not involved in it. I don't view it that way. The man who is being questioned is an office holder in the City of Pittsburgh, which in itself very gravely raises the question as to whether he had a right to be in the transaction at all and the fact that he is a member of this Mayor's Welcome Committee.

By Mr. Henderson:

It is a question to be settled in court. I don't see that the Finance Committee of Council has anything to do with it.

By Mr. Garland:

Isn't it a man's recourse against Walter J. Lloyd in an alderman's office? That resolution asks for the return of $1,100.00, and he has already paid out $900.00, for which he has receipts or cancelled checks.

By Mr. McArdle:

Why, then, should we be interested in the return of the uniform?

By Mr. Garland:

We are not interested in that.

By Mr. McArdle:

This money was turned over to Mr. Lloyd because he was acting as the agent of the City of Pittsburgh and as agent for the other people. He is a magistrate in the City of Pittsburgh and was occupying a dual position in this matter.

By Mr. Henderson:

He was acting in this case purely as agent for this organization for which he was president and general-manager. By implication you can imagine that he was acting in a dual capacity, occupying the position that he does, but really in this particular case he was only acting as president and general-manager of this organization.

By Mr. McArdle:

They rendered this service and Mr. Lloyd himself set up a very good cause for the creation of the band and the justification for it being paid for the service it rendered. I know we all recognized that when we approved the bill in Finance Committee. Now, you are raising the question of the internal organization of the band.

By Mr. Lloyd:

A.—I didn't raise it.

Q.—You injected it here?

A.—I did not.

Q.—There are two refusals in this case, am I not right?

A.—There are, sir.

Q.—I don't care whether it is one or two—Whether it is a question of your refusal to pay for or failure to return the uniforms or not?

A.—There are one or two cases.

Q.—It is not a question of one or two cases where the uniforms have not been returned. The question of uniforms has nothing to do with it. The uniforms, I understand, were given to the men.

The Chair:

The subject of compensation is not for any service that was rendered previous to the signing of the armistice. Were the uniforms to be the property of the men?

A.—Positively not.

Q.—Who purchased the uniforms?

A.—A banker of Pittsburgh.

Q. He gave them to you as an individual?

A.—Yes, sir.

By Mr. McArdle:

Q.—Didn't the Liberty Loan Band receive payment for service rendered the Liberty Loan Committee?

A.—Yes, sir.

By Mr. Dailey:

Q.—Did you charge anything for your own services?

A.—No, sir.

The Chair:

Q.—How long would it take you, Mr. Lloyd, to have your bank book balanced showing the amount of money received from the Controller and the amount paid out by you to the various men for the service rendered?

A.—Probably a couple of days.

By Mr. McArdle:

Q.—Did you file with the Controller a statement as he requested?

A.—I did not.

Q.—Do you expect to.

A.—I wanted to see what develops here.

By Mr. McArdle:

Mr. Weible, did the Controller receive an answer from Mr. Lloyd as to whether he would or would not comply with the request of the Controller of the 18th day of November?

By Mr. Weible:

Not that I know of, Mr. McArdle, I never saw any written reply. Mr. Lloyd spoke to the Controller.

By Mr. McArdle:

The reason I asked that is, because the Controller informed me that he had written Mr. Lloyd under date of November 18, as follows:

"November 18, 1919.

Mr. Walter Lloyd, Magistrate,

North Side Police Station,

Pittsburgh, Pa.

My Dear Judge:

Will you kindly furnish me the names of the "singers" attached to the Liberty Band. The voucher was passed. It simply said so many "band men" and the bill attached stated Liberty Band and Singers. As I am apt to have trouble along this line, I desire to get all the information I can for my defense if need should require. The bands were authorized but not entertainers.

Respectfully,

E. S. MORROW.

City Controller.

By the Chair:

Q.—Was any part of this money given to singers or entertainers?

A.—Yes, sir.

The Chair:

It seems to me that enough has developed here at this hearing that we ought to have the names of the men paid and the amount of money paid each. The balance of the arrangements should be made to pay the men at once or the amount of money remaining in Mr. Lloyd's possession should be returned to the City Controller. The City Controller is accountable for this money. Mr. Henderson raised the question that the members of the band would necessarily have to go to court for recourse at law, yet from your statement there was not a regular band. It was made up for a specific purpose and the band is practically disbanded, and you stated to Mr. Henderson that no minutes of the organization were kept. You stated that you were manager of the band and would have some recourse at law in court. You really have no claim before the court, it seems to me, to back up your statement that you were the Manager. The easiest and nicest way out of this situation and for the men who performed the service is for you to pay them, and speaking for myself a receipted bill from those who have been paid is satisfactory to me, and if you need two days in which to get that in shape you ought to have it.

By Mr. Garland:

Q.—Do you have receipts from all the members of the band?

A.—I have the cancelled checks. In some cases the men were paid in cash.

Q.—You ought to have receipts from the men to whom you paid money for the service they rendered?

By Mr. Winters:

Q.—How many men does the amount that you have paid out represent?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—What were the amounts paid each?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—Were they varying amounts?

A.—Yes, sir; averaging from $20.00 to $30.00 apiece.

Q.—Inasmuch as this has been going on for four months and suppose the men would never come forward personally for the money, what would you do with it.

A.—I would not know exactly. I did not give that a thought. The money is in the bank.

Q.—Did the banker that paid for the uniforms give any other money to the Liberty Loan Band, did he donate any money to it?

A.—Positively not.

Q.—Any others.

A.—He did not.

Q.—A man told me that he donated $25.00 for this band.

A.—None that I recall, except the Bank of Pittsburgh.

Q.—This man is not connected with the Bank of Pittsburgh. He told me that he gave a donation of $25.00 for the activities of this band.

By Mr. Henderson:

Q.—Did he say to whom he gave it?

By Mr. Winters:

He said he gave it to Mr. Lloyd.

The resolution in its present form was discussed, it being the consensus of opinion that it would have to be changed.

The Chair:

Mr. Lloyd, will you submit the data to us, showing the name of each member of the band who received payment if possible, how the money has been paid, the amount paid each and any information as to the amounts anybody received that will clear the situation. This list should contain information as to how the $900.00 was disbursed, the names of the men who participated, the amount of time and the amount of service. It is very unsatisfactory to have four or five men who performed service for the City of Pittsburgh say that they did not receive payment for their services. When that information is received, and it is satisfactory to the Council, the resolution can be amended as Mr. Garland has suggested. Nobody expects to get back the money from any of the men who were paid for service they actually rendered.

By Mr. Winters:

When it comes to the adoption of the resolution it can be amended to suit the majority of the committee.

By Mr. McArdle:

At the time the resolution was prepared the people said they were not paid for their services.

Q.—Did I understand you right, Mr. Lloyd, that in at least one case you were holding back money because of the refusal of the individual to return a uniform which you regard as your personal property?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—And that the uniform became your personal property by gift from the Bank of Pittsburgh?

A.—Yes, sir; Mr. Dunbar of the Bank of Pittsburgh.

Q.—Then, if the statement is made that the Bank of Pittsburgh or whoever gave the uniforms was giving them to the members of the band, that is an error?

A.—Yes, sir; as far as I am concerned.

By Mr. Henderson:

Q.—Were uniforms given to the 109 men?

A.—I don't know the exact number. The original band comprised 80 or 90 men.

The Chair:

Q.—I would like to ask, whether those that were paid did they return their uniforms?

A.—The majority of them did; yes, sir.

The Chair:

Gentlemen, unless any of the members haven't anything else to ask we will postpone this meeting until such a time as is suitable to all.

Mr. Winters:

I move that we adjourn until 11:30 o'clock, Thursday, December 11, 1919.

By Mr. Oliver:

Q.—Mr. Lloyd, you rendered a bill to the City of Pittsburgh for the service certain men on certain occasions performed: (I may be going over old ground.) Do you know whether all the men who performed on those occasions knew at the time they were playing that they were to be paid?

A.—All realized they were to be paid; yes, sir.

By Mr. Garland:

Q.—When you started out?

A.—No, sir; not until after the armistice was signed.

And the question recurring on the motion of Mr. Winters, that the committee adjourn until 11:30 o'clock, Thursday morning, December 11, 1919.

The motion prevailed.

And the Committee adjourned.

Pittsburgh, Pa.

December 11, 1919.

The Chair:

This meeting as you all know, is a continuation of the hearing held on Monday last, and at that meeting it was understood that Mr. Walter J. Lloyd would submit a statement of the amount paid to members of the Liberty Loan Band and the balance remaining on hand in the bank. Mr. Lloyd is present and I will ask him to submit that statement.

Mr. Walter J. Lloyd:

Mr. Chairman, I present the following letter for your files:

P.S.—Balance on hand in Third National Bank for distribution, $62.50.
Which was read.

The Chair:

Q.—Mr. Lloyd, have you the cancelled checks?

A.—Yes, sir. (The cancelled checks were shown the members of the committee, but not filed as exhibits.)

By Mr. Dalley:

Q.—What was the date of the introduction of the resolution, Mr. Chairman?

A.—The Clerk will inform us.

The Clerk:

The resolution was introduced in the committee on November 26, 1919.

The Chair:

Q.—Mr. Lloyd, when you were here last Monday you thought you had a balance of $225.00; have you paid any of these bills since that time?

A.—No, sir. I have any of the checks or receipts that you want.

By Mr. McArdle:

Q.—Robert Reoach is one of the men who complained to me that he had not received his money? What date did he receive his pay?

A.—I don't know; I have been unable to find his receipt; I have been unable to get hold of it.

Q.—I would like to ask about this item of $262.00 given to Howard Patton. What does this $262.00 represent—services rendered the band?

A.—It represents all the time that the singers gave. It was given to him to distribute to the singers.

By Mr. Garland:

Q.—He in turn paid the other singers?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Is that the case of Rocereto?

A.—Yes, sir.

By Mr. McArdle:

Q.—Can't you get a statement as to what distribution was made of this $262.00?

A.—Yes, sir; I can. Here is the cancelled check.

(The check made out to Howard Patton was offered as an exhibit.)

Q.—Mr. Chairman, this list or letter shows the first item as being paid on the 22nd of August to Dean D. Simpson. Did you pay this with a check?

A.—No, sir; I have Mr. Simpson's receipt which is in his own handwriting.

Q.—How does it come that you did not pay him by check?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—There is a peculiar thing about that transaction, Mr. Chairman. Within a week Mr. Simpson told me that he did not receive any pay from Mr. Lloyd for service rendered as a member of the Liberty Loan Band to the Mayor's Welcome Committee.

A.—He was either lying or did not know what he was talking about.

By Mr. Henderson:

The best evidence there is that he received his pay is the receipt.

By Mr. McArdle:

That is not the best evidence—

By Mr. Henderson:

You mean that the receipt is not the best evidence that the man did receive his money?

By Mr. McArdle:

Certainly it is; but I have here a list on which appears Mr. Simpson's name, and he furnished the gentleman who made up the list the information that this list contains and he verified it to me personally and said that he would come over here and tell it to the Council or the Committee. The gentleman who told that to me told it to me not later than last midnight that Mr. Simpson had told him that he did not receive his money since the hearing on Monday.

By Mr. Lloyd:

I have not seen the gentleman.

By Mr. Henderson:

In any court we all know that it is pretty hard to attack a written document. The best evidence before any tribunal is a written document. Did the man ever tell you that he was not paid?

By Mr. McArdle:

The gentleman or the man who said he was D. D. Simpson told me personally. I have no personal acquaintance with him.

The Chair:

Mr. Simpson is in a peculiar position now, and if there are no objections here, we will have our investigator interview Mr. Simpson.

By Mr. Garland:

Mr. Lloyd presented the written receipt of this man I don't think we ought to pursue the subject any further along that line. If there are any members of the band who have not been paid, it is his duty to pay them. I want at this time to testify to the patriotic service rendered by the members of the Liberty Loan Band; it was an inspiration to the people of Pittsburgh and helped in putting over the top the Loan Drives.

By Mr. McArdle:

I haven't any surprise to express that Mr. Garland would want to pursue the line indicated in his statement. It is quite the logical attitude for him to take.

The facts in this matter are that we are proceeding here on a resolution introduced into the body that assumed control over the disbursements of that appropriation—the Committee on Finance, and the Committee on Finance approved this bill for the payment of service rendered by the Liberty Loan Band.

By Mr. Garland:

When did the committee approve it?

By Mr. McArdle:

The bill rendered we approved. The bill was approved, and now we are making inquiry into the facts as set forth in the resolution which facts have to do with the disbursement of the money paid under that bill, and the subject is already in the Finance Committee where Council by councilmanic action placed it. I know as much about the procedure of this Council as anybody around City Hall, and an examination of this resolution will show that I make no charge against Mr. Lloyd. The preamble of the resolution is a mere statement of facts, which I think are susceptible of proof, which for the most part have been proven. The thing I am trying to bring to your attention is, that Mr. Lloyd today presents a receipt from a man whom I was told did not receive his money and that I had received this information not more than a day ago; the receipt Mr. Lloyd presents is of the same day that the warrant was cashed for this $1,125.00. I don't know who is guilty of the misrepresentation, but I do know that somebody is guilty of it. I don't know whether one or two persons are involved in it, but I am only giving you the statement of facts as they came to me—that the man who made the original statement to me and the man who was introduced to me was that Mr. Simpson told him last night that this money had been paid since this hearing on Monday last, and told me that Mr. Simpson would not be here today. Mr. Simpson was not asked to be here by me. Mr. Simpson volunteered the statement to me that he would attend the hearing and another man said that he would be here at this hearing today.

By Mr. English:

I don't know much about this hearing, as I was in Washington on last Monday. My mind is not prejudiced for or against Mr. McArdle or Mr. Lloyd. I want to state that this committee can go into any question it cares to regarding the finances of the city, and I don't propose to prevent any man from trying to obtain information on the expenditure of city money, and if there are any objections raised at this hearing or any subsequent hearings should it be necessary to have them, I will offer a motion that will put you all on record. This money has been paid out by the City of Pittsburgh and signed for by Mr. Lloyd as representing the Liberty Loan Band. The question is that Mr. Lloyd ought to produce a statement to this committee showing just what became of the $1,125.00 which the city approved and paid over to him to be paid the members of this organization. He should also produce a list of the number of men in his band and who were paid and those that did not receive pay.

By Mr. Lloyd:

Mr. Lloyd is not going to produce a list of 109 men.

By Mr. English:

Mr. Chairman, I don't propose to allow this man to talk like that. If he does not know his place, we have an officer here to take care of him.

By the Chair:

There is no cause for us to get excited. If we all agree to allow every person to speak we will get along better. There is no use speaking in such a loud voice. This room is not that large.

By Mr. English:

Mr. Chairman, we have a perfect right to find out where this money goes. This is the first opportunity that I have had to look at the testimony that was offered on Monday last and I am surprised that this committee has allowed Mr. Lloyd to put in such a statement as it appears in the testimony before me. I don't propose to allow any man to scandalize a member of Council for trying to do his duty. I make a motion that we cut out the slanderous statement he makes when he accuses a member of Council of malice or political animosity for doing his duty. If I had been here I would not have allowed that statement to go unchallenged. We never have any malice or political animosity in Council only on election day when we try to get rid of a lot of political rats. And I want to say we are going to get rid of the rats and they had better awakened up to that fact; when one of them comes in here and makes such an attack on a member of this body I don't propose to stand for it.

By Mr. Lloyd:

If I were you Mr. English, I would go slow.

The Chair:

I did not notice this part of the statement when it was presented.

By Mr. Garland:

You were here when the statement was read.

The Chair:

The Chair cannot allow that. No one is privileged to attack the motive of any person for causing an investigation to be made concerning the finances of the city. I believe if you had given this second thought, Mr. Lloyd, you would not have made it.

By Mr. English:

I move that that part of his statement be expunged from our record.

By Mr. Winters:

I move that everything in the communication of Mr. Lloyd of that character be expunged from the record.

By Mr. Garland:

I think we ought also to give some protection to citizens when they come here, Mr. Chairman. Mr. English's remarks about Mr. Lloyd when he calls him a "rat" ought to be expunged from the record.

The Chair:

Words once spoken cannot be recalled. The truth is mighty.

By Mr. Garland:

I want to say this, that I don't think it has been brought before this committee before by the men acquainted with the work done by the Liberty Loan Band. I want to say for the benefit of all present that the Liberty Loan Band did great work during the war. The band played at the Chamber of Commerce a number of times and at other patriotic affairs. The city did not pay anything for the service rendered it by this band. The man at the head of this band was out day and night making speeches and taking care of his band. I don't think he was compensated; I don't think he could be compensated for his service. Therefore some credit is due him. When the man comes in here and shows how the money was disbursed and what remains in the bank to be paid those who did not receive their pay yet, I think the matter should be dropped, and Mr. Lloyd pay the balance of the men. I think the thing is done and we should receive and file the resolution. We cannot send it to Council. It emanated in the Finance Committee where it should emanate. He only has a balance of $50.00 or $60.00 and he surely is good for that amount. If there is no dispute about the account, I think the matter should end. We are losing a great deal of valuable time on little things.

By Mr. McArdle:

I just want to recall that this procedure was at his suggestion—not at mine. The proposal to have Mr. Lloyd here came jointly from Mr. Garland and Mr. Henderson.

By Mr. Garland:

We admit that.

The Chair:

If you are perfectly satisfied to drop it, I am not.

By Mr. Garland:

I said he should have the hearing.

The Chair:

A hearing once granted should be permitted to go to its conclusion.

By Mr. Garland:

This proceeding constitutes persecution. Mr. Lloyd says he will pay the men who have not been paid and the papers in the case ought to be filed and the matter closed.

The Chair:

That is what you would like to do; but we are not going to do it.

By Mr. English:

I heartily endorse everything Mr. Garland says about Mr. Lloyd. I respect Mr. Lloyd and the band too, but I want to ask if he were one of those of the band and went to the Chamber of Commerce and played on occasions after the Armistice was signed whether he would not want his pay and whether he would not complain after he asked for his money and did not get it.

By Mr. Garland:

I say every man who is owed money should get it.

By Mr. English:

If you had rendered that service you would want your money.

By Mr. Garland:

Mr. Lloyd says these men will get their money.

By Mr. Henderson:

You were not here when this matter was started, Mr. English. This band was organized and represented by Mr. Lloyd as its president and general-manager, and he presented the bill to the city in his capacity as an officer of that band, and he officially goes there representing all the men to collect this money. So far as the city is concerned it is through with this transaction.

By Mr. English:

I don't agree with you. On that same basis we wouldn't have anything to do with money that we provide for city purposes.

By Mr. Henderson:

Are you bound to look into the application of these bills? Suppose you pay bills to Booth & Flinn, are you bound to see that all the laborers are paid?

By Mr. English:
Here is a peculiar transaction.

By Mr. Henderson:
It is a parallel case and the city's duty is done when it pays for the service rendered.

By Mr. English:
And you mean to say that these men are not justified in making their complaint before Council who appropriated the money and that Mr. Lloyd's action was alright? I don't propose to allow that kind of business.

By Mr. McArdle:
We ought to proceed upon a reasonable basis, and I would like to ask Mr. Henderson if he recognizes no difference in this transaction than if he would, as he would suggest in the case of Booth & Flinn, who entered into a contract with the city; in other words, the fact that Mr. Lloyd was a member of the Mayor's Welcome Committee which contracted this bill with Mr. Lloyd. Now, please get that. That this bill contracted with Mr. Lloyd was contracted by the Mayor's Welcome Committee, of which Mr. Lloyd and all the members of this Council were members and that Mr. Lloyd is a public officer of the City of Pittsburgh and whether the circumstances which are quite unusual in your judgment makes no difference in this case than the case of the carrying out the terms of a private contract, say between Booth & Flinn and the municipality.

By Mr. Henderson:
Do you mean to tell me that these receipts and cancelled checks are bogus?

By Mr. McArdle:
Yes, one of them at least.

By Mr. Henderson:
What?

By Mr. McArdle:
That will be considered later.

By Mr. English:
They could get after the bond of the City Controller.

The Chair:
When Mr. Lloyd was here the other day he was asked if he kept minutes of the meetings of the organization, and he replied that he did not.

Mr. English:
How did Mr. Lloyd know to whom to pay the money?

Mr. Lloyd:
I took the word of the men.

Mr. English:
That was poor business on your part. How did you know to ask for $1,125.00?

Mr. Lloyd:
On each occasion that we played the city told us that we could have so many men and when those men came out to play they were checked by Mr. Livingston.

Mr. English:
Then if any man presented you with a bill for services you promised to check it up. Does one case like that exist now?

Mr. Lloyd:
Not to my knowledge. Two men were paid since this hearing.

Mr. English:
Did those men present you with bills?

Mr. Lloyd:
Two since this hearing.

Mr. English:
Do you care to give those names?

Mr. Lloyd:
Mr. Hutchinson and Mr. Crow.

By Mr. McArdle:
Q.—I asked for the receipt of Robert Reoach?

A.—I told you in the beginning that I was unable to get it.

Q.—You will recall that Mr. Reoach had not been paid prior to the presentation of this resolution and which Mr. Herron and I told the committee that Mr. Reoach had personally visited us to inform us that he had not been paid before the introduction of this resolution in the committee. Now, when the matter was before the committee the other day I read a list of names here with one or two exceptions that Mr. Lloyd did not know whether this man had claims against the Liberty Loan Bond or not. Among those names was that of Mr. Simpson, which is the very first name on the list that Mr. Lloyd claims was paid on August 22nd. He was the only one paid on the date set out, which was August 22nd, which happens to be the date he cashed the warrant.

A.—The warrant was cashed on August 21st.

Q.—The Controller informed me that it was the 22nd. At any rate there is no payment made prior to that and he was the only one paid up to that time, and for that reason I thought it should have been very easy for you to remember that. Now, when Mr. Lloyd was here on Monday, and an examination of the record will show it, that he said there was a balance of $225.00 in the bank.

A.—I wasn't sure about the amount; I told you that I didn't know the exact amount and I still hold to that statement.

Q.—The record is here and that record shows that at that time on Monday of this week you said there was a balance of $225.00—

A.—Can I interrupt you a minute, Mr. McCardle—

Q.—No, sir. Mr. Lloyd alleged that something like $900.00 was paid out and his memory was good enough to remember that far and it was good enough to remember that he had at least $225.00, or approximately that amount, of a balance. Now, he submits a statement which shows a balance of only $62.50 out of the $1,125.00, and that was the subject under discussion, no other item being considered. And this statement shows that no payments were made later than November 24th, two days prior to the introduction of this resolution in this committee and no payments made subsequent to that date, except one for $19.50, the record showing the amounts paid up to and including November 24th being $1,040.00, and his statement to us was that he had paid out $900.00 and had a balance of $225.00. I bring this fact out because of the fact that I raised the question upon the information that I had received that some 14 or 18 men had claims against the band that had not been met on Monday of this week, and coupling that with the statement I made concerning the fact that Mr. J. J. Ewing had informed me within two days that he had received by special delivery a check from Mr. Lloyd covering the amount that he had claimed against him, and that Mr. Simpson had informed me that he also had since Monday received his money.

A.—I will defy you or any other man in existence to bring Mr. Ewing here or go to the Third National Bank and produce a single check that I ever paid Mr. Ewing or Mr. Simpson since Monday. I defy any man to say that Mr. Ewing has even talked to me since Monday, or Mr. Simpson either.

Q.—I am not questioning the last statement—

A.—I will defy—and I will deposit any amount that you want me to that you cannot produce or have Mr. Ewing produce any evidence that I ever sent him a check by special delivery, messenger or any other way. I have not even seen him. I have not had an agent see him for me either.

Q.—I have not alleged that he saw you or even got a check from you.

A.—I have not even mailed him a check. You can go to the Third National Bank to ascertain that from my cancelled checks.

Q.—The only thing that ought to be susceptible to this committee, and if your statements are to be worth anything, is the variance between the statements you made here on Monday as to the state of your fund and your record as submitted here today.

A.—I made no definite statement to the committee the other day.

Q.—That is a matter of record.

By Mr. Dailey:

Q.—How many city employees played in the band?

A.—Right off the reel I cannot say.

Q.—Any of them that are on this list?

A.—I think Mr. Smith.

Q.—What department is he in?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—Have all city employees been paid?

A.—I don't know whether Mr. Hutchinson is a city employee or not, and he has not been paid.

Q.—Any others that you know?

A.—None that I can recall.

Q.—Can you furnish this committee with a list of city employees that played on this band, those that were paid and those who did not receive their pay?

A.—All of those that are on this list have been paid.

Q.—What I want to find out is, how many city employees were members of this band as singers and players, get their names and bring them in here and see whether they were paid or not.

By Mr. Henderson:

What bearing has that got to do with it? They were volunteers.

By Mr. Dailey:

I understand among the singers were some city employees who were marked paid and not paid, who worked for the city. We can bring them in to find that out.

By Mr. Lloyd:

The best thing is to have Mr. Patton bring in his statement.

By Mr. Henderson:

Mr. Lloyd has answered the demands that have been made upon him. What are the next steps? Are you going to impugn his account that has been filed here, or are you going to accept it?

The Chair:

That is before the committee. I wish you gentlemen would not get into any idea that the service rendered by the Liberty Loan Band was not appreciated. They were out in our ward and they were appreciated.

By Mr. Lloyd:

You did not pay us, did you Mr. Herron?

The Chair:

No, sir; not one cent was paid to them, and any argument that we have here is for service rendered after the signing of the Armistice, and in no way does it involve the service rendered by the band previous to that time. Our action here is to see that the money for which the city appropriated goes to the men who rendered the service and that nobody goes away dissatisfied. Now, if the members of the Liberty Loan Band and the singers, Mr. McArdle has given the names, if they did not receive any compensation, or have not since been paid, will they be paid?

By Mr. Lloyd:

Yes, sir. There is a check still due me for $90.00. I see a gentleman in the audience who played on the band and I would like to ask him a few questions. (There were no objections.)

By Mr. Lloyd:

Q.—This man's name is Steinhardt, A. J., whose name appears on the list before you, Mr. Chairman. I would like to ask Mr. Steinhardt if you were paid all your money?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Did you have any difficulty getting your money?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—Do you know of anyone who had any difficulty getting theirs?

A.—No, sir. I did hear complaints, but I did not pay any attention to them.

Q.—Did I treat you fair and right?

A.—You treated me fair.

Q.—This man was in every engagement of the Liberty Loan Band?

By Mr. English:

Q.—How much was it?

By Mr. Steinhardt:

A.—I think it was $25.50.

Q.—How many days was it for?

By Mr. Lloyd:

After the Armistice every engagement that he played.

Q.—What were the nature of the complaints that you did hear that you did not pay any attention to?

A.—Just what is up for discussion now?

Q.—Some of them that Lloyd refused to pay them?

A.—About three weeks ago I joined the union and I had an opportunity to talk with the men who played on the band and some of them said that they had heard for the first time that Judge Lloyd had the money. I don't know how that happened. At different times I had heard it at the union headquarters that the money was there. I never heard how they never got the information—those that were not paid.

Q.—How did you get the information?

A.—At the local union headquarters.

Q.—They told you that Lloyd had the money?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Are all the men union musicians?

A.—All since the third of March—a majority of them.

Q.—Did you ever hear complaints about it at the union?

A.—It was quite natural to hear complaints at the union.

Q.—When did you receive your money?

A.—I cannot recall the date; it is on the check; I believe it was the first Sunday after he lifted the voucher.

By Mr. Robertson:

Q.—How many times did you demand your money from Mr. Lloyd?

A.—Only once. I heard that he had the money and I went and got it without any question.

Q.—Did you present any bill to him before August 21st?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—You did not know that you were to get the money until Lloyd told you?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Did the fellows know that you were to get paid? Did you play voluntarily?

A.—During the Fourth Liberty Loan Drive all of us volunteered our services.

Q.—After the Armistice was signed was there an understanding that you would be paid?

A.—Since I happened to join the union it was understood that we were to be paid.

By Mr. English:

Q.—You played for the welcome home of returning soldiers and you never presented any bills to him and you were not sure that you were to get paid?

A.—The union sees to that.

Q.—If you played for Nirella, would you present him with a bill for your service?

A.—I have not been in the game long enough. I leave it to the director who hires me.

Q.—You would not present him a bill?

A.—Not unless they would ask me. I work for Jones & Laughlin and they don't ask me for a bill every month for the service I render.

By Mr. McArdle:

Q.—I would like to ask whether it is true that during each engagement played some member connected with the band wrote out the names of those taking part in the engagements and handed them to you, Mr. Lloyd?

By Mr. Lloyd:

A.—They wrote them on a sheet of paper and I shoved them in my pocket.

Q.—They were a sufficient record for you to know to whom you owned money on those particular occasions?

A.—Yes, sir; if I had preserved the notes; I am sorry to say that I did not.

Mr. Winters:

I would like to ask if anyone in the audience has a grievance against Mr. Lloyd for not being paid.

The Chair:

Are there any persons in the audience who played on the Liberty Loan Band and who have not received their money?

(Five persons stepped forward and were interrogated.)

Mr. C. E. Crow said:

I presented a bill through the mail and the Judge said that he did not get it, which is likely to happen, and the other time I had an appointment with him, which was last night and I was there and he did not get there. I have a list of engagements which takes in everything.

The Chair:

Let us have the list.

Mr. Crow:

Yes, sir.
(The statement was handed in to the clerk.)

By Mr. English:

Q.—How many engagements did you participate in?

A.—Six or seven.

Mr. E. F. Zink said:

Mr. Chairman, I played on two occasions. I wrote Mr. Lloyd a letter wherein I asked him for the money and the letter I wrote him I was not sure of the date. I gave him what jobs I played.

The Chair:

Q.—Did you ever go to see him?

A.—No, sir. Some time about the 26th day of August I heard from one of Rocereto's men that he was paid. I wrote Mr. Lloyd and I may perhaps have been a little sarcastic; it may have been a little slip, and he wrote me an answer worse than the letter I wrote him. That is the only request I ever made.

By Mr. English:

Q.—What did he say?

A.—Mr. McArdle has the letter. In it he said "when you write me letters like this you can go to H—l, if you please."

Wm. Kiel:

Mr. Chairman, I never made any personal efforts to get the money.

The Chair:

Q.—You never went after it?

A.—When we played at a job we gave our name in and we were told that the check would be mailed; that was my understanding.

Q.—To whom did you give your name?

A.—To a leader in the band.

Q.—You gave it to the leader?

A.—We had different leaders.

Q.—Not the same leader at all times?

A.—No, sir.

By Mr. McArdle:

Q.—You are sure that you were told that when the money was available a check would be mailed you?

A.—Yes, sir, that was my understanding.

Q.—Was that the reason you did not feel it incumbent upon you to ask for the money?

A.—I didn't think it was necessary to go after the money when I was told that it would be mailed to us.

Charles Lovett:

I had two engagements. We always depend upon the secretary for our money. He claimed that he did not get it.

By Mr. McArdle:

Q.—Who do you mean by secretary?

A.—The secretary of the band. We always look to the secretary of the band to get our money.

L. W. Saling:

I played on seven or eight engagements and I never sent in a bill for it for the reason that I understood the money would be sent us. I played for Rocereto and I told him to leave the money at the union. I never bothered in presenting Mr. Lloyd with a bill. I never put in a bill for salary where I work and I did not think it was necessary in this case. I have not been paid up to the present time.

The Chair:

Q.—And you notified the secretary of the band?

A.—I did not notify anybody; they always had some one on the job. I took one or two lists of the men.

Q.—What would you do with them?

A.—I would give them to the Judge.

Mr. Jas. Hutchinson:

I played in all engagements and when I presented him with a bill he said he would check it up.

The Chair:

Q.—Did you go to the secretary?

A.—He generally came around.

By Mr. Winters:

Q.—When you presented Mr. Lloyd with a bill did he refuse to pay you?

A.—No, sir; he asked for the list and said he would check it up.

By Mr. McArdle:

Q.—Can you recall the last time you discussed the matter with Mr. Lloyd?

A.—I cannot; it was within the last two months.

By Mr. Lloyd:

You were in my office last night?

Mr. Hutchinson:

Yes, sir.

By Mr. McArdle:

Q.—When Mr. Lloyd said he would check it up did he say how he would check it up?

A.—He would check it up with his list.

Q.—And you understood from him that your word as to your engagements and the length of them would not be final of determining the amount that he owed you?

A.—I think he had all the dates down of the engagements and the hours.

Q.—Was it your impression that Mr. Lloyd had a record against which he would check yours to determine whether your claim was right or not?

A.—I did not put the hours in; just the engagements.

The Chair:

Did any of you men ever hear Simpson complain?

Mr. Lovett:

Yes, sir.

Mr. McArdle:

Q.—Did you ever hear him complain within the last month or so?

A.—I met Mr. Simpson on Diamond street about two months ago and he said that he would go after the money.

Q.—He lead you to believe that he had not been paid?

A.—That he had not been paid, yes, sir.

Q.—Are you sure that the date upon which you met him and he made this statement to you was later than August 22nd?

A.—I cannot say; it was some time about two months ago.

Q.—Was it later than Labor Day?

A.—I cannot say.

Q.—Was it before election day?

A.—I don't remember what day it was.

Q.—I am trying to figure out whether it was longer than two months ago? Can you recall any events in your mind which would carry you back to this time?

A.—I cannot.

Mr. Hutchinson:

Mr. Simpson told me over the 'phone (it sounded like his voice) that he received his claim in full.

By Mr. McArdle:

Q.—When did you receive this telephone call?

A.—Yesterday morning. He told me that he received the money, I think on the evening before, that being Tuesday evening.

By Mr. Winters:

Q.—Is it anything uncommon for you men to wait for money that is coming to you?

A.—No, sir.

By Mr. McArdle:

Q.—In view of the statement Mr. Lloyd submits and in view of the statements this man makes, and if we are to determine the facts we will have to do it upon the evidence in some degree and the credence that we can give to that evidence. What I want to get clear from this gentleman is the statement that Mr. Simpson or the gentleman who claimed to be Mr. Simpson had talked to him and told him at that time which was within this week that he (Mr. Simpson) had received his money and closed the incident?

A.—It was yesterday morning that he talked to me.

By Mr. Dailey:

Q.—Did he call you?

A.—He called me; yes, sir.

Q.—Prior to this, has he talked to you about this matter?

A.—No, sir; not within a month or two, probably six weeks.

By Mr. McArdle:

Q.—Have you had a conversation with Mr. Simpson prior to the one which you say took place yesterday morning and at a time later than August 22nd during which he said he had not been paid?

A.—It has been since August 22nd.

Q.—Ever discuss this subject with Mr. Ewing? Do you know Mr. Ewing?

A.—I know Mr. Ewing. We just see each other on the street and in passing I asked him if he got his money. Aside from that I have had no discussion with him.

By Mr. Robertson:

Q.—Mr. Lloyd, do you admit the claims of these gentlemen?

A.—Yes sir; I do now.

Mr. Winters moved

That each of the men present Mr. Lloyd with a statement of the amount due him.

Mr. Crow said that he did not know how much was due him at the time, but after figuring up his engagements, said $31.00.

Mr. Zink—$8.00.
Mr. Kiel—$17.00.
Mr. Lovett—$8.00.
Mr. Salling—$30.00.
Mr. Hutchinson—$32.00.

The Chair:

The Investigator will be asked to get in touch with Mr. Simpson to ascertain when he received his money.

Mr. McArdle:

Mr. Simpson ought to be subpoenaed to be here, Mr. Chairman, and I make a motion that he be summoned to appear before this committee.

Which motion prevailed.

(Messrs. Henderson and Robertson voting No.)

Mr. Winters moved

That the resolution lay on the table for the time being.

Which motion prevailed.

It was announced that Mr. D. D. Simpson was employed in the Purchasing Department of the Carnegie Steel Company, Carnegie Building.

And on motion the committee adjourned.

Pittsburgh, Pa.
December 12, 1919.

COMMITTEE ON FINANCE.

Committee met.

Present—Messrs.

Dailey	McArdle
English	Oliver
Garland	Robertson
Henderson	Winters
Herron (Chairman)

The Chair:

At the hearing yesterday morning, the name of Mr. Simpson was prominently mentioned and a motion was adopted that he be summoned to appear before the committee to testify to certain things which were brought out in the hearing. Mr. Simpson came here voluntarily and if there are no objections, we will hear him now. (After a pause). The Chair hears no objections. Mr. Simpson will you please tell us what you know about this matter?

Mr. English:

I would suggest that the testimony taken at the hearing yesterday morning be read for the information of Mr. Simpson so that he might know what was said concerning him.

(The testimony at the hearing held Thursday morning was read by the clerk.)

The Chair:

Proceed, Mr. Simpson.

Mr. D. D. Simpson said:

I received my money on the evening of December 9th at Mr. Lloyd's office. My case is just this: I received word from Mr. Lloyd that if I would come over on Tuesday evening of this week I would get my money. I went over to his office and after I received the money he requested that I date the receipt August 22. I hesitated about doing this, saying that I did not want to get into trouble, and he asked me to send other members to him if they had not been paid. I did not receive the money until Tuesday evening—not the date of the receipt as of August 22nd.

By Mr. Dailey:

Q.—When did you see Mr. Lloyd?

A. In the evening at his office in the North Side Police station in the rear of the building, and on leaving he asked me to send any members I knew who were not paid over to him on the following evening. I called up three or four fellows, but I don't know whether they went over or not.

By Mr. Oliver:

Q.—What is the amount of the receipt you signed for?

A.—$14.50.

Q.—How was it paid to you?

A.—In cash.

By Mr. McArdle:

Q.—I want to ask Mr. Simpson whether he asked Mr. Lloyd for the payment of this bill or the amount of money due him at any time after August 22 and prior to the date on which he actually received the money?

A.—I went on my vacation about the first of September and came back about the middle of September. I had a Saturday free and I went over to see Mr. Lloyd. At that time he did not have the money and he told me to come back the following Monday, but I was too busy to run around for the money and I went over with another fellow on Sunday and at that time he did not give me the money. I mailed him a bill at one time, a carbon copy of which I may have.

Q.—Was that after these two attempts you made personally to see Mr. Lloyd?

A.—I think it was after I went over on Saturday morning.

Q.—At any event it was later than September 1.

A.—I am sure; yes, sir.

Q.—You believe you signed this as of August 22nd at Mr. Lloyd's request.

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Did Mr. Lloyd ask you to refrain from attending any hearings before Council?

A.—Well, while he did not say so openly, he suggested that I need not go, assuring me that a subpoena could not be issued for my appearance. I told him that I did not want to get into trouble, and after seeing what transpired here yesterday in the newspaper. I came here voluntarily. I might state further that when I talked to Mr. Lloyd I would not come before Council unless I was sent for. I told him that I would not go voluntarily as I was too busy.

The Chair:

Gentlemen, you have heard the testimony of Mr. Simpson, and you heard the testimony of Mr. Lloyd. It seems to me that Council cannot be too careful about the kind and caliber of men who are put in our police courts. It is evident that there is a discrepancy somewhere. The integrity of the entire city is at stake and this has gone too far, and the Mayor ought to be informed what took place here yesterday and he ought to be asked whether he approves of conduct of that kind on the part of a police magistrate. Mr. Simpson, the young man with you, does he care to say anything?

Mr. Simpson:

This is Mr. Ewing, a member of the band.

Mr. McArdle:

Mr. J. J. Ewing to whom I have referred yesterday is the gentleman with Mr. Simpson. I don't know whether Mr. Ewing desires to make a statement or not.

The Chair:

Will you please tell us what you might know.

Mr. Ewing:

I am here to answer any questions that might be asked of me?

Mr. McArdle:

I would like to ask Mr. Ewing, if you had money coming to you for service rendered as a member of the Liberty Loan Band to the Mayor's Welcome Committee?

A.—I had about $18.50 coming to me until yesterday morning.

By Mr. English:

Q.—I think the date should be specified?

A.—Thursday morning, December 11, 1919.

By Mr. McArdle:

Q.—Did you receive your compensation yesterday morning?

A.—I received $18.50 in cash yesterday morning.

Q.—Where did you receive it?

A.—At Mr. Lloyd's office.

By Mr. Dailey:

Q.—From Mr. Lloyd?

A.—Yes, sir; from him personally.

Q.—Did you tender any bill to him prior to that?

A.—How do you mean?

By Mr. McArdle:

Q.—Had you been sent money in payment of your service or been sent a check?

A.—I had been sent a check by registered mail by Lloyd, but it was not from Walter Lloyd. It was for service I rendered R. B. Lloyd of Cleveland, O. It was for $10.00 more than I had coming from Walter Lloyd. Mr. McArdle asked me if I had received a check by registered mail and I told him on Wednesday evening that I had, but it was not from Walter J. Lloyd.

By the Chair:

Q.—Did you render any service at Cleveland, Ohio?

A. Yes, sir; for R. B. Lloyd.

Q.—It has no connection with this case?

A.—No, sir.

By Mr. McArdle:

Q.—I made the statement to the committee yesterday, the substance of which was that I had been told by you on the night previous that you had received from Mr. Lloyd a check by registered mail, the check of which you endorsed over to your wife but which I did not mention at the meeting. What I am trying to do is to have you explain whether I was not correct in making that statement?

A.—You were correct in making that statement. I got the initials of Mr. Lloyd wrong. I happened to be in bed at the time the mail was opened and I endorsed the check and gave it to my wife to be cashed, as she was going out, and she cashed it. I was mistaken in informing you.

Q.—But up until that time you had not been paid by Mr. Lloyd?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—The check you received was from another party then?

A.—Yes, sir.

The Chair:

Q.—Did you talk to Mr. Lloyd?

A.—Positively on Thursday morning. I talked to him in his office in the rear of the building.

The Chair called on Mr. Simpson:

Q.—How about you Mr. Simpson?

A.—I was over to his office.

Mr. Winters: I move you that this matter—

Mr. English:

Wait a minute; I want to ask Mr. Simpson a few questions:

Q.—Were you paid on August 22nd as of the date of this receipt?

A.—No, sir; it was December 9th, Tuesday evening.

Q.—Did you sign that receipt yourself?

A.—I did sign it.

Q.—Did he say anything to you about this matter being under investigation?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—Did he ask you to sign it as of that date?

A.—Yes, sir; he requested me to sign it as of that date.

Q.—Did you make any request for your money prior to this request?

A.—Three different times.

Q.—And when he paid you he requested that you get in touch with other members who were not paid and send them over to him?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Have you those names?

A.—I cannot give the names; they were all brought up here yesterday.

By Mr. Dailey:

A.—Mr. Ewing, did Lloyd ask you to stay away from the hearing?

A.—Mr. Lloyd asked me to stay away from the hearing. I signed my name to a blank receipt. My receipt was positively blank.

Q.—How much did you receive?

A.—$18.50.

By Mr. Garland:

Q.—The receipt was blank as to amount and date?

A.—Yes, sir.

By Mr. Dailey:

Q.—Mr. Simpson, did he tell you to stay away from the hearing?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Both of you gentlemen know Magistrate Lloyd?

A.—(Simpson). I am personally acquainted with the gentleman. When I signed that receipt as of August 22nd I questioned Mr. Lloyd about it and he said it was alright as there would be no trouble about it.

Q.—Were you with anybody when you went over to see Mr. Lloyd?

A.—No, sir.

By Mr. Ewing:

I would have been at the hearing only I over-slept.

The Chair:

Are you gentlemen satisfied that your statements are true? Will you swear to them as being true?

Both answered in the affirmative, and they were sworn to by the City Clerk, E. J. Martin, after the testimony was read to them.

By Mr. Simpson:

I went over to see Mr. Lloyd and when I signed the receipt I said to him, "How about Council?" He said, "You will have to use your own judgement." I said, "Well, they might subpoena me." He said, "They could no more subpoena you than I could make you go down on your knees and scrub the floor."

The Chair:

If there is nothing further, these gentlemen will be excused; but before they go I want to thank them for coming here and giving us this information.

Mr. Simpson:

I want to thank you gentlemen on behalf of the members of the band, for if Council had not taken up this matter we might not have obtained our money.

Mr. Winters:

Mr. Chairman, I move you that the circumstances and the minutes of this entire transaction be sent to Mayor Babcock for his information and that he be requested to notify Council of his decision in the matter, and that Council finds the introduction of the resolution justifiable and the author of it be vindicated of the charges made by Magistrate Lloyd as his reason for its introduction here.

Mr. English:

I suggest the Mayor submit his findings within 48 hours.

The Chair:

If he does not act in 48 minutes after he reads this testimony then he ought to be asked to take another look at his oath of office. The integrity of the entire city is at stake in an affair like this.

And the question recurring on the adoption of the motion.

The motion prevailed.

And on motion of Mr. Dailey

The Committee adjourned.

Hearing Before Howard James, Alderman of the Twenty-sixth ward, North Side, Pittsburgh, Pa., Held in His Office, 2020 East Street, Friday evening, December 19, 1919.

HEARING BEFORE ALDERMAN
HOWARD JAMES,

In re:

Walter J. Lloyd

vs.

Dean D. Simpson

On the Charge of Perjury.

Hearing before Alderman Howard James, in the above-entitled case, was held in Alderman James' Office, 2020 East street, North Side, Pittsburgh, Pa., on Friday evening, December 19, 1919, at 8:00 o'clock.

E. K. Trent, Esq., attorney representing Walter J. Lloyd.

James H. Gray, Esq., attorney representing Dean D. Simpson.

Alderman James:

The hearing will now proceed. Mr. Walter J. Lloyd, will you please give me a list of your witnesses?

Mr. Walter J. Lloyd:

They are: E. J. Martin, Robert Helfrey, C. H. Cassilly and Harry W. Gordon.

Mr. Dean D. Simpson:

J. J. Ewing, W. H. Roy and R. N. Smith.

Alderman James:

All witnesses in the case will be sworn.

(The oath was administered to all the witnesses.)

Alderman James:

Mr. Simpson, we have a charge of perjury against you preferred by Walter J. Lloyd in an information made on December 16, 1919. Are you guilty of this charge, or not?

Mr. Simpson:

I am not guilty.

Mr. E. J. Martin, called as a witness, and having been sworn, testified as follows:

By Mr. Trent:

Your Honor, will you please let me see the information.

(The information was shown Mr. Trent.)

Q.—Mr. Martin, will you please testify?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—What is your full name?

A.—E. J. Martin.

Q.—What is your office?

A.—City Clerk?

Q.—Of what city?

A.—City of Pittsburgh.

Q.—How long have you occupied that office?

A.—For a number of years.

Q.—And did you occupy that office during the past two years?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—As City Clerk, did you administer an oath to Dean D. Simpson on the 9th day of December, 1919?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—And did Dean Simpson take oath to what you incorporated in your affidavit?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Have you with you a copy of that affidavit?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Produce the affidavit.

A.—Yes, sir.

(Mr. Martin produced the affidavit, which was inspected by Mr. Trent.)

Q.—Is there in this room a copy of the testimony given by Mr. Dean Simpson before the Committee on Finance at its meeting held Friday, December 12, 1919?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Produce that testimony?

A.—Yes, sir.

(The testimony was produced by Mr. Martin and marked Exhibit "A.")

Q.—Were you present at the meeting of the Committee on Finance of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh on December 12, 1919?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Do you know a man named D. D. Simpson?

A.—I know him now; yes, sir.

Q.—Is that the man there? (pointing to Simpson).

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Did D. D. Simpson testify at the meeting of Council referred to?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Were you present yourself?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—I show you Exhibit "A" in this case?

Mr. Trent:

Mark your initials on that Exhibit, Mr. James, so that there may be no dispute as to this Exhibit, also the date, if you please.

(Mr. James marked his initials and the date on the Exhibit as requested.)

Q.—Mr. Martin, state whether or not the defendant, D. D. Simpson—I withdraw that question—before the meeting of the Committee on Finance of the Council of the City of Pittsburgh, held on December 12, 1919, I ask you to state whether or not D. D. Simpson was present and examined under oath?

A.—Do you mean D. D. Simpson?

Q.—Yes, sir; D. D. Simpson?

A.—He was present and was examined and swore to his testimony after his examination according to that affidavit.

Q.—I ask you whether D. D. Simpson testified as follows: "I received my money on the evening of December 9th at Mr. Lloyd's office?"

Mr. Gray:

If the Court please, I object. Mr. Martin, of course, did not take the notes of the testimony and the stenographer who took them is the proper person to authenticate those notes and prove what he said.

Mr. Trent:

Mr. Martin can testify as to his recollection of this transaction.

The Court:

His stenographer here can testify afterwards, but we can also hear Mr. Martin on his recollection, which is competent evidence. The objection is overruled.

Mr. Trent:

We can hear Mr. Martin on his recollection, which is competent evidence.

Mr. Gray:

The best evidence is the stenographer's notes.

Mr. Trent:

That is not the best evidence. The best evidence is the recollection of witnesses. Stenographer's notes are of secondary importance as evidence and is not in the class with the recollection of witnesses.

Q.—I ask you, Mr. Martin, whether Mr. D. D. Simpson said at the meeting of the Council, "I received my money on the evening of December 9th at Mr. Lloyd's Office?"

A.—I think he said that.

Q.—Were you present at that time when Mr. Simpson testified?

A.—I was; yes, sir.

Q.—Is your testimony from your recollection of Mr. Simpson's testimony at that time?

A.—It is.

Mr. Trent:

Cross-examination.

Mr. Gray:

No cross-examination.

Walter J. Lloyd, having been sworn, testified as follows:

Mr. Trent:

Mr. Lloyd, be sworn.

The Court:

He has been sworn.

Mr. Trent:

What is your name?

A.—Walter J. Lloyd.

Q.—What office do you hold under the City of Pittsburgh?

A.—Police Magistrate.

Q.—How long have you held that office?

A.—Since January 23, 1917.

Q.—Do you know D. D. Simpson?

A.—I do.

Q.—Who is he?

A.—The gentleman standing there (pointing).

Q.—Which gentleman?

A.—Right here (pointing).

Q.—In what capacity did you come in contact with him?

A.—He played on a number of occasions with the Liberty Loan Band, of which I was head.

Q.—And did he become entitled to any wages for playing with the Liberty Loan Band?

A.—He did.

Q.—State whether or not you paid him any wages on the evening of December 9th in your office?

A.—I did not.

Q.—Where is your office?

A.—Federal and Ohio streets.

Q.—What building is that in?

A.—City Hall.

Q.—Of the old City of Allegheny?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—What office do you hold there?

A.—Police Magistrate.

Q.—Do you remember the evening of December 9, 1917?

A.—I do.

Q.—Were you in your office in the old City Hall that evening?

A.—I was.

Q.—At what time?

A.—From about ten minutes of seven until about a quarter of eight.

Q.—During that time was D. D. Simpson in your office?

A.—He was not.

Q.—Did he receive any money in your office on the evening of December 9th?

A.—He did not.

Q.—Did he receive any money from you on the evening of December 9th in your office or anywhere else?

A.—No, sir; he did not.

Mr. Trent:

Cross-examination.

Cross-examination by Mr. Gray:

Q.—Mr. Lloyd, you are a police magistrate?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—You are accustomed to administering the oath to people before you?

A.—I am.

Q.—You know what it means?

A.—I do.

Q.—You know Simpson very well, don't you?

A.—Very well.

Q.—He played in your band quite a bit?

A.—A good bit.

Q.—You are very friendly with him?

A.—Not overly friendly.

Q.—You can call him by his first name?

A.—Oh, yes.

Q.—He was in your home during the course of that band?

A.—Oh, yes.

Q.—You are as familiar with him as you are with the average man with whom you are acquainted?

A.—I am.

Q.—You could not be mistaken about meeting him at any time?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—Do you know his handwriting?

A.—No, I do not.

Q.—Did you ever see him write?

A.—I cannot say that I ever have, no.

Q.—How much money was he entitled to?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—Has he gotten it?

A.—He says he has and I have a receipt from him.

Q.—How much was that for?

A.—The receipt was for $14.50, I think.

Q.—Do you know whether he has received that money or not?

A.—No, aside of that receipt I don't.

Q.—You have no recollection at all?

A.—No recollection whatsoever.

Q.—Did you not make arrangements to have him and the other boys who had not been paid to come to your office on the evening of December 9th?

A.—No, sir; Mr. Ewing called me.

The Court:

Answer that question, yes or no.

Mr. Lloyd:

No, not with Mr. Simpson.

Q.—You did with someone else?

A.—I did with Mr. Ewing.

Q.—And you were at your office on December 9th for the purpose of paying those who had not been paid?

A.—No, sir; not for that purpose.

Q.—Didn't you make that arrangement with Mr. Ewing?

A.—If I told Ewing I told him I would be there in order to meet any man who came to my office at any time.

Q.—Did you tell him Tuesday evening, December 9th?

A.—I told him that I would be in my office most every night of last week.

Q.—You were in Council on Monday, December 8th, were you not?

A.—I think that was the date.

Q.—And December 9th was Tuesday evening?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Well, was Simpson at your office on the evening of the 8th?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—Or the 10th?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—When had he been at your office?

A.—He has not been at my office.

Q.—Was he ever at your office?

A.—Oh, yes; many times during the band engagements he was often there.

Q.—Where did you have your band rehearsals—at your office?

A.—Second floor, in the front part of the building.

Q.—And was he never over to see you at any time except at the band rehearsals?

A.—That is all.

Q.—You are positive of that?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—By himself or anybody else?

A.—With anybody else or himself was he at my office except at the time the band was in existence.

Q.—Well, did you know that any of this money you received from the city was coming to him by you?

A.—Well, if he made a claim he was paid for it. Personally I had no record of it.

Q.—He was in the band—you know that?

A.—Oh, yes.

Q.—And he must have been entitled to some wages for that?

A.—Evidently if he claimed that he was.

Q.—And you reported to Council that he was paid?

A.—I presented a receipt for $14.50 of Mr. Simpson.

Q.—You did not have that receipt on the 8th when you were before Council?

A.—No, sir; I did not.

Q.—You took that receipt in on the 11th when you took the rest of them?

A.—Yes, sir; when I took the rest of them in.

Q.—And that receipt purported to evidence that he received his money when?

A.—August 22nd.

Q.—That was the first one on the list that you paid?

A.—I don't remember.

Mr. Gray:

The stenographer will please produce the statement.

The statement was produced.

Q.—That is the statement you presented to Council?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—And in that statement you represented to them that he was paid $14.50 on August 22nd?

A.—Just what that statement says I represented to them.

Q.—Then you did represent to Council that he was paid on August 22, did you not?

A.—I represented just what that statement says.

Q.—Do you remember the day of August 22nd?

A.—I don't.

Q.—Do you remember anything about his coming to you on that day?

A.—I don't.

Q.—You don't remember whether he was to you on that day?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—Do you remember whether he saw you on that day?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—Do you remember him giving you that receipt?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—Or the circumstances?

A.—I didn't know that I had the receipt until I dug it out of my files.

Q.—You don't recall a thing about it?

A.—I don't recollect a thing about it, excepting that it was there.

Q.—When you were in Council on the 8th of December you said that you did not know whether Simpson had a claim or not?

A.—I did say that.

Q.—Was that true?

A.—Yes, sir, positively; it was to my knowledge of it.

Q.—Hadh't you received a bill from this young man for his wages?

A.—I did not; not to my knowledge.

Q.—Didn't you talk with him on the telephone on or about the 7th, 8th or 9th of December?

A.—He called my home on Saturday a week ago—last Saturday.

Q.—That would be the sixth?

A.—I didn't know. I didn't remember the day. He called my home, and talked first to my mother-in-law. Afterwards he called again and I happened to be home and he talked to me.

Q.—He asked you for his money?

A.—No, sir; he did not.

Q.—What did he say?

A.—He said he called me up to assure me he had no hand in anything that was going on. I said, "Dean if you have it is up to you entirely. There is nothing I fear of care for you to conceal. You do exactly as your own judgment dictates." He said back, "I just wanted to assure you that I am positively doing nothing." He also told the same thing to my mother-in-law.

Q.—And he said nothing about coming over to your office to see you?

A.—He did not say anything. I said, "You have not been around to see me, Dean." He said "No." I said, "Your money is here if you have a claim. I didn't remember whether he was paid.

Q.—You had no recollection of it?

A.—Absolutely none.

Q.—Didn't you have any recollection of the people that you paid or records of it?

A.—I had these receipts and cancelled checks which I began digging up.

Q.—In that receipt book from which these receipts were taken, did you keep a stub?

A.—I don't know that I took them from any receipt book.

Q.—Did you keep a stub of the receipt?

A.—I didn't keep a stub.

Q.—Where did you find this receipt?

A.—I believe I found that in my safe drawer at my office.

Q.—Between the 8th and 11th of December?

A.—I don't remember exactly what day. I believe I found it the day before I presented it to Council.

Q.—That is, the first day after you had been in Council on the Monday?

A.—Yes, sir; after the first day I was in.

Q.—You had not then any recollection that you had paid this young man?

A.—None, nor now.

Q.—And none now?

A.—Positively none.

Q.—Do you know whether you paid him or not?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—Do you know that that receipt is his receipt?

A.—I don't know.

Mr. Trent:

You saw him sign his name to it, didn't you?

Mr. Lloyd:

I cannot remember whether he signed it or not.

Mr. Gray:

Q.—Then you don't know whether it is his handwriting or not?

A.—Only that his name is signed to it.

Q.—You recall in Council you said that you had his receipt in his own handwriting?

A.—I said it belonged to him and I believe that right now.

Q.—And you said a minute ago that you did not know?

A.—I am under oath. I cannot swear positively.

By Mr. Trent:

It is his handwriting?

Mr. Lloyd:

As far as I know it is his handwriting.

Mr. Gray:

Q.—How do you make out that it is his handwriting?

A.—I have no means of knowing it is his handwriting.

Q.—You have no knowledge that it is his receipt in his handwriting?

A.—Positively none, excepting that his name is signed to it.

Q.—Is it only because you found a receipt in your safe with the name Simpson on it that you say he got his money and you reported to Council that he got his money?

A.—Yes, sir; positively.

Q.—If I say now that he did not receive his money, would you say he received it?

Mr. Trent:

I object to that question as being incompetent and immaterial. It is just a conclusion that the questioner seems to draw. It has no bearing and throws no light on this case before your honor. I object to that question.

The Court:

I sustain the objection. Go ahead.

Mr. Gray:

Q.—Did Mr. Simpson come to see you at the North Side Police station with Mr. Smith another member of your band on Sunday morning, October 12th, 1919?

A.—I don't remember.

Q.—To demand their money for wages as services for the Liberty Loan Band?

A.—Indeed, I could not tell you. I would not say whether he did or not. I don't recall.

Q.—You will not say whether he did or not?

A.—I don't recall.

Q.—You don't recall it?

A.—I don't recall it; no, sir.

Q.—Did Mr. Simpson go over to see you about the 13th of September?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—To demand his money?

A.—I don't know.

Q.—You say he didn't?

A.—I don't know. You set a date. I don't know

Q.—Any time in the fall?

A.—Not to my recollection.

Q.—I believe you said he had not been over there except at rehearsals?

A.—As far as I can recall; yes, sir.

Q.—Where do you live Mr. Lloyd?

A.—4738 Maripoe street.

Q.—Where did you go from to your office on the evening of December 9th?

A.—What?

Q.—Where did you go from on the evening of December 9th?

A.—From Hammell's restaurant.

Q.—Over to the North Side Station?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Where is your office in the station?

A.—On the second floor, rear.

Q.—You particularly remember the date, December 9th, Tuesday?

A.—Positively.

Q.—How do you come to remember that circumstance?

A.—Well, I received a letter from Mr. H. L. Smith, of East Liverpool, who is head of the Smith-Taylor Potteries, saying that he would arrive in Pittsburgh from Cleveland anywhere from 10:30 to 11 o'clock and asked me to meet him in his room at the Colonial Annex. That is the reason.

Q.—And you are sure that the evening you speak of was not some other evening?

A.—December the 9th. It was Tuesday evening, December the 9th.

Q.—It was the second evening after your first appearance in Council?

A.—It was Tuesday evening, December 9th.

Q.—Was that the second evening after you were in Council?

A.—It was Tuesday evening, December 9th.

Mr. Trent:

I object to this repetition of questions. He has answered that. You have no right to ask witnesses several times the same question.

The Court:

I sustain the objection.

Mr. Gray:

If the court please, I think I have a right to make the Magistrate identify the happenings of this evening with relation to the councilmanic meeting. That is all I am trying to get at. A man might be mistaken about the time. I want to know if it was the second evening after he was in Council. He tried to identify the date as far as possible by stating that he was to meet a man from East Liverpool, Ohio.

Mr. Trent:

He said he was in Council on December 8th.

Mr. Gray:

I am trying to find out whether it was the second evening after he was in Council. It has a significance to me and I am trying to ascertain that. I have a definite object in view. There is no reason why he cannot say whether it was or not. He knows it was the 8th of December when he was in Council, That was Monday.

A.—It was December the 8th that I was in Council. Why do you say December the 8th?

Q.—Were you in Council the day before this evening that you are speaking of?

A.—I was there in Council on Monday, the 8th.

Mr. Trent:

He was in Council on Monday. That answers your question.

Mr. Gray:

Q.—Alright, that is what I want to know. That is the second evening then. Who was about your office that evening?

A.—Mr. Helfrey and Mr. Cassilly, these two gentlemen (indicating).

Q.—Did they spend that time from a quarter of seven until 7:40 with you there?

Mr. Trent:

You ask them that question.

A.—Yes, they did.

Q.—They were there all evening with you?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—And Simpson was not there?

A.—Positively he was not in my office Tuesday evening, December 9th.

Q.—Did you tell Simpson that when he talked to you on the telephone to arrange to send the boys in to see you?

A.—Saturday evening when he telephoned me I told Mr. Simpson I would be in my office almost every night and they were welcome to come over any time.

Q.—Did you ask him to arrange with the men? Did you tell him if he saw any of the boys to tell them to come over that their money was there?

A.—I told Mr. Simpson that I would be in my office most every night.

Q.—Did you tell him to ask the boys to come over?

A.—I told him if he saw any of the boys to ask them to come over. That goes yet.

Q.—And you did ask him to send some of the boys over?

A.—Yes, sir; there is a lot of them yet that have not come. I wish they would come.

Q.—Was Ewing over to see you between the 8th and 11th?

Mr. Trent:

I object, because it is immaterial and irrelevant. We are trying this man, Simpson, not Ewing. We will come to him later. I object to that. We are trying Brother Simpson.

Mr. Gray:

If the court please, I want to find out from the Magistrate whether he made any arrangements with Ewing to get Simpson over there on this evening. I think that is a competent question to ask the witness.

Mr. Trent:

We will get to Ewing later. When we get to Ewing we will make it hot for him.

Mr. Gray:

I am glad to hear you tell of these things, Mr. Trent.

Mr. Gray:

Q.—Did you, Mr. Lloyd, on the evening of December 5th after leaving the Bank of Pittsburgh with Ewing ask him to send the boys who had not received their money over to you for a little meeting on December 9th?

A.—I cannot answer that question, yes or no.

The Court:

Answer yes or no.

Mr. Lloyd:

I could not answer that question yes or no.

Mr. Trent:

There is no testimony produced here that he left the Bank of Pittsburgh.

The Court:

Did you leave the Bank of Pittsburgh?

Mr. Lloyd:

Yes, I did.

Mr. Gray:

Q.—And you had a talk with Ewing about this matter that was up in Council and the boys who had not been paid?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—And did you not make arrangements with him to round up the fellows who had not been paid to come over on the evening of the 9th?

The Court:

He can answer that yes or no.

Mr. Lloyd:

I cannot answer yes or no. I got to explain.

Mr. Trent:

There is nothing in the Ewing case. The Ewing case is coming again.

The Court:

You can answer that question yes or no.

Mr. Lloyd:

I cannot answer yes or no.

Mr. Trent:

It has nothing to do with this case. It is a different case entirely. We are trying Simpson.

Mr. Gray:

Stenographer, read the question. The question was read.

Mr. Trent:

I object. It is irrelevant.

Mr. Gray:

Nevertheless, it is relevant, if the court please. If the Magistrate made those arrangements through Ewing to get those boys over on the evening of the 9th it is perfectly relevant to this inquiry.

The Court:

The better way to settle that is. I cannot ask your question for you, but did you make arrangements with Ewing as stated?

Mr. Gray:

Go ahead and answer him.

Mr. Trent:

It is objected to as irrelevant. Incompetent and having to do with another prosecution pending before your honor. We have nothing to do with Ewing, but we will have before we get through.

The Court:

Put your question to Brother Lloyd. Cut that question out altogether.

Mr. Gray:

Q.—You said, Lloyd, that you talked about the matter with Ewing, leaving the bank on Fourth avenue on the evening of the 5th?

A.—I talked to Ewing, yes.

Q.—You talked to him about the men who had not been paid?

A.—Mr. Ewing talked to me and I told him exactly that the money was there for any of the boys to be paid any time they came after it and I said I would appreciate it if he saw any of them who did not have their money to send them over.

Q.—And did you particularly mention to get them over on the evening of that week?

A.—Positively not.

Q.—Did he mention that to you?

A.—Positively not.

Q.—You were looking for them on that evening?

A.—Positively not.

Q.—Didn't you go to your office for that purpose on that evening?

A.—Positively not.

Q.—You deny that you saw Simpson on that evening?

Mr. Trent:

Get down to what evening.

Q.—Tuesday evening?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Didn't he meet you at the door of the North Side Police Station as you came in that evening and go to your office?

A.—Positively not.

Q.—And didn't you give him three $5.00 bills and he gave you back 50 cents change?

A.—No, sir.

Mr. Trent:

Did you see him there at all?

Mr. Lloyd:

No, sir.

Q.—Did you ask him to go over to the drugstore?

A.—No, sir.

Mr. Trent:

He said he did not see him at all.

Q.—Did you give him any money at all?

A.—I didn't see him at all Tuesday evening, December 9th, any time, any place, anywhere.

Q.—Did he go to the drugstore for cigars for you?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—Did he go to the drugstore for you at any time?

A.—No, sir.

Mr. Gray:

He is a very fine fellow?

Mr. Trent:

He must be.

Mr. Gray:

We are going to show that he is.

Mr. Trent:

Yes, and we will show that he ain't.

Mr. Gray:

Q.—You don't maintain that you paid this boy his money on August 22nd, Mr. Lloyd?

A.—I don't maintain anything; only what that receipt shows.

Q.—You know him very well. You could not be mistaken?

A.—I know him very well.

Q.—You have not the slightest idea whether you paid him or not?

A.—No, sir; I would not know unless the receipt was there.

Q.—You don't know whether you paid any of these men on this list?

Mr. Trent:

I object to that as being irrelevant, immaterial and incompetent.

The Court:

He said that he did not pay Simpson only what the receipt shows.

Mr. Gray:

Q.—Mr. Lloyd, you got this warrant from the Controller on August 21st?

A.—I think it was the date.

Q.—And you deposited or cashed it at the Third National Bank?

A.—I deposited it.

Q.—You deposited it to your own private account?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Mixed it up with your own funds?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—You did not keep an account as trustee, manager or secretary of some organization?

A.—I put it in my own private account.

Q.—Of course, you recall that incident?

Mr. Trent:

What incident?

Q.—The deposit of this warrant, you recall that?

A.—I don't recall it, excepting my bank book shows it was deposited.

Q.—You don't remember an item of $1,125.00 you got from the City Controller?

A.—My bank book shows it was deposited on that day.

Q.—That is all you recall of it?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—This receipt is dated the next day after you got that money?

A.—I know only what the receipt shows.

Mr. Trent:

Produce the receipt.

Q.—According to this statement Simpson was the first man you paid?

Mr. Trent:

That is objected to as being immaterial. It does not matter who was paid first.

Q.—Isn't that so?

Mr. Trent:

You don't need to answer that.

Mr. Gray:

I am trying to find out whether he paid him or not.

The Court:

He said, "I don't know whether he paid him or not."

Mr. Gray:

Q.—If this receipt is correct, he is the first man that was paid?

Mr. Trent:

Why don't you produce Simpson's receipt?

Mr. Gray:

Here is Simpson's receipt.

Mr. Trent:

Here is your own client's statement for it. I presume it is correct.

Mr. Gray:

Yes, you presume a lot.

Q.—Take a look at that?

The Court:

Do you want to look at it?

Mr. Trent:

What they want to show is Simpson's receipt. That is cross-examination.

Mr. Gray:

Q.—If you got this money on the 21st, and you say you did, and you paid Simpson on the 22nd—

A.—Don't that statement tell you what was done?

Q.—and you paid him on the 22nd?

A.—That statement shows what was done.

Q.—Is it possible that you cannot recall the day after you got this warrant?

A.—I don't remember the date I got the warrant. Why should I remember what took place the day after. My receipt is there.

Q.—Are you accustomed to depositing large sums without recalling the incident a few months later?

Mr. Trent:

I object to that as being incompetent, irrelevant and immaterial.

Q.—You want us to believe that you don't recall this money was given you and deposited?

A.—That is my statement and that is all I know of.

Q.—You don't know anything about these payments at all.

Mr. Trent:

You don't need to argue with this guy at all. (addressing Lloyd). You don't know anything about that at all?

Mr. Lloyd:

I have receipts and cancelled checks to show for every one of them.

Mr. Gray:

Q.—You don't know when you got this one or when you gave it?

A.—Only what it shows there.

Mr. Gray:

This is all.

Robert Helfrey, called as a witness for the prosecutor, and having been sworn, testified as follows on examination by Mr. Trent:

Q.—What is your name?

A.—Robert Helfrey.

Q.—Where do you live?

A.—1655 Perrysville avenue.

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Do you remember the night of December 9, 1919?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Where were you on that night?

A.—At the North Side City hall. It was the first day I was out for two weeks because I was sick. It was the first day I went to work and the first night I was downtown for two weeks.

Q.—How long ago was that?

A.—A week ago last Tuesday night.

Q.—And what day did you leave your house after your sickness?

A.—That was the first day.

Q.—What day?

A.—Tuesday morning, December 9th.

Q.—How do you happen to remember it was Tuesday a week ago that you got over being sick?

A.—Because it was the last Tuesday, and the Tuesday before that.

Q.—And where did you go on that evening?

A.—I went down to the city hall and was setting there when I met Mr. Lloyd.

Q.—What time was that?

A.—I judge between the hour and 10 minutes to 7.

Q.—And where was you sitting and where did Lloyd go?

A.—I was sitting in the hall, in City Hall.

Q.—What time?

A.—I got there I judge—it just struck quarter of 7 by the clock at Carnegie Library and I was there a short time when Mr. Lloyd came in.

Q.—How many minutes?

A.—About five minutes.

Q.—What did you do when the Judge came in?

A.—When the Judge came in Mr. Cassilly was with him, and the Judge said, "Come on up, Bob" and we went up to his office on the second floor.

Q.—Where is his office.

A.—Second floor, City Hall, North Side.

Q.—How long were you there?

A.—I was there until the clock struck quarter of eight.

Q.—What clock?

A.—Carnegie Library clock.

Q.—During that time was this man, Dean Simpson, sitting behind his honor with a green muffler around his neck—was he there?

A.—Nobody was in that office outside of us.

Q.—Did you see Dean Simpson there?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—At a quarter of eight what happened about the Judge?

A.—He said he was going to the Academy and see the boxing bouts and asked both of us to go along.

Q.—Did either of you go?

A.—Being sick and it being my first night out I said I would not go. I went home.

Q.—Did you accompany him out of the building?

A.—We walked down to the pavement and the judge got in his car and said "Good night" and away he went.

Q.—Where did you see the last of the judge's car?

A.—I saw it going down the street.

Q.—Did you see it beyond Boogs & Buhl's?

A.—No, sir; I didn't see him that far; I just watched the car go away.

Q.—Did you see Dean Simpson there at any time?

A.—No, sir; I never saw him.

Q.—Were you in his office from quarter of seven to quarter of eight?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Wasn't D. Simpson there at that time?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—You recognize the gentleman, Dean Simpson?

A.—Only when you pointed him out to me.

Q.—You never saw him before?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—That is all.

Cross-examination by Mr. Gray:

Q.—What is your name? I didn't get it?

A.—Robert Helfrey.

Q.—Where do you live?

A.—1655 Perrysville avenue.

Q.—What is your position?

A.—Watchman?

Q.—Where?

A.—City of Pittsburgh, North Side Market.

Q.—Were you off duty during this sick spell?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—And does the record show you were away during that time?

A.—They got a doctor's certificate.

Q.—What days were you away?

A.—I took sick Tuesday night before Thanksgiving.

Q.—Can you tell us what date that was?

A.—No, I cannot.

Q.—Does anybody know what day Thanksgiving was on?

(He was given the information that it was Thursday, November 27, 1919.)

Q.—And it was the Tuesday before Thanksgiving you took sick?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—How long were you sick?

A.—I was sick up until the following Sunday when the doctor was up to see me.

Q.—And you said before that you were sick until December 9th?

A.—I said I didn't go to work until Tuesday morning, December 9th.

Q.—You said that was the first day you were out?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Then you were home from the Tuesday before Thanksgiving until Tuesday, December 9th?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Do you know Magistrate Lloyd pretty well?

A.—I have known him for two years.

Q.—Do you spend your evenings over there much?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—Do you go there in the evenings?

A.—I generally loaf around the city hall.

Q.—Around the city hall?

A.—Around the city hall; yes, sir.

Q.—How do you know it was not Monday evening, or some other evening?

A.—It was Tuesday evening, December 9th. It was my first evening out. It was my first day out to work.

Q.—And that is the way you mark your presence in this place?

A.—That is how I mark the evening, Tuesday, December 9th.

Q.—Who else did you see in this station that night?

A.—I was talking to the Desk Sergeant.

Q.—Who is he?

A.—Harry Roseberg.

Q.—Anybody else?

A.—Clarence Hutchinson, the cell sergeant.

Q.—Any one else?

A.—I don't recall.

Q.—There are plenty of people around there?

A.—There is a lot of officers there and I cannot recall who were all there. There were plenty of them going in and going out.

Q.—Do you wear a uniform as an employee of the City of Pittsburgh?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—What kind of clothes did you have on that night?

A.—The same as I have on now.

Q.—What kind of a hat?

A.—There it is right there.

Q.—Same one?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Same overcoat?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Did you have that button on?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—How do you fix the time that you were there in that office?

A.—That evening?

Q.—Yes, sir.

A.—I just got off the car when the clock on the Carnegie Library struck quarter of seven.

Q.—And you went away quarter of eight?

A.—We were sitting in the office when it struck quarter to eight and the judge pulled out his watch and left the office and said he was going to the Academy.

Q.—And there is no reason why the judge had not been back?

A.—No, sir; I left at quarter of eight.

Q.—Did this gentleman go away then (pointing)?

A.—Yes, sir; Mr. Cassilly.

Q.—You account for from quarter of seven to quarter of eight and no other time?

A.—No other time.

Q.—And it was not Monday or Wednesday?

A.—I am talking about December 9th, Tuesday evening.

Q.—With whom have you talked to about this case?

A.—Absolutely nobody.

Q.—When did you confer with Magistrate Lloyd about it?

A.—He told me the other day that he had me as a witness out at Alderman James' office.

Q.—Did you discuss with him this case?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—You came at his suggestion?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Did you follow these proceedings in Council?

A.—Well, I read the papers. Any man who reads the paper can read.

Mr. Walter J. Lloyd recalled by Mr. Trent, and examined as follows:

By Mr. Trent:

Q.—Mr. Lloyd, I want to ask you one more question. What time did you leave your office at the North Side Police Station on the evening of Tuesday, December 9, 1919?

A.—At about a quarter of eight.

Q.—Was you back in your office on that evening?

A.—No, sir.

No cross-examination.

C. H. Cassilly, called as a witness for the prosecution, having been sworn, testified as follows, on examination by Mr. Trent:

Q.—Where do you live?

A.—1115 Pennsylvania avenue.

Q.—Do you know the prosecutor here, his honor, Walter Lloyd?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—How long have you known him?

A.—Probably two years.

Q.—Did you see him the evening of Tuesday, December 9th?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Tuesday, a week?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Where did you see him?

A.—Getting out of his machine in front of the city hall.

Q.—Where were you—did you join him?

A.—In front of the Carnegie Library. I hollered and went across and spoke to him, and he asked me to his office.

Q.—Did he ask you up with Mr. Helfrey, the last witness who testified here.

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—What time was it?

A.—About 10 minutes of 7.

Q.—Did you look at the clock?

A.—No, sir; I had a transfer.

Q.—What happened?

A.—Well, we walked in and we saw Helfrey and the judge asked us in and we went upstairs. We sat there and talked in general until a quarter of eight. The judge said he was going to the Academy to see the boxing bouts and asked us to go along. Neither of us went along. We went downstairs and he got in his car and drove away and Helfrey got his car and I took a Bellevue car.

Q.—Look on the defendant in this case, Mr. Dean Simpson, who is sitting there with the green muffler around his neck, and I will ask you whether you saw him in Judge Lloyd's office that night?

A.—No, sir; I did not.
 Q.—Did you ever see him?
 A.—No, sir; that I know of.
 Q.—Did you see Judge Lloyd go down the street that night?
 A.—I saw him get in his machine and go away.
 Q.—How far had it gone when you last saw it? Was it beyond Ohio and Federal streets?
 A.—Going down Federal street?
 Q.—Yes, sir?
 A.—I didn't pay any attention when the car pulled away.
 Q.—Was Mr. Simpson in the office of Judge Lloyd during the time you were there?
 A.—No, sir; not while I was there.

Cross-examination by Mr. Gray:

Q.—Did you say you lived at 1115 Pennsylvania avenue; that's lower North Side, isn't it?
 A.—Yes, sir.
 Q.—What is your business?
 A.—Clerk in the Bureau of Light.
 Q.—Where is your office located?
 A.—On Brockett street, North Side.
 Q.—That is some sub-station?
 A.—That is the distributing station. It used to be the old North Side plant.
 Q.—How long before December 9th were you in Magistrate Lloyd's office.
 A.—How long before?
 Q.—When were you there that night?
 A.—I have been there a hundred times.
 Q.—You are a friend of his, aren't you?
 A.—In a friendly way, yes.
 Q.—Do you always spend your evenings around the North Side City Hall?
 A.—Not as a rule I don't spend my evenings around the North Side City Hall, but I have had occasion to go up Federal street.
 Q.—You drop in there frequently?
 A.—Yes, sir.
 Q.—And you spend your time in his office?
 A.—Yes, sir.
 Q.—You and he are friendly enough to do that?
 A.—Yes, sir.
 Q.—May be I didn't pay any attention to what you said, but I didn't happen to get just how you happened to be there at that time?
 A.—That is a transfer point where I get my car.
 Q.—And you went over because you saw the magistrate get out of his car?
 A.—Yes, sir.
 Q.—You have been following these proceedings in Council?
 A.—Only what I saw in the paper.
 Q.—Do you recall that this evening we speak of was the day after the hearing in Council?
 A.—Yes, it was the next day after Monday.
 Q.—It was the next day after the magistrate was in Council?

A.—Yes, sir.
 Q.—You don't know where he went or whether he came back or not?
 A.—He said he was going to the Academy and see the boxing bouts.
 Q.—Did you go home when you left there?
 A.—Yes, sir.
 Q.—Are you a married man and have you a family?
 A.—Yes, sir.
 Q.—Does your family live there?
 A.—Yes, sir.
 Q.—What time did you go home?
 A.—About a quarter or 20 minutes after eight.
 Q.—You don't know this boy at all?
 A.—I never saw him.

Mr. Trent:

Who do you mean by this boy? You are pointing around here.

Mr. Gray:

I am pointing to Simpson.

Mr. Cassilly:

I don't know him.

Mr. Trent:

You are the only boy here.

Mr. Trent:

Q.—Mr. Cassilly, I ask you whether you saw Simpson around the North Side City Hall or the office of Magistrate Lloyd on the evening of December 9, 1919?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—Did you see him before tonight?

A.—No, sir.

Mr. Gray:

Q.—He might have been there for all you know?

A.—Yes, sir.

Mr. Trent:

You cannot answer questions like that. We ask that this defendant be held for court to answer on the charge of perjury.

D. D. Simpson, having been sworn, testified as follows on examination by

Mr. Gray:

Q.—Where do you live, Mr. Simpson?

A.—Mt. Washington, 112 Kathleen street.

Q.—Where do you work?

A.—Carnegie Steel Company, Purchasing Department.

Q.—How long have you worked there?

A.—Almost four years—four years last part of January.

Q.—Were you a member of the Liberty Loan Band?

A.—I was.

Q.—You know Walter Lloyd?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—He was the leader of that band?
A.—Manager.

Q.—And you met him frequently in the course of your work for it?

A.—Yes, sir; very often.

Q.—How long did you serve in that organization?

A.—Through the four Liberty Loan drives and on four occasions of home-coming celebrations.

Q.—In the Liberty Loan drives you worked for nothing, I believe?

A.—Absolutely.

Q.—And for the four home-coming engagements you were to be paid?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—How much was due you for that service—the four times you were to be paid?

A.—$14.50.

Q.—By the way, where did this band practice?

A.—In the North Side Police Station in the large rooms in the front.

Q.—Were you over there frequently?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—You know where Magistrate Lloyd's office is?

A.—In the rear of the building.

Q.—You and he were on friendly terms?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—You had been to his house?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—And he called you by your first name?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—You never had any differences with him at all at any time?

A.—None at all.

Q.—Mr. Simpson, did you get the $14.50 that was due you for service in this band?

A.—I did.

Q.—Did you get that money on or about the 22nd of August, 1919?

A.—I did not.

Q.—Did you make any efforts to collect that from Mr. Lloyd?

A.—Three attempts I made to collect it.

Q.—Were you ever over to the North Side Police Station to see the Magistrate other than at the times you went there for rehearsals?

A.—I went over on the Saturday morning about the middle of September to collect my money.

Q.—How can you fix the time?

A.—I recall the day very well because I had gone on my vacation and was due back to work on Monday. I returned to the city on the Friday before and had Saturday at my leisure. Having this time I thought it would be a good opportunity to go over and call on him for my money.

Q.—Did you go?

A.—I did.

Q.—Did you see the Magistrate over there?

A.—Yes, upstairs. He just stuck his head outside the door.

Q.—Did you have any conversation with him?

A.—I told him I came over to see if I could get my money. He told me that he did not have all the money yet; to come back some other time.

Q.—Were you over there any other time?

A.—I went over there some time later—two or three weeks later.

Q.—What date was it?

A.—I don't know what the date was—I think it was on Sunday, October 12.

Q.—Have you any way of fixing the day?

I had a record of it in a memorandum book and it was recalled by a gentleman who remembered that day.

Q.—Have you got your memorandum book?

A.—Yes, sir; I have.

Q.—Will you refer to it? Does the memorandum book contain a note that you were over there?

A.—I have written, "Called on Lloyd."

Q.—And did you see Lloyd on that day?

A.—I did.

Q.—Did you have any conversation with him?

A.—He came in very hurriedly and said, "Good morning." We were there before he got there and he went in and did his work and we waited for him.

Q.—Was some one with you?

A.—Mr. R. N. Smith. He is standing back there.

Mr. Trent:

You mean the man standing in the corner (pointing)?

Mr. Simpson:

Yes, sir.

Q.—Was he a member of the band, too?

A.—Yes, sir; he was a member of the band.

Q.—And he accompanied you that morning?

A.—He did.

Q.—For what purpose—to collect your money?

A.—Yes, sir; to collect our money.

Q.—What did you say to Mr. Lloyd?

A.—We waited until he finished his cases and came out and he started to pass us up. I asked about our money and he said he was too busy to see us at that time. He said to come back some other time. I asked him what time and he said almost any time.

Q.—That was Sunday, October 12th?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Did you make any further efforts to get your money?

A.—I mailed him a bill and marked it personal on the outside. I don't recall or have any record of the date.

Q.—Did you make any other effort later than that to collect your money from him?

A.—I did on the evening I received it.

Q.—Well, did you have any conversation with him or communicate with him before that evening?

A.—I got word indirectly that he was to be in his office and I called him up to make sure because I did not want to make a trip over there and not find him there.

Q.—What time did you call him?

A.—I don't remember—I believe it was the Saturday before I was there.

Q.—You heard the testimony he gave?

A.—I didn't talk to his mother-in-law. A lady answered the 'phone and then called him. I did not explain my case to her or say who I was or what I wanted.

Q.—What was your conversation? You know the magistrate well enough to know that he was on the line? What was the conversation?

A.—I said I got word from Mr. Ewing that he wanted to see the boys at his office and I asked him if he would be there. I didn't say much more. I said I didn't want to be mixed up in this affair, but wanted to get my money and settle it all. He said he would be there and to come over.

Q.—He made the appointment?

A.—He said he would be there when we came over.

Q.—That was Tuesday evening, December 9th?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—The day after he first appeared in Council?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Now, how did you get word that the magistrate was looking for you to pay the money?

A.—I got word from Mr. J. J. Ewing.

Q.—When did you get that word?

A.—On Saturday—I don't know what date that would be—about the 8th—no the 5th or 6th I believe. The Saturday before the 9th however.

Q.—Did you get word that the magistrate was looking for you to pay the money?

A.—I did not get word that he was looking for me direct to come to his office, but wanted all the members to come to his office.

Q.—Who told you that?

A.—Mr. Ewing.

Q.—You told him that Ewing had told you to come to the office to collect the money?

Mr. Trent:

I object to the question.

Mr. Gray:

If the court please, I am not trying to tie Lloyd up to anything here. I want to show why this lad went over there.

Mr. Trent:

Why he went there has nothing to do with this case.

Q.—Did Ewing tell you that he talked to Lloyd and that Lloyd wanted the boys to come over?

Mr. Trent:

I object to that, your honor.

The Court:

What Ewing told him will not go.

Mr. Gray:

It proves that this boy had some incentive to go there and he went there. What his reasons were are perfectly legitimate. We will follow that by other proof of Ewing of course.

Q.—You got the word that Lloyd was looking for you?

Mr. Trent:

It is the same question. I object to it.

The Court:

Answer yes or no.

A.—I did.

Mr. Trent:

That is not evidence. What he did, not what he heard. What he did is evidence in this case—not what he heard.

Mr. Gray:

Q.—You then called him up?

A.—I called him up.

Q.—And acting on that point you went to his office?

A.—I did.

Q.—And how do you know that was December 9th?

A.—Of course several days later I was called upon to say which day I got the money and it was not hard to recall that Tuesday evening was the ninth.

The Court:

That is not a good answer to that question.

Q.—You were in Council later on Thursday and you identified the day because it was two days prior to that?

A.—I recall it for a good many reasons. I was invited to go out to Wilkinsburg, and if you will refer to the papers about that time, you will see that the Sheraden Sabre Band held a concert on the ninth. I had to cancel that engagement to go to Lloyd's office.

Q.—You did?

A.—I did.

Q.—You went over there—when did you go there?

A.—I got there about 2 or 3 minutes to 7.

Q.—At the North Side Police Station, old City Hall?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Was Lloyd there at the time?

A.—He was not.

Q.—Did he come in later?

A.—I went upstairs and looked into his office and inquired in the court room if he had been there and I went out in the front and stood there. I had not been there more than 2 or 3 minutes until he came.

Q.—Mr. Simpson, have you any way of determining exactly what the time was or are you simply estimating?

A.—Mr. Ewing told me to meet them in town under Kaufmann's clock at a quarter of 7 and go over in a body. I got there at the appointed time and not finding any of them there I did not wait long and proceeded right over and it did not take me more than 10 or 12 minutes to walk from Kaufmann's to the North Side.

Q.—So you estimate it was about 7 o'clock when you got there?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—You did not hear any clock ring or you didn't look at your clock?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—And you know it was about that time of the evening?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—When he got there you met him at the front door?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Was he with any one or alone?

A.—He was alone.

Q.—What did you do then?

A.—He invited me to go up to his office.

Q.—Did you go?

A.—I did.

Q.—Was there any one else in his office?

A.—There was another man in his office when I got there.

Q.—Either of these men who testified—either Helfrey or Cassilly, either of these?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—Did you know the man?

A.—I did not.

Q.—What happened there, Mr. Simpson?

A.—On arriving in the office he asked me how much money he owed me. I told him the dates I played and he made a record in a book.

Q.—What kind of a book?

A.—Some sort of a ledger or a check book about the size of this book (pointing) only it opened the other way.

Q.—He made a note of it?

A.—We figured it out together what it would amount to and he drew out his check book. He started to write a check. The first thing a fellow would do would be to put down the date. He looked at me and asked me what day I received that on. I figured a minute and told him the day was September 9th—I mean December 9th.

Q.—You are talking about the receipt and he was making a check. What did he do then?

A.—He was making a note in the front of the book and the amount.

Q.—Did he start to write you a check.

A.—No, sir.

Q.—Did he give you the cash?

A.—Not until I wrote the receipt.

Q.—Did he give you a receipt in blank and tell you to write the receipt?

A.—He handed me a receipt book.

Q.—Did you write the receipt in the book?

A.—I wrote it in the book and handed it back to him with it in.

Q.—What did you write with?

A.—With a lead pencil.

Q.—For what amount was it?

A.—$14.50.

Q.—And you signed it?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—And did you date it?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—What date was put on it?

A.—August 22nd.

Q.—How did you come to put that date on?

A.—At Mr. Lloyd's request.

Q.—What did he ask you?

A.—He asked me when I received the money. I looked around at the calendar and told him December 9th. He said, "Does it make any difference to you when that receipt is dated?" I said it might make a lot of difference if I were called into Council. He said there was not much danger of that unless I went there voluntarily. Then I put down August 22nd. I could not see any objection to it.

Q.—It was at his request?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—You delivered the receipt to him at that place

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—What did he give you?

A.—He gave me three $5.00 bills and I gave him 50 cents change.

Q.—What else happened?

A.—He requested that I go down in front of the building and see if any of the other fellows were outside and in the meantime he asked me to go across the street to the drugstore and get a couple of cigars.

Q.—Did you do it?

A.—Yes, sir; I did it as a favor.

Q.—Did he give you the money?

A.—Yes, sir; 25 cents.

Q.—What drugstore?

A.—Right cattacornor from the old city hall. I got the cigars and took them right to his office.

Q.—You didn't see these men there (pointing)?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—How long did you stay?
A.—Altogether I don't think I was in his office more than 20 minutes.
Q.—And you left and he was still there?

A.—Yes, sir.
Q.—Where did you go?
A.—Back over to town.
Q.—Did he request you to send the other fellows in?

A.—Just before I left he requested me if I knew of other members of the band who were not paid to send them over on the following evening and he would be there about 7 or half-past to pay them.

Q.—Did you do that for him?
A.—I did.
Q.—Did you communicate with some of the men?

A.—I did.
Q.—With whom?
A.—Mr. Saling.
Q.—When did you call him?
A.—I called him about half past nine the following morning.

Q.—Any one else?
A.—I then called Mr. R. N. Smith and asked him to notify Mr. Hutchinson. A few minutes after I called Saling.

Q.—What did you tell those fellows?
A.—I told them that I was at Mr. Lloyd's office and received my money. I told them that if they knew anybody else who had not received their money to send them over and they would get theirs and told them to get them there at the time he appointed.

Q.—And you appeared in Council on Thursday morning, the 11th of December?

A.—No, sir; it was Friday.
Q.—You were not there on Thursday morning?

A.—No, sir.
Q.—It was Friday. You were not there at the hearing on Thursday. You went there at their request and told them what you told here and swore to it?

A.—I did; yes, sir.

Mr. Trent:

Please mind your business.

Mr. Gray:

A.—Almost four years.

Mr. Gray:

I object.

Q.—In what capacity are you employed?

Mr. Gray:

I object to this.

The Court:

He said he was a clerk in the Purchasing Department.

Mr. Trent:

We are finding something out now. We are going to find out everything before we get through. We are going to find out everything about this boy here before we get through.

Mr. Simpson:

 Go ahead and examine the witness.

Mr. Trent:
 Q.—How did you happen to get in this band?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—What payment had you coming to you?

(At this time a fight started between witnesses R. N. Smith and Robert Helfrey, and the Court ordered both put out of the office.)

Mr. Gray:
 Smith is one of my witnesses.

The Court:
 Let Smith stay in here if he is a witness.

Mr. Trent:
 Q.—Now, Mr. Simpson, let me ask you whether your signature and the date August 22, 1919, whether that is your writing there on that receipt?

A.—Yes, sir; that is my writing. On this and that too.

Q.—And you wrote down August 22nd, 1919?

A.—Yes, sir.
 Q.—And that was your pay for the times you talk about—the three times in March and April?

A.—Yes, sir.
 Q.—You know your signature. That is it signed under there, isn't it?

A.—Yes, sir.
 Q.—You are a truthful young man?

A.—Yes, sir.
 Q.—And when you wrote August 22, 1919, you were not telling the truth were you?

A.—I went there on my own free will.

Q.—Who asked you to go there?

A.—I went there of my own free will.

Q.—How did you know about the case?

A.—I went there because I had read in the paper where Walter Lloyd said I received my money on the 22nd of August and I went to defend my name.

Q.—The receipt was not the truth?

A.—No, sir; it was not.
 Q.—You lied when you signed the receipt?

A.—I signed that receipt at his request. It was not right but it did not necessarily lie.

Q.—Why didn't it necessarily lie?

A.—I don't know what you are trying to get at.

Q.—Is the receipt true?

Mr. Gray:

Tell him over again just what it is.

Mr. Trent:

We will examine him.

Mr. Gray:

I am protecting the witness.

Mr. Simpson:

I am not a liar.

Mr. Trent:

Just answer the question.

Mr. Gray:

Examine him right, just as a lawyer should.

Mr. Trent:

I will examine this witness the way I think best.

Mr. Gray:

I object to the manner in which you are asking him the questions.

Mr. Trent:

Look here, who is testifying here? Why don't you be sworn and testify and tell about these facts? If you are going to talk be sworn. If you want to testify be sworn.

The Court:

Go ahead and examine the witness, Mr. Trent, but do it right.

A.—I did it according to Mr. Lloyd's request.

Q.—You signed something that was not true?

A.—The date was not true; it was at Mr. Lloyd's request.

Q.—It was not true?

Mr. Gray:

The date was incorrect and he said so. I object to further badgering the witness. Let him go on.

Mr. Trent:

Look here, you will get your turn and if you want to answer questions just try it.

Mr. Gray:

If you don't want to ask any questions, just let up. You are a talkative young man.

Mr. Trent:

I will not dry up.

Q.—Was that receipt correct about August 22nd?

A.—It was not correct.

Q.—You told a lie then?

A.—I didn't. The receipt was a good receipt as long as it was not dated before I played the engagements. Even if it had no date at all.

Q.—You wrote it yourself; it is your handwriting?

A.—Yes, sir; I did it as a favor to Mr. Lloyd.

Q.—And you wrote down August 22nd?

A.—I did.

Q.—It was not August 22nd that you got the money?

A.—No, sir.

Q.—August 22nd is your own handwriting?

A.—It is my handwriting. I acknowledge that.

A.—I didn't.

Q.—Did you sign it as August 22nd?

A.—Yes, sir.

The Court:

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—It was at his, Lloyd's request?

Q.—You wrote that receipt on December 9th?

A.—On December 9th, yes, sir.

Q.—You told a lie when you wrote the date August 22nd? Isn't that a lie?

A.—If that is a lie he asked me to write a lie.

Q.—You wrote a lie, did you or didn't you?

A.—Yes, sir; I wrote that date.

When he passed us we didn't interfere. He was in a hurry and we waited until court was over. Going out we understood from those around that he had to go to the South Side and was in a hurry then. He walked past us. We walked out and made casual mention. He said just a minute or something like that. He said we would have to come back again as he was in a hurry then and did not have time. We asked him to mention just what time when we should come back. I said to him, will you fix a time? He said most any time. He said I have part of the money and I will fix you up as best I can.

 A.—He did on the telephone.

Q.—Who is R. B. Lloyd? How long have you known him?

A.—I met him in Pittsburgh at the Union.

Q.—What year?

A.—I met him in the Liberty Loan drives of 1919. He is a theatrical man.

Q.—Where did you meet him?

A.—At the Union Station.

Q.—What did he pay you this check for?

A.—I sold him a saxophone in Pittsburgh.

Q.—At what place?

A.—At the Anderson Hotel.

Q.—What room in the Anderson Hotel?

Mr. Gray:

If you honor please, what he swears to with relation to the charge brought before your honor by Lloyd against Simpson is relevant, but this has nothing to do with the band matter.

Mr. Trent:

It has no relation to the band trouble?

Mr. Gray:

It has not.

Mr. Ewing:

I answered that in Council.

Mr. Trent:

You are under oath. I am going to ask you questions.

Q.—In what room in the Anderson Hotel did you sell the saxophone to R. B. Lloyd?

The Court:

He can answer that.

A.—It was upstairs.

Q.—Where? What room?

A.—I don't remember the room.

Q.—Where?

A.—It was upstairs. We took an elevator.

Q.—Was R. B. Lloyd registered there?

A.—I could not say. He took me to the room of another man.

Q.—When was that?

A.—I will say before March.

Mr. Gray:

All this has nothing to do with the matter before your honor, and I object to this kind of cross-examination.

Mr. Trent:

The only ground that he makes replies on here is on the ground that he incriminates himself.

Q.—What floor was this on?

A.—I don't know; I could not say.

Q.—Do you know the man?

A.—I don't know the man and never saw him before.

Q.—How much did you get for the saxophone?

A.—$50.00 at that time.

Q.—How much was paid you then?

A.—$50.00.

Q.—What was the selling price?

A.—I don't remember whether it was $87.50 or 67.50.

Mr. Gray:

I object to this kind of cross-examination.

The Court:

You are off the job on this, Trent. You want to cut it out.

Mr. Trent:

Whatever you rule is satisfactory to the prosecution.

Q.—I will ask him one more question. How much did you get cash down on your saxophone?

Mr. Gray:

I object to that as irrelevant. It has nothing to do with this case.

The Court:

I sustain the objection.

W. H. Roy, called as a witness for the defendant, and having been sworn, testified as follows on examination by Mr. Gray:

Q.—What is your name?

A.—W. H. Roy.

Q.—What is your business?

A.—I am Assistant Buyer with the Carnegie Steel Company.

Q.—Does Simpson work for you?

A.—Under me.

Q.—How long have you known him?

A.—I have known Dean for about four years.

Q.—You know something about him and his character?

A.—I know his character is of the best. He is honest in his transactions with the various concerns we deal with. He is truthful and honest in all such transactions. The company would not retain him if he were not.

Q.—He has a responsible position under you?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—You know he is a trust-worthy young man and his reputation is above reproach?

A.—If it were not the company would not retain him in his position.

Mr. Trent:

I object to any evidence of this witness as submitted to your honor for your consideration.

Q.—You know how he is esteemed in the social and business world among his friends and associates?

A.—I do.

Q.—And you know he is esteemed as a young man of the highest character and is a truthful young man?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—Mr. Roy, where do you live?

A.—1114 Sheridan avenue.

Q.—Where does Mr. Simpson live?

A.—He lives on Mt. Washington. I could not give you his street address.

Q.—Did he ever visit in your house or you in his?

A.—I have seen him on the street and had him out to lunch at various times going over little business transactions.

Q.—Has he ever mixed with any people he knows outside the office of your company?

A.—Well, I have at times. I cannot recall the incidents. I have seen him outside.

Q.—Did you ever hear anything discussed about him that you saw outside?

A.—I have.

Q.—What was it?

A.—They told me in a business way Mr. Simpson is a very good clerk; a very good buyer and a very nice man to approach.

Q.—Did they ever tell you that he was a young man of honesty?

A.—I never discussed that with them.

Q.—That is all.

Mr. Trent:

The prosecutor moves to have the testimony of the witness, Mr. Roy, stricken from the records.

Mr. Gray:

If the court please, I would like to discuss this case with you either now or at your convenience.

Mr. Trent:

Your honor, I have one more witness.

Harry W. Gordon, called as a witness for the prosecution, having been sworn, testified as follows on examination by Mr. Trent:

Q.—What is your name?

A.—Harry W. Gordon.

Q.—Where do you live?

A.—3437 Fleming avenue, North Side.

Q.—Mr. Gordon, do you remember the night of December 9th?

A.—Yes, sir.

Q.—How do you happen to remember it?

A.—That morning I had hearings before Judge Lloyd on red tags. That night I went to the Academy. I was off duty at 10 instead of 11 that night with my Lieutenant's permission to see the bouts—there was to be amateur prize fights.

Q.—What day of the week was that?

A.—Tuesday, a week ago.

Q.—What day of the month?

A.—The 9th of December.

Q.—Where were you in the afternoon until 10 o'clock that night—from 5 o'clock on?

A.—Around through Allegheny. I have the whole Allegheny District and go to No. 12 Police Station to report to the police operator in Pittsburgh. I report on the hour and I was there at 4, 5 and 6 and from 6 until 7 was my lunch period and I went over to Mr. Good's in the Diamond and got my supper and was back there at 6:30.

Q.—Tell where you were from 6:30 on?

A.—I went in the back room and had a smoke. I talked to the sergeant for a while and one of the officers and the cell sergeant. Just as the clock struck quarter of 7 o'clock I went out to the steps on Federal street. Just then a machine came up and I met Judge Lloyd, and this gentleman (indicating Mr. Cassilly), met Judge Lloyd before he came up to the steps. I said good evening Judge, and ever since he knows me he just calls me "Gordie." I followed him in and went to the toilet and coming out I met him with Mr. Helfrey, and all three started up the steps and I stood on the front until the clock struck 7, and I called up the operator and stood out in the front from 7 to quarter after 7. I wasn't riding that night and I walked down Federal street and I went to Mr. Neff's store on Federal street, and I reported again to the station at 15 minutes to 8, and was standing outside on the lower step when Mr. Lloyd and these two gentlemen came out. I didn't speak to Mr. Lloyd when he came out and he got in the machine and drove down Federal street.

Q.—What time was that?

A.—Just 15 minutes or may be 12 minutes of eight. The clock just struck.

Q.—When did you see him again that night?

A.—I saw Mr. Lloyd again, I judge in the evening about quarter after 10.

Q.—Where?

A.—At the Academy theatre.

Q.—Where is that?

A.—On Liberty street.

Q.—Take a look at Mr. Simpson, the defendant in this case, and I will ask you whether you saw him at the North Side Police station on Tuesday evening, December 9th?

A.—I never saw him until tonight when he was called out by name.

Q.—Did you take notice who went up into Magistrate Lloyd's office that night?

A.—As I said before, this gentleman and this gentleman went up the steps with him (indicating Mr. Helfrey and Mr. Cassilly).

Q.—Did you see any one else go up?

A.—No, sir; I do not know; I went to the toilet and then went out.

Q.—Mr. Gordon, please tell his honor once again what hours you were there from the time you got there until the time you left?

A.—Do you mean in the afternoon?

Q.—No, in the evening?

A.—As I left there I reported at 6 o'clock and was back again at 6:30 and went back in the back room and had a smoke and came out quarter of seven.

Q.—How long were you there then?

A.—I stayed until a couple of minutes of seven when I reported to the sergeant and police operator.

Q.—Between the time you reported to the sergeant and quarter of eight, where were you?

A.—I was out in the front until quarter after seven and I went down street and came back and I was there again about quarter of eight.

Q.—What time did you notice Magistrate Lloyd leaving?

A.—It was just about quarter of eight.

Cross-examination by Mr. Gray:

Q.—You were away a half or three-quarters of an hour?

A.—From a quarter after seven until about a quarter of eight.

Q.—You cannot say who was about the North Side City Hall?

A.—Not while I was away.

Q.—Well, while you were there?

A.—I could not say whether they were or not; they might have gone in and out, I don't know.

Mr. Trent:

Q.—Mr. Simpson testified that he waited in the doorway until about half past seven for Magistrate Lloyd. Did you see Simpson there?

A.—I saw nobody but a street car motorman and conductor in the vestibule and Mr. Lloyd with these two gentlemen.

Q.—Did you notice anybody else?

A.—Nobody outside this motorman or conductor.

Q.—That is all.

Mr. Gray:

No cross-examination.

The Court:

Are all the witnesses in now?

Mr. Trent:

Your honor please, I ask you that this defendant be held for court to await the action of the Grand Jury on the charge of perjury.

Mr. Gray:

Your honor please, I ask you to discharge this young man for the very simple reason that the prosecutor has not come anywhere near making a case of perjury.

Now, I will call your honor's attention to the Act of Assembly in reference to this matter, which is like this: If any person shall wilfully or corruptly commit wilful and corrupt perjury or shall by any means procure or suborn any person to commit wilful and corrupt perjury, on his oath legally administered before any court or committee of the Legislature of this Commonwealth, or if any person or federation may be injured thereby, such a person wilfully and corruptly making this oath may be adjudged guilty of perjury.

The elements of the offense are that the facts testified to are false, or that the person charging the witness believes they are not true. If he believes they are true the offense of perjury must be established, and that the oath was corruptly and wilfully made falsely. It must be shown that there was some ulterior motive to defraud somebody, and if the court will read the law, the comments and the cases, you will find that the matter sworn to, even if falsely or corruptly made, must be material to the issue in which it is made. If it is not material it don't make any difference how false it is. You cannot base a charge of perjury thereon.

Now let us turn to that matter of materiality. This prosecutor has not proven—has not undertaken to prove to you what the issue over in that Council chamber was. What was it? I don't know—you don't know, and the prosecutor don't know. We have no basis for any judgment on that matter, and unless it does appear what the issue is and that this testimony was material to that issue and had a direct tendency to prove it or had an effect to injure the prosecutor, there is no charge of perjury established. He has not proven anything. Let us discuss it. The testimony of this young man was taken in a hearing before the Finance Committee of Council of the City of Pittsburgh, and that hearing took place on a resolution presented in that Council, and the resolution was in substance this: That Magistrate Lloyd should be required to return to the City the $1,125.00 which he had gotten on a warrant on account of this Liberty Loan Band, and with it a list of those who were entitled to wages as members of that band in order that the money might be distributed among those entitled to wages—there being an allegation and proof positive that some of the men were not paid by Mr. Lloyd.

The issue is simply this: It was an effort to get the money to the rightful parties that they might be paid and, of course, as Magistrate Lloyd in his answer raises the question that if it had been paid to all rightful parties it should not be returned to the city, and as to those who had been paid and as much of that money as had been paid, the resolution could not prevail. Now, the Magistrate came into Council and he presented a list of names that—

Mr. Trent:

Let's stick to what is in this case and what was in evidence before your honor.

Mr. Gray:

You are quite right.

Mr. Trent:

You bet I am.

Mr. Gray:

He alleged before Council that Dean Simpson has received the money that was due him for services in this band, and Dean Simpson went into Council a little later and also told the Council he had received his $14.50 and was paid in full, and there were others also who were shown to be paid in full, so that as far as Simpson was concerned—as far as this issue was concerned—it makes no difference at all—none at all—when this money was paid to Simpson. Whether it was on August 22nd or December 9th. It is absolutely immaterial. If he had his money he could not get it again, and if paid to him the city could not get it. Therefore, the resolution failed as to every man who had received his money. It could not prevail as to any man who had received his money and the purpose was to get the money for those who were entitled to it. So, if there was any materiality to the whole proceeding this testimony that Simpson gave there, even if false, had absolutely no effect on the transaction at all. It don't make any difference when he got the money. They all agree he got it. Therefore, there is between Lloyd and the City and Simpson no issue. They did not take any action—could not take any action, so the matter of date is absolutely irrelevant and immaterial, and has no effect and importance in this case, so that the only thing at issue in this case is whether he got his money at one date or another and swore to a different date. It makes no difference whether he swore to a hundred different dates; he had his money and it does not make any difference what the date of the receipt was. What could the Council do? Absolutely nothing. The purpose of the resolution was satisfied as far as the Magistrate was concerned. Simpson was satisfied and the City was satisfied. Simpson had his money. So that if you want to go outside the record here they have not proven what the case was. There is nothing before your honor to indicate what Council was debating about and what was before the Council, or why they had Lloyd in or Simpson in. They did not show you what the issue was before Council. The testimony taken before Council is immaterial and even if true it would not convict Lloyd of something. It could not be perjury even if he swore falsely. I am sure he did not swear falsely. There is not one reason to prove that a crime was committed.

That preceding took place before the Council of the City of Pittsburgh. They talked about most everything. There was testimony submitted on everything and anything relating to the band matter. The evidence was not like in a court of justice where the evidence is kept down to the point at issue. It run anywhere and everywhere, and there was a whole lot of talk about everything. Now, I think if you will read the record of what took place there that you will conclude that the matter of this date is of no consequence. There was no dispute as to when he received the money. The date is altogether insignificant. Now, in addition to that, this is just a receipt given to evidence the payment of money. It is not like a contract or solemn instrument. I want to show that a receipt can be explained just as any other kind of statement. It is only prima facie evidence. The only thing in question is, Did he get his money? And the date is a minor matter. It relieves him—this young man—of the charge of perjury. He did not do it with an attempt to injure or hurt Mr. Lloyd. Who could be injured by his putting that date as of August 22nd? Not Lloyd. Lloyd was not injured by that. I think he was benefited by that, and this young man says he requested him to date it August 22nd. He could not commit perjury by testifying that he dated the receipt August 22nd, whereas he only received his money on Tuesday, December 9th. The setting back of the date was a decided benefit to Mr. Lloyd. It could be of no damage to him. What evil purpose could this young man do by dating the receipt August 22nd, and this was no injury to Mr. Lloyd. Therefore, there is no wilfulness or corruptness in it. This man does not pretend that he got the money on August 22nd.

Mr. Simpson said that he and another man went over on October 12th to see Mr. Lloyd at the station house. Mr. Lloyd does not remember that; he does not contradict it; he does not say that he paid this money on the 22nd, and it is certain that he did not pay him on the 22nd, and he had not paid him on October 12, and the gentleman saw him after that, and when Mr. Lloyd appeared in Council he said he did not know whether this boy had a claim against the band or not. When did he pay that money to him? Some time after October 12th and after December 8th. But there is one very good reason and a very weighty reason why this boy ought not to be held for court. Not only have they showed that this had no significance in the matter or that any evil could come to this man or any damage or evil, and here is where their case absolutely fails.

Under the criminal laws of Pennsylvania, page 484, it says that a charge of perjury must be proven by more than one witness. The only witness who said that this young man did not get the money on December 9th is Walter Lloyd. He is the man who says that he did not get it on December 9th, and nobody else. And Simpson says that he did get it on December 9th, and the evidence is very suasive that he is to be believed and not Walter Lloyd. Now, Helfrey did not say this boy did not get it; neither did Cassilly or this officer. Mr. Gordon, because none of them are willing to say it. There is not one of them in a position to say that this boy did not get this money on the evening of December 9th. Nobody is trying to set the clock. Officer Gordon was away and it might be that this boy saw Lloyd in the time while he was away, and as to the other men it is altogether possible that they could not have seen him there. They say they did not. He says he saw Lloyd there and got his money and gave him a receipt. Lloyd says he did not give him the money that evening, but his recollection is very poor as to when he did give it to him. There is one witness who testified that this boy did not have his money on October 12th, and only one witness who says that he did get his money, and there is very persuasive corroborating evidence that he did—he did not have it before that, and he did have it after that.

This boy Ewing testified that there was some arrangement for a meeting on Tuesday, December 9th. Why in the world would that boy testify to that if there was not some truth in it? And Simpson telephoned around to these other boys and wrote to Saling and advised them that there would be a meeting over there and that they might expect to get their money. It is admitted that they did not get their money and why would they meet there except to get their money, and Lloyd arranged that meeting and the boy went over and he got his money and he gave him a receipt, and to help his friend out he dated the receipt August 22nd, and telephoned other fellows to go over and get their money as he had gotten his. Well, he got his money. When did he get it? On the evening of December 9th. It is easy enough to change the date. A certain prominent politician when he was charged with a serious crime proved an alibi that he was at a certain place on a certain date, and he got free from that charge.

Mr. Trent:

Name the politician you are speaking about.

Mr. Gray:

It was simply a case of one said this and the other said that. Now, it is altogether possible that these men might be mistaken about the date. It is easy enough. They might have been there Monday night or Wednesday night. It is of great consequence that they were with Lloyd on a certain night, and they fitted it together to precision. This boy got his money from Lloyd. Why would he say he got it from Lloyd? Does anybody doubt he got his money, $14.50? Consequently, I would not say there is any doubt. He said he got it on or about December 9th, and the only man to say that he did not get it is Walter Lloyd. The circumstances are all against him. His friends who have done the best they could for him have proved that he did or did not pay Simpson on December 9th. Suppose the time was one hour or less when these men might have been there, a little later or earlier. Simpson was over there on a particular day and got his money and is willing to say that he got it and he communicated to his friends and they know he got it and know that he did not get it before and others went over.

And I submit to the court that in all this chaos and muss that we have had here and the voluminous testimony that has been submitted no crime has been shown. Take their testimony. No crime has been shown, because it does not make any difference when he signed the receipt. It had no weight in the proceedings before Council, and it could not effect Lloyd one way or another, and there is only one witness against him, and that is Walter Lloyd, and I submit to you your honor ought to discharge this lad.

Mr. Trent:

If the court please, as far as the alderman and the layman is concerned, perjury consists in subscribing to a false oath. I will submit to your honor that the false oath this witness Simpson subscribed to before Council was a false oath because he admits that he took a false oath. Let us get back to what this matter was about. It was an investigation by the City Council where an oath was administered under the law by Mr. Martin, the City Clerk, and after this defendant here, Simpson, was sworn and stated these facts, and he stated them in the absence of the prosecutor, Walter Lloyd, who had not been given an opportunity to be confronted by his accuser as every American citizen is guaranteed that right. Walter Lloyd was not there. He did not have an opportunity to be heard and cross-examine Mr. Simpson. He had no opportunity to ask Simpson any questions, which would have shown that this man Simpson, lied when he signed August 22nd, which he admitted here to your honor out of his own mouth. Walter Lloyd had no opportunity to be face to face with his accuser, which every American citizen is guaranteed under the law. He was not there.

Council sat there and heard Simpson without Walter Lloyd being present. Now, what does Walter Lloyd say? He says he gave him $14.65. What does Simpson say? He says he got $14.50 on the evening of December 9th in the North Side Police Station. We proved to your honor by a number of witnesses—witnesses who were not biased, who had nothing at stake—that Simpson was not there that night. Lloyd says that he was there from 10 minutes of 7 until a quarter of eight, and we proved by enumerable witnesses that Simpson was not there. We proved by testimony that Lloyd went there and we submitted that to you by a number of witnesses that he was there.

We submit to you that Mr. Lloyd should have had an opportunity to ask Mr. Simpson questions when he was before Council, because in all American courts of justice it is the right of every American citizen to face his accuser and that right is guaranteed to him by the law. Walter Lloyd should have had an opportunity to refute the testimony of Mr. Simpson at that hearing, and he should have had a chance to produce Mr. Helfrey and Mr. Cassilly and Mr. Gordon before the Council to show that this man Simpson was lying, as he has admitted to your honor out of his own mouth, because he said to you that he wrote the words, "August 22nd, 1919. And when we get this man before a jury he will be convicted on his own handwriting, and your honor will be asked to identify your initials. He lied once and he is accused of perjury because he swore before the City Clerk to receiving his money on an evening when he was not present, and he swore that at a time when Walter Lloyd was not present and had no opportunity to cross-examine him, and had no opportunity to refute anything.

The crime of perjury is the taking of a wilful and corrupt oath, and I submit to you that you don't need more than one witness to prove that charge. Your honor is here and this man Simpson has committed perjury. Ewing has perjured himself and what the motive is is going to be developed later. It is shown by the testimony of Walter Lloyd and all of his witnesses that this man Simpson was not at the Station house on December 9th, Tuesday evening. Simpson said he was there and signed that receipt December 9th, and said he lied, and your honor we are going to ask that you hold this man for court and then we will ask that the court impose the sentence on him which he deserves. This has cast a reflection on this citizen who stands as a well known and reputable and honorable citizen, the reflection on his honor and the honor of Walter Lloyd demands a punishment imposed upon him if it is within the power of Walter Lloyd to demand. And we ask you to hold him to secure justice to Walter Lloyd.

The Court:

Mr. Simpson, I will hold you for court under $500.00 bail.

Said rent is to be paid within ten days from date it is due, or this license shall immediately terminate at the option of the first party.
